WELL, I dusted the "tail-feathers" of a couple of bucks last week-end, just giving them a chance! Really, I'm quite sure they need not be afraid of me or my gun!

REMEMBER THE Elks bridge and pinochle play is now in progress with bridge on Tuesday nights and pinochle on Wednesdays. The play will last during the month of October. Each week will be a separate play and players need not sign up or feel obliged to come each week.

KAY ANDERSON was hostess Wednesday evening at her home for the Renegades Bridge club as a going-away party for Jackie Labhart.

Jackie was presented with an attractive golf ball tree which certainly hit the spot for this golfing gal. She almost upset the surprise when she unknowingly walked into the flower shop!

Laurel Van Marter won high for the evening play, Shirley Blake, second; and Kay Robinson, low.

WHAT'S THIS I heard about Shirley being late to the Renegades party? Seems her "taxi" forgot to pick her up? Guess Laurel was getting back on you, Shirley!

HAZEL MAHONEY and Kay Anderson entertained a group of friends at a housewarming for Sue Valentine in their new home on Court street Wednesday morning. They served coffee and Danish doughnuts to 18 guests who presented Sue with a shrub money tree.

I GOOFED on the rummage sale dates in last week's paper! Next time I'll consult the calendar and find out if the dates fall on a week-end! Anyhow the corrected dates are October 20-21, Friday and Saturday, at the old Central Market Building.

THE ELKS officers and wives entertained the Bill Labharts with a no-host dinner party at the lodge dining room Tuesday night.

E. R. LeRoy Gardner presented them with a lovely flower centerpiece from the group followed with much visiting and wishing the Labharts happiness in their new location.

Taking part in the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Conley Lanham, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Platt, Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Brien, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Wolff, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Daggett, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brindle, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ward, Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. Milt Morgan, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graham.

I WAS HAVING trouble getting the dirt and grass stains out of the tan jeans the boys were wearing. How about you? I talked with Esther Kirmis, county agent, and Lenna Smith, secretary, who gave me some tips which I'll pass on to you and you may pick up a pamphlet at the county agents' office.

First rub a detergent into the soiled area and wash with regular load, then re-wash with the white things in which a bleach has been added.

CHRIS LABHART was the guest of honor for a farewell party and dance at the N. C. Anderson home with co-hostesses Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Marshall Lovgren.

His classmates gave him an autograph book, sure to be filled with notes from his friends.

The hostesses served punch and cookies to David Hall, Larry Richmond, Bill McLeod, Kim Valentine, Paula Siewert, Jennifer Blake, Rita Pettyjohn, Marsha Lovgren, Debby Young, Gary Ball, and Kit Anderson, and Chris.

MADGE THOMSON Tuesday morning told me her daughter, Bernice, was home from EOC last week-end. Bernice related the interesting and funny things happening to her as a college frosh, one being, the basic skills test in physical education!

She laughed and said, "You know me, mom, I ran around the wrong way, humped too much going under the bar when I should have wiggled like a snake! Oh well, I wasn't the last one finished!"

DUPLICATE BRIDGE play for the Heppner-Lexington gals started again this fall at the home of Eileen Padberg in Lexington. The group was organized and started play last spring with adjournment during the summer months.

Regular members present were June Bellenbrock, Lillian Sweek, Elsie Cole, Bebe Munkers, Gwen Healy, Gena Leonard, Lois Hunt, Mildred Davidson, and Eileen with three guests, Lucia Cutsforth, Aloha DeSpain, and Lil Boyce.

June and Lillian won high for north-south and Gene and Eileen won high for east-west.

JEANNE BERRY and Lynn Haguwood threw their cares to the wind last week and took a busman's holiday in Portland. Some fun, just shopping and looking for hours! Only coming home they were hours on the road, not car trouble but bus trouble. Had to keep pouring oil in at every town!

ASK DOROTHY Scott about steer riding. You know, rodeo style. "If the kids can do it, so can I," she says to herself as she watches her nephews riding! "Well," she nonchalantly mentioned to her brother-in-law, Clayton Davis, "If you ride so will I!" On he goes and lands ker-splat on the ground, so Dorothy hops aboard for two jumps then lands unceremoniously on her backside with the steer's hoof planted in her ribs! Results: some broken ribs, quite a number of black and blue spots, and a very hurt dignity!

A LITTLE reminder of the OES Officers club card party Monday night at 8:00 p. m. in the Masonic hall for both bridge and pinochle.

THE FAVORITE recipe comes to me this week from Mrs. Bud Marshall, or Ramona, as we all know her. She got the recipe from her neighbor, Mrs. Ray Massey, and says they both double it for their families and bake in a 9" by 13" pan.

WHACKY CAKE
Mix together in bowl:
1 1/2 cups flour
1 cup sugar
2 T cocoa
1 t soda
1/2 t salt
1 T vinegar
6 T salad oil
1 t vanilla

After mixing well pour into floured 8" square pan and bake for 25 to 30 minutes in a 350 degree oven. Use own favorite icing.

BEST BUYS this week include crispy fresh apples now more plentiful in your markets, also a small supply of Bartlett pears are still available.

Look for displays of squash, cabbage, parsnips, potatoes, and carrots for fall good eating. Still coming on are field ripened tomatoes.

Turkeys and broiler-fryers are still good main dish choices. Look for lower prices in fresh pork and slab bacon and beef hindquarters and loin cuts.
