

Variety Of Meetings
Of Sans Souci Lodge
During Past Weeks

Among the fall activities of the Past Noble Grand of Sans Souci Rebekah lodge No. 33, was the annual dinner October 26, with 20 members and five visitors in attendance. Guests included Mrs. Lucy Rodgers and Mrs. Sara McNamer, both of Portland, Mrs. Daisy Charleton of La Grande, Mrs. Lena Kelley and Mrs. Mary Davis, Heppner.

Highlight of the evening was the reading of names of secret pals and the drawing of new ones for the coming year. Mrs. Frank Myers was chairman of the dinner, and Mrs. Clarence Bauman was in charge of the dining room.

At the regular meeting last Friday evening, 28 members and one guest from the Hermiston lodge were present to nominate and elect officers for the coming year and to make plans for the official visit of Cleona Applegate, president of the Oregon Rebekah Assembly. Cards were sent to those reported ill and refreshments were served by the hostess committee, Mrs. Oliver Creswick and Mrs. N. D. Bailey.

Mrs. Pearl Devine was hostess to the last meeting of the Three Links club, with 14 members present. Nomination of officers was the main order of business, followed by a social hour of pinocle. Winning high prize was Mrs. Lincoln Nasir; second high, Mrs. Ray McDonald, and door prize, Mrs. Alice Luttrell. No meeting is planned for December, and Mrs. McDonald will entertain in January.

Afternoon Ceremony Unites Couple Here

Mary Lou Lane and Robert Cossitt were united in marriage at a small family wedding Saturday, October 28, at 4:00 p. m. at the home of the bride's brother, Ronald Haguewood, with Rev. Charles Knox performing the single ring ceremony.

The bride chose for her wedding a multi-color silk dress with matching jacket with a pink rosebud corsage. The only attendants were the groom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Cossitt.

Two large baskets of pink gladiolas and white chrysanthemums were situated on both sides of the fireplace with white candles.

Mrs. Ronald Haguewood served a buffet dinner to family members and a lovely 3-tier yellow trimmed wedding cake following the ceremony.

They are residing at the John Lane ranch home and Mr. Cossitt is employed at the Heppner Lumber company mill.

Methodist Bazaar
Billed November 18

Hours of work and effort will be represented in articles and items displayed for sale at the annual Methodist WSCS tea and bazaar on Saturday, November 18. Hours will be from 2 to 5 p. m. in the Methodist church fellowship rooms.

Hand made items for home and gifts, as well as the ever-popular home prepared foods, candy and appetizing delicacies, will be available. A surprise table will hold a variety of useful budget-priced items. This is always an opportunity for Christmas shoppers to find that "something different" gift item. The MYF young people's group will sponsor the home-made candy table.

MR. AND MRS. William Cunningham were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary at their home October 29 with an afternoon open house and reception.

Wm. Cunninghams
Honored On 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William Cunningham celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house at their home Sunday afternoon, October 29.

Hostesses were their daughters, Mrs. Herman Bietell, Ione, Mrs. Clarence Cox, Mrs. Darrel Hams, Hardman, and Mrs. Lewis McDonald. Also assisting them were Mrs. Bob Cunningham, Pendleton, and Mrs. Berl Akers, Ione.

A yellow and gold decorated cake and coffee were served to 100 guests who honored the Cunninghams with gifts and a money tree. The children, all present for the occasion except one son, Bill, and family of Goldendale, gave them a lovely pink rug for the living room.

Mr. Cunningham came to the United States from Ireland in 1904 and lived three years in Brooklyn before coming to Heppner in 1907. He has made his home here since. He met Mrs. Cunningham in Portland in 1910. She had come to California from Ireland in 1909. They were married October 31, 1911, in St. Mary's Catholic church in Pendleton. They have six children living, but one daughter, Helen, died in 1948. The four daughters and their families reside in the community. One son, Bill, lives in Goldendale, Wn., and the other son, Bob, lives in Pendleton. They raised two grandchildren, Francine Moyer Howdard, now living in Texas, and Bruce Moyer, a senior in high school. They have 14 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren.

For 27 years, Mr. Cunningham worked on the county road crew and in 1955 he and Mrs. Cunningham went home to Ireland to spend two months visiting old friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Peck and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hunt were in Yakima, Wn. Saturday and Sunday for the 45th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Goldsmith, sister and brother-in-law of Mr. Hunt.

Mrs. Marquardt Wins TOPS Queen Title

TOPS means "Take Off Pounds Sensibly," and that is what Mrs. Bill Marquardt of the Lexington club did to win the title of district queen at the get-together of TOPS clubs held recently at the Tillicum grange hall in Pendleton.

Mrs. Tom Faircloth, formerly of Lexington, presented diplomas to 10 graduating members who have attained the weight suggested by their physicians and maintained that weight for three months time. Graduating from Lexington were Mrs. Oscar Mirsle and Mrs. Walter Smith.

Also attending were Mrs. David Bauer, Mrs. Harold Huber, Mrs. Arthur Hunt, Mrs. Homer Hughes, Mrs. Vernon Munkers, Mrs. L. E. Ruhl and Norita Marquardt.

Baton Classes Halted

Baton classes, conducted by Gordon Hutchens, a past national baton champion, will be discontinued for a few weeks because of the illness of his father, Earl Hutchens, in Hillsboro, he said Monday. Gordon said that he expects to be with his father on the ensuing weekends. At present, he has a class for beginners and one for advanced twirlers, totaling 16 members.

Ione Girl's League Initiates, Installs

The Girl's League of Ione High school held initiation and installation at a special meeting Wednesday afternoon, October 25.

Mike Morrison, president, welcomed the mothers of the girls and wives of teachers. Following the welcome, she installed the new advisor of the league, Miss Aletha Grytness.

Officers who were installed were Mike Morrison, president;

Dianna Pettyjohn, vice president; Tass Morrison, secretary; Geraldine Morgan, treasurer, and Judy Sherer, closet chairman.

Initiated into membership were Cheryl Lundell, Lee O'Connor and Shirley Hicks.

A short program, consisting of songs by Sue Townsend and Cheryl Corley, was presented. The girls then escorted their mothers and the visitors to the refreshment table.
