PLEASE OVERLOOK any errors this week as I'm really not responsible 'cause it's getting mighty close to the opening of deer season this week-end.

Say you "hunter's widows," remember that old saying, "If you can't beat 'em, join 'em"! Once you get the "bug" you've had it! Around our house the whole family treks out, after very impatiently awaiting the opening day.

GOING AWAY parties were the flavor of the past week for the Bill Labharts and their children, Chris and Mark.

Last Tuesday night the Howard Cleavelands entertained at their home with a dinner party in honor of Jackie and Bill with Dr. and Mrs. Cliff Wagner as guests.

KEVAN AND KENT Pratt hosted a farewell party for Mark Labhart Friday evening and presented him with a soccer ball. A surprised Mark appeared when his classmates, Mike Smith, Monte Evans, Larry Pettyjohn, Jerry Healy, and David Gundersen, were gathered at the Pratt home. The boys enjoyed a barbecue hot dog supper before attending the grade school football game.

CHRIS LABHART was surprised by his classmates with a farewell party and gift of a billfold and belt at the Howard Pettyjohn home with Steve Pettyjohn as host Friday evening.

The boys played football before supper and all attended the grade school football game. Guests included John Van Winkle, Rickey Gimbel, Kit Anderson, David Hall, Gary Ball, Bob Dobbs, Randy Stillman, Chris and Steve.

BETTY GIMBEL and Kay Robinson gave a handkerchief farewell party for Jackie Labhart at the Gimbel home Tuesday afternoon. The guests presented her with quite a lovely array of handkerchiefs.

DID YOU HEAR about the PHA slumber party last Friday night? Some fun, huh?

After the Heppner-Pilot Rock game, the party got going with the initiation of 20 new PHA members. A business meeting followed to discuss the Eastern Oregon district meet in Heppner Oct. 21 with Libby Van Schoiack, district president and chairman of the meet.

Mrs. Elmer Schmidt, home economics instructor, told me the girls had a wonderful time, playing games, dancing and, of course, munching on snacks during the evening and finally getting to bed at 4:00 a. m. At 6:00 a. m. Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Everett Harshman, and Mrs. Helen Cox served breakfast of doughnuts and hot chocolate. Chaperones, are you up to it for another time after chaperoning 40 girls all at once?

WHO SHOULD win the food basket prize at the Soroptimist card party Monday night? ? ? Melba Quackenbush of the Red and White grocery!!

NEWLEWEDS Don and Sheryl Hevener have been awaiting and not too anxiously, the proposed, "Wait 'till you get married then comes your charivari!"

Well, they got it Friday night! The Heppner Ford crew and wives captured them and took them both for a ride with Don decked out in "long handles" and Sheryl in flannel pajamas. Don ended up having to walk to town, and all finally gathered at the John Hartman home for breakfast.

PINOCHLE PLAY got underway again for the younger set when the club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Oliver Devin with Mrs. Vern Viall as hostess.

Going home with the prizes and gag prizes, like cucumbers, watermelon, squash, were Mrs. Vern Evans, high; Mrs. Kenny Sawyer, second; Mrs. Devin low; and Mrs. Delbert Piper, the traveling prize. Other guests were Mrs. Dick Applegate, Mrs. Dick Robinson, and Mrs. Vic Groshens, Jr.

SATURDAY NIGHT, the Frank Hamilins, Conley Lanham, and Bill Blakes hosted a farewell party for the Bill Labharts at the Hamlin's mountain home.

A wonderful spaghetti supper was served and afterwards everyone joined in card games or just visited. Maybe a little reminiscing? A gift from the group was presented to Bill and Jackie for their new home in John Day.

Guests enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Creston Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Meador, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Platt, Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson, and Dr. and Mrs. Jim Norene.

Staying overnight were the Flatts and Labharts and having breakfast with the Hamilins.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE play followed a special family dinner at the Elks lodge Sunday with guests coming from Condon, Pendleton, and Hermiston.

Winners for the play were Mr. and Mrs. William Hampton, Pendleton; high for north-south; and Mrs. Bill Collins and LaVerne Van Marter, second high. On the east-west side, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Edmiston, Hermiston, won high, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Littleton, Pendleton, were second high.

HERE IS a good trick to use in preparing that venison steak or chops from the deer you get over the week-end. First, trim off all of the fat, dip in beaten egg, and roll in crushed cracker crumbs, and cook over medium hot heat in skillet with some shortening until done. This will hide the wild taste and tenderize the meat.

Fall Wedding Unites Couple in Christian Church

Sharon Keithley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Keithley, Heppner, and Robert Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lyle Harrison, Cascade Locks, exchanged wedding vows Sept. 16 in an afternoon ceremony read by Rev. Charles Knox, pastor of the First Christian church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin floor length gown with a sweetheart neckline accented with simulated pearl beading and iridescent spangles. The molded bodice with sweeping full skirt was enhanced by three satin rosettes in the back. Her fingertip length veil of pure silk bridal illusion tulle was held in place by tiers of simulated pearls and sequins and she carried a bouquet of white orchid and carnations.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Jerry Kloepfel, sister of the bride, wearing a dark rose sheath with lace overskirt. Bridesmaids were Sandra Jones and Mrs. Don Hevener who wore light pink sheath dresses with lace overskirt and all carried pink carnation nosegays.

Best man was Lawrence Harrison, brother of the groom. Ushers were Jon Blake and Roger Palmer, cousin of the groom.

Candlelighters were Tricia Keithley, sister of the bride, and

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT HARRISON, the former Sharon Keithley, exchanged marriage vows September 16 in a formal church ceremony.

LaVerne Van Marter. Flower girl was Marie Van Marter.

Soloist was Mrs. Fred Hoskins who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Charles Knox who also played the wedding music.

The reception was held in the church social rooms, with decorations in the church and reception rooms in a pink and white color theme. Mrs. Jasper Clark, aunt of the bride served the three-tier white cake trimmed with pink roses.

Pouring were Mrs. Elmer Palmer, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Bob Jones had charge of the gift table.

For going away, the bride chose a pink sheath dress with white orchid and white accessories. After a short wedding trip to Crater Lake the young couple is living near Lexington where the groom is employed at the Kenneth Palmer ranch. The bride is employed as secretary at the Heppner Elementary schools.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lyle Harrison, parents of the groom, Cascade Locks; Mr. and Mrs. Gih Harrison, Cascade Locks; Mr. and Mrs. Addison Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warmuth, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Major, and Mrs. Tom West all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Jasper

Clark, and Mr. Jack Conger of Apache Junction, Ariz.; Mrs. Jerry Kloepfel and son Bonnie of Vernal, Utah and others from Lone, Lexington, and Eightmile.

Now here—a great new exclusive from Buick

ADVANCED THRUST

Moves power forward for arrow-straight going

It puts the engine ahead like the tip of an arrow • It tames "wind wander" and road sway • It sweeps you forward in a hush of luxury • It turns the floor hump into foot space.

WHAT IT IS—Buick's big new move: It positions the great new Wildcat V-8 and Turbine Drive way up front over Buick's front wheels.

WHAT IT DOES—As the engine went forward, the floor hump went DOWN. And, the forward weight makes wheel response far quicker, cornering far surer, ride far smoother.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT—It's the closest you can come to sports car handling in a passenger car. Distances shrink before its 3/4-G thrust. Hills disappear. Lean on curves is gone because the frame's gone wider. Winds don't make you wander. It's going at its Buick best!
