

Greenfield Grange Names N. Thorpe As New Master

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—Nathan Thorpe was elected master of Greenfield Grange Thursday night of last week at the meeting of the grange at the hall. Other officers elected were: overseer, Andrew Skiles; lecturer, Pansy Seehafer; steward, Clyde Tannehill; assistant steward, Ronald Black; chaplain, Hazel Miller; treasurer, Margaret Hamilton; secretary, Flossie Coats; gatekeeper, Minnie Skiles; caretaker, Hazel Carpenter; Pamona, Florence Root; Flora, Ruth Ferguson; lady assistant steward, Margaret Thorpe; executive committee, Earl Briggs, Eva Briggs and Guy Ferguson; musician, Mary Lee Marlow.

All officers will go to Lexington the afternoon of Dec. 3 for installation. The meeting will be sponsored by Morrow county Pamona Grange.

The grange meeting started with potluck supper at 6:30. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer.

Postmaster Flossie Coats announced today that the entrance test for the Peace Corps will be given in Pendleton Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 28-29, at 8:30 a. m. promptly, for those in this area who wish to apply.

If you are interested in taking the test, look for complete information at your post office. Peace Corps posters will be displayed in the local post office on the bulletin boards.

Home Ec. Club Elects

Mrs. Earl Briggs was elected chairman of the Home Economics club of Greenfield Grange Wednesday of last week at the meeting of the club at the home of Mrs. Briggs. Mrs. Glen Carpenter was elected vice-chairman; Mrs. Nathan Thorpe, secretary; Mrs. Clyde Tannehill, treasurer.

Final plans were made for the Christmas Mystery Sister party to be held at the grange hall Dec. 13 at 2 p. m. Mrs. Briggs will be receptionist; Mrs. Thorpe was appointed to be in charge of the kitchen; Mrs. W. G. Seehafer will be program chairman.

The meeting started with luncheon at 12:00 p. m. Mrs. Seehafer was cohostess. Guests were Mrs. Ed Boothman and Mrs. Rolin Bishop.

Arthur Allen was injured Monday evening of last week when his horse fell with him near the end of the service road in town. He was coming from the south side of highway 30 starting to cross over to his service station when the horse slipped on some rocks on the road. He suffered a broken bone in his left foot, and his left wrist was shattered. He was taken to the Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston where both arm and leg were put in a cast. He returned to his home last Friday.

Richard Watts, Riverside high school student, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Watts, was a patient in Good Shepherd hospital last week, suffering from an attack of rheumatic fever. He returned home Friday, but is still unable to return to school.

Koy Ball, who lost one finger and parts of two others on his left hand in a corn picker Nov. 3, returned home from Good Shepherd hospital Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill were called to Fresno, Calif., last week by the death of Mrs. Tannehill's brother-in-law, A. R. Cooley. The Tannehills were recently in Fresno when Mr. and Mrs. Cooley celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Death was caused by a heart attack.

Mrs. Myrtle Spencer is in Smith visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Grace Duren. Mr. and Mrs. Max Dewese of Grandview, Wash., were overnight visitors at the home of Mrs. Dewese's sister, Mrs. Florence Root. Other visitors Wednesday evening were the ladies' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Al Macomber of Arlington.

Overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderegg last week were their son and grandson, James Garvison, and James Garvison, Jr. of Oregon City. Thursday they and Anderegg left on an elk hunting trip in the Walla Walla area. Friday Bill Garvison of Salem visited Mrs. Anderegg and then went to join the others hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bolce and daughter Cynthia of Arlington were weekend visitors at the Monument News

By MARTHA MATTESON
MONUMENT—Mrs. Mary Lippert and sons drove to John Day Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shank visited with her daughter, Donna Santo and children, Thursday in John Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hills and daughters drove to Pendleton Saturday for dental work.

The M.M.M. club held its regular meeting Thursday, November 2, at the home of Mrs. Mae McWilliams, with Mrs. Elmer Matteson as co-hostess. There were 18 ladies present. Get well cards were sent out to the members who were sick. The next meeting will be held at Helen Brown's on Thursday, November 16.

