1 Cards of Thanks
CARD OF THANKS
I am giving up my paper route to Dick Struckmeier, so to my customers who have helped me in many ways, these past two years, I am extending my sincere thanks.
Tommy Gonty 40-c

CARD OF THANKS
This is to thank and express my deep appreciation for the kindness of friends. First, to Roy Erickson and Bert Huff who brought me into Heppner from Skinner creek following my injury, and then to all who so thoughtfully sent cards from all around the country and phone calls, many from other states. Also, my thanks for the beautiful flowers. All of these went a long way towards hastening my recovery and in keeping me in touch with the outside world. Not a word from behind the iron curtain was ever received. Thanks again to all.
Archie D. McMurdo, M. D. 40-p

Social Security Leaflet Explains New Law Changes
Are you a working person 65 or over who has never applied for social security benefits? If so, you will want to ask your social security office for a copy of a new leaflet.
Entitled, "You Don't Have to Retire Completely to Get Social Security Benefits," the leaflet explains changes in the law recently enacted by Congress which raises the amount an older worker can earn and still collect some benefits in addition to his earnings.
Older working people, made eligible to collect some benefits because of these changes, will need to get their applications on file before the end of January 1962, according to Vernon A. Welo, district manager of the La Grande social security office. Otherwise, they stand a chance of losing some of the social security payments now due them.
He cited the example of a couple who would be entitled upon application to a monthly check of $180, about the maximum now payable to a retired worker and dependent wife.
Under the law in effect until the beginning of this year, Welo said this couple could not be paid any benefits for the year if the husband's earnings exceeded $2080. Under the new law, his earnings could go as high as $6310 before the couple would have to forego all of their social security benefits.
