

Royal Arch to Host Grand High Priest

Vilas J. Brown, grand high priest of the Royal Arch Masons in Oregon, will pay an official visit to Heppner chapter No. 26, Royal Arch Masons, at the regular convocation Friday, October 6, at 8 p. m., according to Oliver Creswick, high priest of the local chapter. The meeting will be in the Masonic temple.

Paul Jones of the local chapter is also a member of the grand chapter and is district deputy to the grand high priest.

The officers ask all members of the chapter to be present.

Shannon Mahoney Installed Rainbow Worthy Advisor

Shannon Mahoney was installed as worthy advisor of the Ruth Assembly, No. 50, Order of Rainbow Girls, at the Masonic hall in Heppner, Monday evening, October 2.

Shannon chose as her theme "Nature and the Out-of-doors" and her colors are yellow and gold which were carried out with gold-trimmed baskets of yellow chrysanthemums in the hall. Her theme song, "Trees," was played by Jeanne Siewert at the piano.

Marie Van Marter, cousin of Shannon, placed the crown on her head as the highlight of the ceremonies. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney were introduced, as were Mrs. Mary Van Stevens, The Dalles, past mother advisor of Ruth Assembly, No. 50; Mrs. J. R. Huffman, worthy matron of Ruth chapter No. 32; and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, mother advisor of the Ione Rainbow assembly.

Other officers installed were: worthy associate advisor, Beverly Blake; charity, Ginger Springer; hope, Sherri Olson; faith, Kathy Ray; recorder, Diane Schaffitz; treasurer, Brenda Young; chaplain, Sandra Harshman; love, Janis Baker; religion, Frances McLeod; nature, Bobby Hutchins; immortality, Jan Hager; fidelity, Teresa Munkers; patriotism, Leora Van Winkle; service, Gale Batty; confidential observer, Barbara Bloodworth; outer observer, Diane Warren; musician, Jeanne Siewert; choir director, Kathy Melby; and drill leader, Carolyn Slocum.

Installing officers were: Linda Halvorsen; chaplain, Brenda Young; drill leader, Diane Fullerton; recorder, Barbara Blake; and musician, Ginny Lou Turner. After the installation ceremonies, an addendum honoring the new worthy advisor was presented in the theme "sunflower" by Beverly Blake, Ginger Springer, Kathy Ray, Sherri Olson, Brenda Young, Diane Schaffitz, Frances McLeod, with Sandra Harshman as organist and Ginny Turner and Kathy Melby soloists.

The reception followed in the dining room with Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter and Mrs. Gene Hall in charge. Mrs. Archie Ball and Mrs. Stevens poured at the tea table. The table continued color scheme with a yellow and gold chrysanthemum centerpiece and yellow candles.

Club Attends Civil Defense Meeting

Members of the Heppner Mother's club gathered at the home of Mrs. Rod Murray Monday evening, then went in a body to the county Civil Defense meeting at the courthouse, hearing in detail the preparedness necessary for home and school shelters in case of possible enemy attack.

In discussions later, the group felt a definite need, in relation to civil defense, that a short course be offered mothers in this area in first aid training and home nursing.

Convening again for a short business meeting, plans were announced for the November meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Knox, with a program on pillow making being planned.

Mrs. Wes Sherman was a guest of the evening.

A social hour closed the meeting, with refreshments served by Mrs. Murray, assisted by Mrs. Roice Fullerton.

'China Court' Review Given to Bookworms

"China Court," by Rumer Godden, was the book reviewed by Mrs. Cornett Green at the Sept. 26 meeting of the Bookworms held at the home of Mrs. James Thomson.

The group held an informal discussion on the different interpretations of the book. The book was then given to the Heppner library.

Members taking part were Mrs. Fred Parrish, Mrs. Ebb Hughes, Mrs. Floyd Jones, Mrs. Ted Smith, Mrs. Lucy Peterson, Mrs. Jack Flug, Mrs. Elsie Cole, and Mrs. Thomson.

This club was organized in 1925 to help further the local library with the members getting acquainted to books of all kinds and reading them. This year Mrs. Leta Humphreys is president, Mrs. Jess Turner, vice president; and Mrs. Smith is secretary-treasurer.

Next Bookworms meeting is Oct. 10 at the home of Mrs. Green with Mrs. Cole to present the book review.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Heath, Atlanta, Ga., visited Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Damon recently.

Eastern Star Hosts Visiting Dignitaries At Conclave Here

Several Eastern Star dignitaries were present for the Eastern Central association meeting held in Heppner Sunday, Sept. 24. A potluck dinner at noon started the confab with musical entertainment provided. The business meeting followed in the afternoon and ended with refreshments before everyone left for their homes.

Approximately 100 persons representing 20 chapters were present to take part in the meeting. Distinguished guests included Laurose Hibberd, past grand matron; Walter R. Bailey and Chester A. Felt, past grand patrons of the grand chapter of Oregon; and Merle L. Lamar, associate grand conductress of the grand chapter of Oregon.

Vocal solos were presented by Mrs. Sam Miller and Oliver Creswick accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Carmichael.

Mrs. J. R. Huffman, Ruth chapter, worthy matron, gave the welcome with Cora Jean Cartwright, president, conducting the meeting. Other officers were Rachael Medler, The Dalles, vice

Wedding Shower Fetes Mrs. Mike Gray

Mrs. Mike Gray, early summer bride, was the honored guest at a wedding shower in the Episcopal parish hall Friday evening, Sept. 22. Hostesses were Mrs. Allen Case, Mrs. Bob Dobbs, Mrs. Clarence Rosewall, and Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter.

They decorated the hall with a basket of yellow chrysanthemums and yellow golden glow banded in front of the fireplace. Adorning the punch and serving table was a lovely rose centerpiece.

Miss Diane Wright, Heppner elementary teacher, played several accordion selections during the evening.

Assisting Mrs. Gray with her gifts was Mrs. Stanley Cox.

president; and secretary, Helen Becker, Alice.

Chapter representatives came from towns in the east-central part of Oregon for this semi-annual meeting. The spring meeting will be held in Burns. Visitors came from San Pedro, Calif., and Silverton.

Teen Club Opened In Bakery Building

A Teen Club was opened recently in the former Heppner Bakery building, under ownership of Bill Lynch. The business was started mainly with the idea of providing wholesome recreation for young people and to provide short order lunches for customers and merchants.

Managing the lunch area is Mrs. Clair O'Donnell, experienced Heppner cook.

It is open daily from 11:00 a. m. until 10:00 p. m., until 12:00 p. m., Friday and Saturday, and from 1:00 p. m. until 10:00 p. m. Sundays.
