40th Anniversary

By MARY LEE MARLOW
BOARDMAN—Mr. and Mrs. Claud Coats celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday when members of Greenfield Grange held a potluck dinner at the grange hall in their honor. There were 35 present. Committee in charge was Mrs. Frank Marlow, Mrs. Florence Root, Mrs. Charles Andereg and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill.

Mr. and Mrs. Coats were married Nov. 19, 1921, at Vancouver, Wash., and lived there for a short while, moving to Oregon City in 1922 where they lived until 1927, at which time they came to Boardman and have made their home here since. Both were born in Kansas, but left there as babies, and did not meet until they came to Oregon. Mr. Coats came to Oregon in 1884. Mrs. Coats is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barlow, a pioneer family of Morrow county. They have one daughter, Mrs. Glenn Mallery, and two grandsons, Gerry and Jimmy Mallery, all of Arcadia, Calif.

A four tiered cake iced in white with pink roses was cut and served by Mrs. Nathan Thorpe, who made the cake assisted by Mrs. Ed Skoubo in decorating. The couple was presented with a money tree as a gift. Before dinner Mrs. Wayne Kuhn sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Frank Marlow.

The Tillicum Club presented the annual celanese film at the school last week the name of the picture this year being "Scene Changers," featuring ready made drapes, bedspreads, pillows, as well as shower curtains and many other articles, all made from acetate and celanese fabrics.

A Dutch auction sale of a turkey platter brought $7.65 for the benevolence fund. Mrs. Algy Taylor won the dress length of celanese given for the door prize.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Lavern Partlow Nov. 28.

Final plans were made for the Community Church bazaar which was held Friday at the grange hall, at the meeting of the Ladies Aid Society at the church last week.

Postmaster Flossie Coats said today she had received a letter from William H. Neal, National Director of the U. S. Savings Bond program, commending the local post office for the promotion and sale of Savings Stamps during the past year.

"In this 20th anniversary year of the United States Savings Bond Program," the letter read, "Americans in all walks of life, in communities throughout the country, own more than $44 billion in Series E and H Savings Bonds—an all-time record. You have had a real share in this success, and we in the treasury are grateful for your efforts over the years to promote the sale of Savings Bonds in behalf of your country."

"In these critical times, the sale of Savings Bonds affords young and old alike an opportunity to help their country as they help themselves. To the extent that we can increase our sales, to the same extent do we strengthen the foundations of our national economy, upon which rests our efforts to preserve the peace and promote the general welfare of all people."

"During the school year your help is especially needed to sponsor and service the School Savings Programs in your area. In the country as a whole, some six million students are now attending schools where the Stamp Plan is in operation. We would like to see this number increased substantially during the coming year."

The postmaster reminds the public that Savings Stamps are on sale at the post office at all times. Adults can buy them too, she added, "an easy way to buy Savings Bonds on the installment plan."