Conrad Bellenbrock of Heppner spent Sunday at the Bud Engle home and others on Cottonwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Glenger and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Glenger drove to John Day Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Oma Cox of Heppner visited with Helen Brown the first of the week, returning home on Tuesday.

Miss Laura Lee Shank accompanied her father, Fred Shank and wife when they drove to Hood River Friday night. They stayed with his brother, Harlan and family, then drove on to Portland Saturday where they took a plane for Hawaii, where they will visit Mrs. Shank's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Porter of the Air Force. Mrs. Porter is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stubblefield of this city.

Mrs. Bill Glenger drove to John Day Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin drove to Prineville the first of the week for a forestry party. The Home Extension club held an all-day meeting at the school house on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Boyer and children, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gertson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hill and Wayne Jackson, all drove to Rhea Creek Grange hall Sunday to help Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

There were over 100 guests that called during the afternoon wishing them the best of luck. Mr. Clark was high school teacher here one year. Mrs. Clark was Beth Wright of Rhea Creek, a cousin to Mr. Boyer and Capon's. Verne McCarty and Jim Stewart drove to Pasco, Wash., Saturday after grain.

The Columbia Power Co-op association is busy cleaning and fixing the garage and lots that they have bought from Tom Ross.

home of Mrs. Bolce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Rol Burg and children Carolyn, Luann and Steve spent five days last week in Shelton, Ollala, Burley, Brinnon and Seattle, Wash. Debbie Burg stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rash while they were gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hector of Condon were weekend visitors at the home of Mrs. Hector's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fortner. Other visitors last week at the Fortner home were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fortner and sons Terry and Mark of Portland.

Mrs. Frank Marlow accompanied her son Darrell Marlow, and Lillis Slaughter of Pendleton to Roseburg over the weekend to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marlow. Mrs. Harold Marlow is seriously ill in Mercy hospital in Roseburg with a kidney infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ayers and family spent Sunday with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gale McClintock, in Monmouth. Gale is attending Oregon College of Education.

Leader's Workshop For 4-H Region IV To Meet in The Dalles

November 28 will be "Education" day for 4-H leaders in the Columbia Basin area. A Region IV 4-H leaders workshop will be held in The Dalles starting at 9:00 A. M. according to Mrs. E. M. Baker, Regional IV vice president.

The workshop is scheduled at the civic auditorium in The Dalles with a smorgasbord luncheon at noon. The days program is designed for leaders and prospective leaders alike. Mrs. Baker said.

The morning program will include talks and discussions on "What is a 4-H leader," "New and Little Used 4-H Projects," "Project Discussion Groups," and "Recreation Ideas for Club Meetings." A coffee hour and registration will be from 8:30 to 9:00 and another break at 11:30.

Election of a new regional vice president will be held in connection with the noon luncheon as Mrs. Baker term expires January 1.

A discussion of 4-H contests by Mrs. Connie Telford, Umatilla County 4-H leader and Gray Thompson, Umatilla County 4-H Agent, will be the first item on the afternoon agenda. Buzz groups to formulate questions on 4-H club problems will be the second part of the afternoon program. The problems formulated in these groups will be presented to a panel for discussion.

Members of the panel will be Miss Lois Redmond, State 4-H Agent as moderator, Ed Bonham, Wasco County 4-H Agent, Janet Walker, Sherman County 4-H Agent, Ron Davis, Gilliam County 4-H leader and Mrs. Helen Martin, Sherman County 4-H leader. Miss Redmond will also take part in the morning program as well as giving an evaluation of what a 4-H leader contributes to his community.

4-H leaders are encouraged to call the County Agent's office (6-9642) if they can attend. Transportation for the workshop then can be pooled so more will be able to attend. "We would like to have a large turn-out of 4-H leaders from Morrow County on the 28th," Mrs. Baker said.

Tours Are Planned For 4-H Stock Group

The Hoof and Horn 4-H club met November 12 at the home of Douglas Drake. Plans for tours of interest to the club were discussed, such as visiting the Pendleton Flour Mills and Maryhill Castle.

