WHEW, WHAT a fast-moving week this has been—gone hunting, talked and talked with friends here visiting from Medford! Went to college with Peg so we had to reminisce a little! A sign of age—so I've heard—Have you always been late getting to meetings and such? That's me this week—hope Steve got his shoes tied before he got here!

BEULAH MANKIN entertained with a coffee hour honoring her father's new bride, Mrs. Dwight (Lora) Misner, Tuesday afternoon. Lovely fall flowers were used about the rooms. Cookies and coffee were served to the guests who dropped in to meet and congratulate Lora. Those visiting were Pearl Wright, Doris Watkins, Carrie Beckett, Gladys Beckett, Hannah Anderson, Betty Bunch, Mrs. John Kenny, and, from Ione, Greta Gabbert, Edris Lindstrom, and Juanita Melema.

IT PAYS to advertise. Yes, Ma'am! I have received several fruit cake recipes. How about a good turkey dressing recipe and some tasty delights from all you grandmothers? Also, hostesses, remember to keep in mind the amusing and unusual happenings during your social gatherings, especially remember them early next week! The paper comes out Wednesday so get them to me no later than Monday.

LAUREL VAN MARTER had two tables of bridge in play Thursday night and served open faced sandwiches following play. Her guests were Suzanne Jensen, Aloha DeSpain, Dorene Jacobs and Lillian Boyce, all of Ione; Arlene Miller, Condon; and Heppner girls were Harriet Hall, Elaine George, and Patty Prock. Suzanne won high. Laurel says nothing too exciting except everyone held good cards and high score was over 6,000.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON Pinochle club met Thursday last week at the home of Doris Watkins. Maybe she lost a day? Not really, just other plans for Friday. Doris served a very different dessert, Open Sesame Date pie, which has a sesame seed crust! Intriguing, huh? Maybe a recipe for a later date. Making up the two tables were Millie Evans, Beulah Mankin, Carrie Beckett, Gladys Beckett, Pearl Wright, Mary Harris, and Hannah Anderson, and Doris. Pinochle prize went to Beulah, low, Mary; and Hannah won high.

HEPPNER AND Lexington Bridge club was entertained Thursday evening at the Hester Creswick home with dessert bridge. Lois Hunt was high, Lorraine Ledbetter, second high; and Velma Glass, low. Others playing were Eileen Padberg, Lucia Cutsforth, Elsie Cole, Bebe Muncker and Hester.

THURSDAY EVENING, Barbara Devine had two tables of pinochle in play with refreshments of cake and coffee. Members were Shirley Marlatt, Phyllis Piper, Marg Jones, Ann Schwarz, Pat Sawyer, Christine Buschke, and Jo Simmons. Jo won high, traveling prize was won by Ann, and the door prize to Marg. Speaking of Marg, guess she ran into a booby trap and got the car stuck when she stopped to pick up Shirley! Were you late?

FINALLY I caught up with Corky Norene to get the Renegades bridge club story. It seems she was at Hazel Mahoney's house busily getting items ready for the church bazaar next month. The Renegades met Wednesday at Corky's home at an earlier time, 7:30 p. m., and served dessert before play in hopes of getting home earlier! It worked! Playing the evening were Beverly Gunderson, Bonnie Barratt, Inez Meador, Kay Anderson, LaFryne Pratt, Laurel Van Marter, Louis Farley, and Nona Sowell. LaFryne won high, Beverly, second, and Inez walked off with two prizes, low and Jack high! Pretty bum cards, Inez? Anyhow, this time they paid off!

LAVERNE VAN MARTER was the honored guest at his home Monday night at a dinner party to celebrate his 42nd birthday. Joining in the evening were Bill and Daisy Collins and Jim and Bobby Driscoll.

ST. MONICA'S GUILD of the Episcopal church, with Hazel Mahoney and Happy Graham as co-chairmen, held a card party Monday in the parish hall.

Happy Thanksgiving

Eleven tables were in play with the pinochle having six tables and bridge, five. Prizes were delicious cakes and pies, like a German chocolate cake, and won by Grace Turner with high in bridge. The Turner family didn't go home with one prize but two, as Frank won second in pinochle to take home a pie! Happy eating! Other winners were Lillian Sweek, second in bridge, Jeanne Dobbs, high in pinochle, and Mrs. Mary Wright won the door prize. Room decorations carried out the Thanksgiving and fall theme with flowers and cutouts.

DAVID COX, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cox, celebrated his birthday Sunday afternoon with friends in to play games and eat cake. Dixie cups of ice cream, and punch. His mother, Shirley, made a Teddy Bear cake for the occasion and it was enjoyed by Tracie Norene, Delbert Diane, David, and Jimmy McLaughlin, Cindy and Dallas Harsin, Allen and Lis Burkenbine, Mike and Dana Sweek, and Debbie and Dianne Cox.

