

Loren Piper Weds California Girl

Barbara Ann Seman, Oakland, Calif., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Seman of Baltimore, Md., and Loren Edward Piper, Oakland, Calif., son of Rufus Piper, Heppner, and Mrs. Ada Lister, Heppner, were united in marriage Nov. 11 at the St. Peter's Episcopal church, with the Rev. Canon L. D. Gottschall officiating.

Escorted by a family friend, John Clapp, Oakland, Calif., the bride wore a floor-length gown of nylon over net with lace applique, and a finger-tip veil with pearl crown. She carried a white prayer book with three white orchids.

Helen Astle, Oakland, Calif., was maid of honor, and Rebecca Yingling, the bridesmaid, both wearing street-length forest green silk dresses with puffed skirts, and matching crowns and veils.

Best man was Orrie G. Seranton of Stockton, Calif., and ushers were Wendell M. Taylor, Concord, Calif., and Richard K. Sarafin, Oakland, Calif.

Loren is a 1950 graduate of Heppner High school, spent four years in the U.S. Air Force, and after graduating from Oregon State, is employed in Oakland, Calif., where the newlyweds will live.

Six Initiated Into Rainbow For Girls

Six girls were initiated into the Rainbow for Girls at the meeting Monday night. Joining the girls' organization were Marilee Murray, Martha Peck, Jeanette Ledbetter, Malanie Bailey, Kitty O'Hara, and Tana Valentine. Girls eligible for admittance must be at least 12 years of age, and each year there are new girls added to the group.

During the meeting, committees were appointed to work on the annual Christmas semi-formal dance for junior high, high school, and college students. The dance this year is set for December 28 at the Odd Fellows hall. Highlight of the evening is always the crowning of the queen and announcing her court.

Masonic Lodges Set Dinner, Installation

A joint installation of officers of Masonic Lodge, Heppner Chapter No. 26, and Royal Arch Masons, Chapter 69, is planned for Saturday evening, December 9, at the Masonic hall.

A planned potluck dinner will precede the meeting, with serving time to begin at 5:30 p. m. Local members are asked to furnish the hot vegetable dishes for the meal, and those from out of town will bring salads and desserts. Turkey is on the menu for the main course, provided by the local chapters.

All members are encouraged to attend both the dinner and installation program.

Overnight guests Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg were Mr. Padberg's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore and daughter. They left Tuesday for their home in Sunnyville, Calif.

Lena Residents Take Trips South To Visit

Lena district residents returned from separate trips to Arizona and California points to join families during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Martin left November 19 by way of Burns, Las Vegas, Nev., and through Death Valley, arriving in Phoenix, Ariz., November 21. They spent a week with their daughter and son-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Jay Wheelhouse. He is an instructor at Williams AFB and while there, the Martins watched the jet landings and takeoffs from the mobil tower.

On the week-end they all drove into Nogales, Mexico through Tucson and Tombstone, Ariz. Tombstone, Wyatt Earp's town, is kept in the "Old West" atmosphere, hitchhiking post and all. Another tourist attraction they viewed was Scottsdale, Ariz., where many kinds of souvenirs are sold.

They watched cotton being harvested by machines and nearby a field of lettuce being harvested of its seventh crop of the year by the many workers.

Returning home November 25, after traveling some 3,000 miles, they enjoyed seeing evergreen trees again as they hadn't seen any since leaving Burns on their way South.

Also leaving Sunday, November 19, were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brosnan for a trip to California near San Francisco.

They traveled by way of Reno, Nev., going through Donner Pass to Sacramento and arriving in Novato, Calif., on Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Good.

The family all spent Thanksgiving at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Phillips, Petaluma, Calif. On November 26, they joined other members of the family at her parents' home to honor Mr. and Mrs. Good on their 50th wedding anniversary. Four of six children were present for the wedding reception and a money tree gift.

Following a stay visiting relatives, the Brosnans returned November 30 traveling through snow in northern California and southern Oregon. It rained most of their stay in California, and the moisture was welcomed by residents after a long dry season.

Rebekah Members To Hold Joint Meet

Sans Souci Rebekah members practiced the initiatory procedures at the regular meeting held December 1.

Twenty-eight members and three visitors were present. At the December 15 meeting, Hardman Mistletoe will meet with Sans Souci at 8:00 p. m. at the lodge hall. ### Harry Dinges Shows Little Improvement

Harry Dinges, former Morrow county assessor, shows little improvement from his illness, according to a letter received by Mrs. Harry Duvall from Mrs. Dinges. He is getting along about the same as when he left the hospital here in May, the letter said.

The former assessor is at a rest home in Grants Pass and Mrs. Dinges is staying with their daughter and family. She visits the rest home every day.

Mrs. Dinges said that their son, Dan, and wife have adopted another baby, a two weeks old boy named Andrew James. This is the third child they have adopted within the past few years. Others are John and Nancy.

Danny has been employed by the First National Bank of Oregon for a number of years. He was assistant manager at Pendleton before being transferred to Eugene in March where he is assistant vice president.

Steve Holtkamp and three children were Thanksgiving week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Flug. Mr. Holtkamp did some elk hunting during his stay.

Drama Students Give Program of Readings To Soroptimist Club

Talented students from the high school drama class of Mrs. Janet Groves were guests of the Soroptimist club last Thursday noon, and presented a special program following the luncheon.

Introduced by program chairman, Mrs. John Pfeiffer, the three girls, Linda Valentine, Beverly Davidson, and Linda Van Winkle presented readings based on popular plays and comedy themes.

Linda Valentine demonstrated reading skill in her portrayal of scenes and characters from the ever popular play, "George Washington Slept Here." Beverly Davidson followed with a very humorous review of a woman's meeting and the difficulties experienced by the mistress of ceremonies in the conducting of the meeting.

Linda Van Winkle completed the program with her review of the play, "Arsonic and Old Lace" and portrayed characters in dramatic scenes from the play. The girls were accompanied to the meeting by their instructor, Mrs. Groves.

The regular monthly business meeting was announced for this week by president, Mrs. Ed Gonty, with reports due by committee chairmen and officers. The club recently purchased a myrtle wood tray to be sent as a gift to its sister chapter, Tamworth, in England.

Mrs. Hortense Martin is visiting Mrs. Anne Smouse this week following a stay with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, Lexington, from her home in Portland.

State Hospital Asks For Christmas Gifts

The annual Christmas gift project for mental patients of the Eastern Oregon State Hospital at Pendleton is underway with Mrs. Don Walster, Pendleton, chairman.

Mrs. Walster reports that the hospital is ready to receive all the gifts which members of the community can provide.

Most needed gifts for men include socks, hand lotion and sport shirts. For women the greatest needs is for hosiery, lingerie and bath towels. General gifts most in demand are harmonicas, pianos, and card tables. Donations may be brought to the hospital or sent to Box A, Pendleton, marked c/o Volunteer Department.

Gifts should not be wrapped but holiday wrappings may be enclosed and are appreciated. If gifts are for specific patients the name should be firmly attached to the gift.

World Missions Appeal Begins Dec. 10

A city-wide World Missions appeal will begin December 10, sponsored by members of the Seventh-Day Adventist church. Volunteer workers, led by Elder David Bauer, will launch the drive with house-to-house calls accompanied by Christmas Carols.

Funds from the appeal will go toward extending welfare disaster relief, and educational services at home, and to supplement the church's widespread medical and educational ministry in 195 countries. The drive has been conducted annually for 58 years.