The monthly demonstration was postponed because of the illness of Alfred Drake, in its place Marcel Jones led a discussion on films, lectures and demonstrations that will be used at future meetings.

The annual Christmas party is to be held at the Don Greenup home on Sunday, December 10th, where members will exchange gifts.

Visitors were Nels Anderson and Mrs. Douglas Drake. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Drake.

Terry Greenup, reporter

Guests this week of the Howard Pettyjohns were Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolfe of Medford.

Long Distance Nation-Wide

Moving Service

Mayflower Agents

Padded Vans

PENLAND BROS.

TRANSFER CO.

Pendleton, Oregon

Phone CR 6-3111

Ione News

By LORRAINE BALL

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sherer and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sherer were among the community to attend the ball game in John Day on Saturday. They visited with an uncle, Miles Gilman at Mt. Vernon. They also were among the Ionians who visited with Mr. and Mrs. Gary Price and with Jim Price. The Larry Prices are still at Yakima where he teaches and coaches.

Frank Jepsen was a week-end visitor at the home of his sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Holtz over the week-end.

Community Bazaar Postponed
The community bazaar planned for the 18th of November has been postponed to a later date, due to the championship football game to be held in Baker on that date.

Many of the Ione community attended the ball game in John Day on Saturday, to help cheer and encourage the team. It proved to be a very exciting game, enjoyed by all. This reporter was told that Ione was represented better than Mt. Vernon.

Norman Swanson was here for the week-end to visit his mother, Mary Swanson, who is still confined to the Heppner hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Salter were in La Grande on Saturday to see the ball game in which their son Bill played.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sherer was the scene of a potluck dinner on Sunday evening with the following guests present: Mr. and Mrs. Keith Rea, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McCabe, Mr. and Mrs. Leland McKinney and Mr. and Mrs. Skip Pettyjohn.

Mrs. Cecil Thorne attended a Heart Association meeting in Pendleton on Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Thorne is Morrow county chairman this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat C. Doherty and Mrs. Marjorie Doherty, Sarah Doherty and Patti Doherty were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doherty. Patti is of Hermiston and the other guests are from Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Townsend of Hermiston were Sunday visitors at the home of their son and brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hershall Townsend.

Home Ec. Club Serves Dinner
The Home Economics club of Willows Grange prepared the Morrow County Wheat League dinner on Tuesday at the Grange hall. Fifty guests were served a fried chicken dinner, prepared under the leadership of Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen and her committee.

Eulenna Corley and daughter, Cheryl drove to Quincy, Wash., on November 5 with W. G. Seehafer of Boardman. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Coates and Mr. and Mrs. Norman White and girls while there. They returned to Ione on November 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Munkers on Sunday, at Lexington.

Mrs. Berl Alters returned home from the hospital in The Dalles last week. She returned for a medical check-up on Tuesday of this week.

Sam Barnett of Portland and David Barnett of Walla Walla were week-end guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnett.

Milton Boyce of Condon spent Sunday at the home of his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyce.

Mrs. Harvey Smith and Mrs. Van Hubbard hosted a textile painting demonstration at the home of Mrs. Ray Boyce on Thursday night. Eunice Sommerell of Portland was the instructor.

Francis Piper returned to Ione on Friday after visiting relatives and friends in Oakesdale and Spokane, Wash., recently.

Sarah Aldrich is a patient in Pioneer Memorial hospital, where she has been confined this past week.

Mary Evelyn Tucker In Band at College

Mary Evelyn Tucker of Heppner is a member of the Oregon College of Education band, under the direction of David E. Wallace, an active organization on campus this fall term. On Monday, November 13, the group presented its Band-O-Rama, a music concert featuring the 56-member group with a variety of selections and the campus choral group with specialty numbers from the musical comedy, "Camelot." The band also plays at all home football and basketball games and on special occasions throughout the term.

Miss Tucker, a freshman majoring in elementary education at OCE, is one of eight trumpetists for the group. She is the daughter of Mrs. A. Padberg of Heppner.