FOLLOWING THE fun Sadie Hawkins dance at the school Saturday night, several high school students gathered at the P. W. Mahoney home for more dancing and lots of eating with Shanny and Diane McCurdy as hostesses. They dressed in the latest Doy-patch fashion, like gunny sack dresses, pigtails, jeans with patches, and Daisy Mae type outfits! Enjoying the party were Cherie Hartman, Sandra Harshman, Beverly Blake, Beverly Davidson, Ann Jones, Libby Van Schoiack, Jackie Brindle, Sharon Bunch, Ginger Springer, Sandra Richards, William Rill, Bob Fettsch, Mike Smith, Charles Sampson, Dale and Gary Van Blokiand, Bruce Moyer, Shan Applegate, LeRoy Gardner, and Dick Springer.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON a group of high school students helped Ginger Springer surprise her brother, Dick, with a party on his 16th birthday. They met at the Mahoney home and arrived about 4:00 at the Bud Springer home for cake and ice cream before going to the theater for the movie. Guests were Shanny Mahoney, Jackie Brindle, Sharon Bunch, Diane McCurdy, Bruce Moyer, Shan Applegate, LeRoy Gardner, and Gary Van Blokiand.

TUESDAY I attended the Heppner unit meeting on "Understanding Teen-agers." In the discussion that followed, I think the opinions expressed were to take points given and apply them to each one's own family and each child individually. Take a little time and grow with them.

ALMOST TIME for the first fall holiday which means family get-togethers and lots of good eating. I have a recipe to go with the festive season and it comes to me from Mrs. Stanley Cox. Shirley says it is easy to make and so good served either hot or cold.

FRUIT COCKTAIL CAKE
1 1/2 cup sugar
2 t soda
2 cups flour
1 cup chopped nuts
2 eggs
1 303 can fruit cocktail
1/2 cup brown sugar
Mix in bowl sugar, flour, soda, eggs, and juice from cocktail, add cocktail. Pour into greased 9x13 loaf pan and sprinkle top with brown sugar and nuts. Bake 45 minutes at 350 degrees. Ten minutes before cake is done, make this sauce:

SAUCE
1/2 cup sugar
1 square butter or margarine
1 small can evaporated milk
1 t vanilla
Boil two minutes, pour over hot cake and serve hot or cold.

Members of OES Make Official Visits

Monday evening was a new meeting time for the Ruth chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at the Masonic hall. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Bard, worthy matron and patron of Oregon Trail chapter, Echo, were guests at the meeting. Mr. Bard, member of the home endowment committee, paid his official visit to the chapter.

Twenty-five members were present for the business meeting followed by a social hour. Several members have made visits to other chapters in recent days. On November 7, Mrs. J. R. Huffman accompanied by Mrs. Fred Sanders, Pendleton, attended Friendship Night of Purple Sage chapter in Pilot Rock. The following night, Mrs. Huffman paid a visit in Milton-Freewater to the Loyalty chapter Friendship Night.

Also on November 7, Mrs. L. D. Tibbles, and Mrs. Roy Quack-enbush made an official visit to Umatilla chapter in Umatilla and the next night they visited Queen Esther chapter in Hermiston. Then on November 9, Mrs. Huffman accompanied by Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Quack-enbush, visited in Helix at Ionic chapter.

Ione, Locust chapter, held Friendship Night last Tuesday and visitors from Ruth chapter

Rhea Creek Livestock Club Sets High Goals

Seventeen goals were set by the Rhea Creek Livestock club at their meeting Sunday afternoon, November 12, at the Rhea Creek Grange hall. The aims include, having a high attendance at meetings, parents attending projects, high completion of projects, and good participation in the fair and all other county 4-H events during the year.

The club planned to have a Christmas potluck dinner for members and parents on December 10. Members drew names for exchange gifts.

Dale Van Blokiand was elected sergeant-at-arms. Wilbur Van Blokiand, leader, passed out pamphlets on dairy judging, 4-H signs, record books, and calendars. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bob Bergstrom. John Rawlins, reporter were Mrs. Huffman, Mrs. Quack-enbush, Mrs. Tibbles, Mrs. Howard Bryant, Mrs. Charles Stout, Mrs. Oliver Creswick, Mrs. Dean Hunt, Mrs. Joe Snyder, Mrs. Dick Wilkinson, Mrs. Jim Meyers, and Don Turner.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Damon were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Keffer, La Grande.

HEPPNER GAZETTE-TIMES, Thursday, November 16, 1961

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Waid of Portland were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. Waid's sister, Mrs. Harry Duval. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Watkins were in The Dalles Saturday and stayed overnight with her mother, Mrs. A. A. Dunlap, in Grass Valley. On their return trip home Sunday they visited her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cushman, Moro.

A NEW HAMILTON CALENDAR WATCH

For all practical purposes, a Hamilton Calendar watch tells complete time: the second, minute, hour and date. The intricate mechanism that performs this daily miracle, automatically, is shock-resistant, anti-magnetic and weatherproof. (Waterproof—dustproof provided seal is restored if opened.)

All Hamilton Calendar watches are self-winding, storing 40 hours reserve running power during a day's wear. Each midnight, like magic, the date advances. Once you've worn a calendar watch, you will be lost without the great convenience it offers: the date, always at your fingertips.

Show: A MODERN STYLE, AUTOMATIC K-475, $119.00
OTHER HAMILTON CALENDAR WATCHES FROM $69.50
