

Vandalism Brings $178 Loss at Gym

Three grade school boys and one high school boy, ranging in ages from 11 to 16 years, broke into the Heppner High school gym late Friday night. They took candy, gum, soda pop and popcorn, which were on hand for a school dance, according to elementary principal, Hillard Brown.

Extensive vandalism resulted. They broke six city street lights, floodlights belonging to the school at the bus depot and outside the school with B-B guns before entering.

They threw rocks at heavy glass windows and when they could not be broken that way used rocks to pound out the glass. Inside the school they unscrewed light bulbs from lights in the lower floor fixtures, carried them to the balcony and threw the bulbs to the floor and seats below.

He said they evidently entered the school through windows in the gym twice and carried out the stolen items. It was reported that one window in the gym had been left unlocked. The four were apprehended the following day and admitted the vandalism.

They were suspended from school Monday morning. They and their parents met with the school district board Monday night. The board allowed the youngsters to return to school on probation, and the case was referred to juvenile court. Brown placed damage at $177.78.

Hunting, Fishing Prospects Are Good

Hunting and fishing are still good in the Heppner district, says Glen Ward, game agent. Pheasant season ends Sunday night. Birds are wary, but hunting is good with dogs.

Elk season ends November 26. There are still enough elk to provide good hunting, according to Ward, but they are holed up on the north slopes in brush and pole thickets. Lack of hunters and lack of snow keeps them from moving around. All roads into the area are good.

The steelhead run is just starting in the John Day and Columbia Rivers and fishermen also have been getting their game.

Hartman Accepts Toledo Elk Job

John Hartman has accepted a position as manager of the Elks club at Toledo Lodge No. 1664. Hartman has already reported for duty in his new position.

He was manager of the Heppner Elks club for three years, and is past exalted ruler of the Heppner Lodge. He has been prominent in Elk and church affairs during his years in the community. He has been a car salesman and a banker here.

Hartman moved here with his family 12 years ago. His wife, May, is a native of Heppner. They have two children; Tony, 9, in the fourth grade, and Cheryl, 17, a junior at Heppner High school.

They have sold their interest in local property to Frank Turner and the family will move to Toledo November 25.

Sgt. Darrel Ployhar Arrives At Okinawa

Army Sgt. Darrel G. Ployhar, whose mother, Mrs. Elmer Moe, and wife, Alice, live in Heppner, recently arrived on Okinawa with other personnel of the 8th Missile Battalion, 3rd Artillery. The battalion was previously stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Ployhar, a supply sergeant in the battalion's Battery B, entered the Army in 1954. He attended and goal line defense in the fourth quarter.

Victory was not without its toll. Joe Palmer, lone center, suffered torn ligaments in his hand and may not be in action against Hereford. Coach Biehl said that Gary Morgan, junior, may fill his starting spot in the semi-final game, and Marvin Padberg may also see action in this position.

The Cardinals fumbled six times in the game and the Bears bobbled five times. Les Madden recovered two for Ione, and Crabtree and Palmer each recovered one.

First downs were even in the game, each team making eight. The Cardinals made 271 yards rushing and 21 by passing. Quarterback Hams had a big day on both offense and defense. He scored two touchdowns and passed to Crabtree for the third. He ran one extra point and passed to Ekstrom for the only other extra point made in the game. He completed three of five passes that he threw.

But it was a team effort that brought victory, and Coach Glenn Biehl said that it was his boys' best defense game of the year. Ken Klingler as line-backer made 11 tackles and five assists. Hams had nine tackles and two assists.

Nelson's pass defense was declared "tremendous," by three coaches. He knocked down three and the Bears were able only two in the game. Nelson also prevented the fourth-quarter touchdown that had seemed a certainty.

Crabtree made seven tackles and six assists. Ekstrom was credited by his coach with turning in his best game of the season from his end position, and Jerry Davidson, defensive guard, and Madden, middle line-backer, also drew accolades for their work. Madden made five tackles and had six assists.

The Cardinals did not enter the game in top shape. Crabtree was ill and Klingler was just recovering from a severe cold. However, except for Palmer, the whole club is expected to be in top shape for hereford.

Both Sisters and Hereford were scouting the game. Should Ione get through Hereford in the game Saturday at Baker, they will play the winner of the Eddyville-Sisters struggle. Eddyville is west of Corvallis, near the coast. All indications are that Ione will have to travel to all its state playoff games this year because of the home games played last year. Sisters, located near Bend, would also mean a long trip, but it can be assured that there will be a good following of Ione supporters.

Hereford is a powerful team all-around, but offensive threat is vested in Quarterback Larry Moore who runs the team from a T-formation.

Beverly Davidson, Heppner high school senior, was third in the high school speech competition. The young people spoke on conservation.

Baby's Illness Causes New Family to Leave

Serious illness of their baby made it necessary for Mr. and Mrs. Carl Packwood to leave Heppner early this week, just a few days after their arrival. L. E. Dick said Wednesday, Packwood had been employed by Mr. and Mrs. Dick as a radio, television and appliance service man and came here from Madras.

It is understood that the baby must be confined in a hospital for an extended time, and the family left for Lewiston where the tot will be hospitalized. Dick said that another service man will be here Monday to take care of the many calls received after it was announced that Packwood would handle service work.

Mrs. E. R. Schaffer returned recently to her home in Ceell from a short visit with her daughter, Mrs. John R. Clerk and family in Kittitas, Wash. She brought two granddaughters, Peggy and Judy Clerk, home with her for a two weeks visit.

Libby to Enter Oregon Finals Of Wool Contest

Libby Van Schoiack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Van Schoiack, Heppner, will enter to state finals of the Make-It-Yourself-With-Wool contest in Portland this week-end. Libby is the winner of the senior division in the contest in Morrow and Umatilla counties.

Twenty-six costumes will be modeled by the 26 winners in the 13 districts in the state in this contest final. The girls will appear at the downtown Meier and Frank store in a style show at 2:30, which is open to the public. They will be instructed in modeling, how to style hair and how to apply makeup by regular models of the store.

Also appearing in the state finals will be Jaydene Cooper, Pendleton, winner of the junior division in the district.

The contest finals will be part of the program of the convention of Oregon Wool Growers and the Auxiliary will be hostesses for the style show. "Wonderful, Wearable Wool" is the convention theme.

Rural Fire Loss Low

The rural fire truck was called to the old Baulker house three miles west of Heppner about 10 a. m. Thursday morning (today), but Paul Jones had the fire out before they arrived, according to Fire Chief C. A. Ruggles. The fire started from a rat's nest on top of a stove pipe between the walls. Jones, who is fixing up the place for his son Gary and family to move into, had built a fire and the nest caught on fire, falling between the walls. Damage was held to about $15. The house has been unoccupied for some time. It is owned by Elizabeth Benney and is part of the Joseph T. Peters estate.

Reddy Kilowatt's Helpful Hints

HOW TO MAKE YOUR HOUSEHOLD DOLLAR GO FARTHER!

- Be sure your house is weather-stripped and insulated. You'll save heat and heating dollars.
 - Leaky faucets waste hot water. Usually a new washer will stop this waste.
 - Plan to iron a number of things at one time. This is more economical than turning the iron off and on several times a day.
 - Today's automatic dishwashers are large enough to do most families' dishes on a once-a-day basis, saving hot water and dishwasher running time.
- These are just a few of the ways you get your biggest value from dependable PP&L electric service. Use it often and efficiently. Live better electrically.