BUSINESS MACHINE SERVICE

Office Supplies, Office Equipment, Business Machines.

IN HEPPNER

1st & 3rd Week of Every Month

DON BALL, Serv. Dept.

120 Main St., Hermiston

Phone JO 7-5114

Church Festival Draws Big Crowd

The Heppner First Christian church dining room overflowed as 125 people gathered around the tables last Thursday evening for the sixth annual Harvest Festival. The room was decorated by the high school Sunday school class and the menu was a planned potluck.

Delwin Nelson was the master of ceremonies and a talk was given by Paul Jones whose subject was the "History of the Harvest Festival." In the Heppner church, and another by Mrs. Clarence Smith with a devotional message, "In Thanksgiving to God—A Committed Steward."

The goal for this year's festival was $1,573.00 and the Thanksgiving offering to date is $1,733.25. This offering will be used to pay the taxes on the church's modern parsonage and $500.00 on the principal of the indebtedness on the parsonage. In six years the church has paid $7,500.00 on the $10,000 note. Also $750.00 will be expended on the basement floors and repairs to main entrance doors of the church building. The offering is over and above the regular commitments to the church's program.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hevener visited over the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hevener, Carlton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kelley and family, Umatilla, spent the week-end with relatives in Heppner.

Air Force Transfers A 3-C Daniel Brosnan

Airman Third Class Daniel K. Brosnan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry H. Brosnan, Heppner, is being assigned to Barksdale Air Force Base, Louisiana for training as a map and chart specialist. He recently completed U. S. Air Force basic military training at Lackland AFB, Texas.

Pvt. Cox at Fort Ord

U. S. Army Private David L. Cox is undergoing basic infantry training at Fort Ord, Calif., training center on the Monterey Peninsula. The eight-week program consists of such vital military subjects as rifle marksmanship, infantry tactics, first aid, military justice and the conservation and maximum utilization of military supplies. Upon completion of his basic training, the soldier will go on to either advance infantry training or to one of the many Army specialist schools. Private David L. Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Cox, Heppner, is a 1957 graduate of Heppner High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hevener visited over the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hevener, Carlton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kelley and family, Umatilla, spent the week-end with relatives in Heppner.

Good Place to Stay in

PORTLAND

OREGON

Your guarantee of good accommodations is the Frontier Motel in Portland! You'll get a friendly greeting, a clean and tastefully furnished room with the features you want and need, and a cheery invitation to stop with us again. Our guests always come back!

For LOW RATES LOCATION ACCOMMODATIONS

FRONTIER MOTEL

8715 S.W. BARBUR BLVD.
PORTLAND 19, OREGON

PONTIAC'S TEMPEST

BITING TRACTION!

The new Tempest claws up hills. Perfect balance gives it biting traction. Puts equal weight on all four wheels. The gas-saving, 4-cylinder engine turns out 110, 115, 120 or 140 horsepower. Extra cost: a 166 h.p., 4-barrel carburetor "four" and a 190 h.p.-V-8. Climb a hill in America's only front engine/rear transmission car—it's balanced like none of the others.

CLIMBING FAST AT

$2214⁰³

Manufacturer's Suggested Retail Price for this Tempest Coupe (including whitewall tires, reimbursement for Federal Excise Tax and suggested dealer delivery and handling charge). Heater standard. Other accessories and optional equipment, transportation charges, state and local taxes extra.

DRIVE THE TEMPEST AT YOUR AUTHORIZED PONTIAC DEALER

EVERY TYPE

MOTOR REPAIRS

COLE'S

Electric Motor Shop

S. W. 23 Tutuilla Rd.
Pendleton Ph. CR 6-7761

BORN WITH A SILVER SPOON

This is really what it amounts to when the new arrival is blessed with parents who take a foresighted view of his (or her) future, expressed by immediately starting a savings account to take care of college and other expenses of "growing up" successfully!

OPEN AN ACCOUNT TODAY

FIRST FEDERAL

SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION
BOX 738 PENDLETON