

Nuclear War Discussion Set for Ione PTA

HEPPNER GAZETTE-TIMES, Thursday, October 26, 1961

IONE—The November 8 PTA meeting will be held at the Ione Cafeteria at 8 p. m., and will present a program on nuclear attack and how the school, town and county are preparing. Three guest speakers will cover: 1. What plans have and are being made in case of a nuclear attack for our school children. Robert Van Houte, county school administrator, will cover this question. 2. What plans have and are being made in case of a nuclear attack for the city of Ione. Charles O'Connor, mayor of Ione, will cover this question. 3. What plans are being made and have been made for Morrow county in case of a nuclear attack, which will be covered by Oliver Crewick. These questions are in everyone's mind and it is urged that everyone attend this meeting and learn the answers. Free bulletins will be given out on general information regarding what you can do to protect yourself and family against fallout. Any questions will be answered by the speakers which you care to ask them.

The Ione Legion Auxiliary met Tuesday night at the hall with Mrs. Eldon Tucker and Mrs. Cleo Drake as co-hostesses. After a short business meeting, an evening of pinocle was enjoyed. Mrs. Vester Hams received high, Mrs. Eulenna Corley, low and Mrs. Cecil Thorne received the door prize.
