

Holly Rebekah Lodge Entertains Area Conclave

By DELPHA JONES
LEXINGTON—The 40th Annual District Convention of Rebekah Lodges of District No. 20 was held December 16, with Holly Rebekah Lodge No. 139 of Lexington as hostess. The lodges in the district taking an active part were Mistletoe No. 25, Hardman, Bunchgrass No. 91, Lone; San Souci No. 33, Heppner, and the hostess lodge, Holly No. 139. The convention opened at 1:30 p. m. with the N.G. of Holly, Bertha Hunt, in the chair.

After the official opening the lodge was turned over to the convention chairman, Dimple Munkers. The following elected convention officers were in their respective chairs: Dimple Munkers, N.G.; Vern Batty, V. G.; Delpha Jones, secretary, and June Davidson, chairman. The following appointive officers were also reported present: R.S.N.G. Edith Mathews; L.S.N.G. Florence McMillan; warden, Edna Fetsch; conductor, Ruth Bergstrom; chaplain, Betty Rood; inside guardian, Thelma Smethurst; outside guardian, Evelyn Farrens; R. S. V. G., Mildred Wright; L. S. V. G. Catherine Thorne; musician, Annie Keene; and Jr. past chairman, Altha Kirk.

At this time the members visiting from other districts were introduced. These were Cleonna Applegate, president of the assembly of Oregon; Selma Watkins, vice president of assembly of Oregon; Altha Kirk, good of the community service chairman of Oregon; Florence McMillan, district deputy of Holly; Catherine Thorne, district deputy of Bunchgrass, and Anna W. Barnett, district deputy Ulatee.

The address of welcome was given by LaVerne Henderson of Holly with the response by Edith Mathews of Bunchgrass. At this time the resignation of Vern Batty as vice chairman was read, and Lorraine Ball of Lone was elected to fill this vacancy and took her station for the day. The tribute to the flag by San Souci of Heppner was most impressively done by the ladies of the San Souci lodge.

The memorial was beautifully done by Bunchgrass of Lone and the ladies were lovely in white formal with red carnations and ribbons. Next was roll call of lodges, and reports read. Tribute to the past chairman was given at this time. Gifts were given those present, and will be sent to those not present.

A most instructive talk was given by the state president, and a question box was opened. A tribute to 50-year members was given with each one receiving a gift. A tribute to the president by Florence McMillan and tribute to the convention chairman was given by chairman Dimple Munkers by Freda Majeske.

Invitation of Lone to meet there next year was accepted and officers for next year were elected and installed. Those include Lorraine Ball, chairman; Elsie Mathews, vice chairman; Edith Mathews, secretary; Vern Batty, treasurer. The following were appointed officers: Lucile Rietmann, warden; Freda Majeske, conductor; Berniece Nash, OSG; Esther Bergstrom, L.S.G.; Mildred Wright R.S.N.G.; Betty Rood, N.S.N.G., and Elaine Rietmann, chaplain; Gladys Drake, musician. These were seated by San Souci in a most clever skit involving Santa Claus, Mrs. Santa and two elves. Meeting adjourned, after which dinner was served by Holly.

Following the banquet and immediately before lodge the guests were entertained with piano music by Theresa Munkers of Lexington.

In the evening Holly Rebekah lodge held a special meeting at which time Cleonna Applegate, assembly president, and Selma Watkins, vice chairman were guests. The meeting opened jointly with Lorraine Ball of Lone and Bertha Hunt of Lexington filling the chair of Noble Grand, Edith Mathews of Lone and Delpha Jones of Lexington filling the secretary chair, Catherine Thorne of Lone and Hilda Yocom of Lexington filling the warden's chair, Lucile Rietmann and Catie Padberg, the conductor chair, and Elaine Rietmann and Edna Fetsch in the chaplains office. The president gave a most instructive talk in the work of the Rebekahs and a report on the Odd Fellows home in Portland. Refreshments were served later in the evening. Hold Christmas Party

The Women's Fellowship group of the Lexington Christian church held their regular meeting and Christmas party at the Cecil Jones home on Tuesday afternoon. The regular meeting of the day was taken care of with several different members reading poems relating to Christmas. After the business meeting, an exchange of gifts was held with each telling the name they had and drawing again for secret sisters. Refreshments were served to Cora Allyn, Trannie Parker, Florence McMillan, Annie Keene, Betty Marquardt, Hilda Yocom, Rena June Marquardt, Sue Messenger, LaVerne Henderson, Dollie Smith, Joan Smith, June Davidson, Delpha Jones, Lola Breeding, Cora Warner and Cleo Van Winkle. Cookies were brought and will be sent to the McKinley Indian Mission at Toppenish. The collection taken at this time will also go to the McKinley Indian Mission. The next meeting is scheduled to meet with Dollie Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris McCarl were Pendleton visitors one day this week. Mrs. W. J. Van Winkle and son Donald, and a sister, Mrs. Jackson of Lone, were Portland visitors over the week-end where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Van Winkle and Mrs. Jackson's brother. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt who are teaching in California, are visiting Mr. Hunt's mother, Mrs. Bertha Hunt, and a sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Morris McCarl, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hunt, a brother and family. Mrs. Cleonna Applegate, president of Rebekah Assembly, was a house guest of Mrs. A. F. Majeske on Saturday.

GOLDEN WEDDING anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Warner was observed at a reception at the Lexington L.O.O.F. hall on Saturday, December 9.

Lexington Couple Greeted By Friends On Golden Anniversary

LEXINGTON—A reception was held at the Lexington L.O.O.F. hall, Saturday, December 9, honoring Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Warner on their 50th wedding anniversary.

The hostesses for the occasion were their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Warner, of Portland, and a daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hays of Corvallis.

The center of attraction of the day was the table holding the cake, and silver services. The cake was a beautiful three-tiered creation, with golden trim and topped with a large bell centered with "50 years" in gold. On each side of the cake were candelabras of crystal with golden lighted candles, and at each end was a silver tea or coffee service. Above this center attraction hung the wedding certificate of Mr. and Mrs. Warner and two enlarged pictures of them in their younger years. At one end of the hall was a gift table, and used about the hall on stands and centerpieces were lovely golden arrangements that were part of their beautiful gifts. The punch bowl set on a table, alone with two little golden arrangements on each side.

Pouring throughout the afternoon were Mrs. Lester Warner, Mrs. Orville Warner, Mrs. Hubert Warner, Elva Ruhl, Cecile Jackson, Ada Eskelson, Lou Broadley, Freda Slocum, Sally McMillan. A program during the afternoon consisted of duets sung by Lavonne Bloodworth, and Colleen Padberg, nieces of Mrs. Warner, and were accompanied by Betty Marquardt, Susan McCorkle of Weston danced a ballet and tap dance.

Cora McMillan and Earl Warner were united in marriage in Lexington December 13, 1911, with the Rev. Otho E. Reed officiating. Attendants were Maude E. McMillan and Cecil Warner. Assisting the hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. A. F. Majeske, Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. Bertha Hunt, and Mrs. Cecil Jones.

Coming from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eskelson and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Warner, Howard Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brown, Mrs. Allen Hanson, of Walla Walla, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Warner, Ward Warner and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Warner McCorkle and daughter Susan of Weston, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McMillan and family, and Mrs. Frances McMillan of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Britten Price and children of

Sans Souci Lodge Initiates Member

Mrs. Eva Griffith was initiated into the Sans Souci Rebekah lodge at the meeting Friday, December 15. Holding a joint meeting with the assembly was the Mistletoe assembly with several Holly Rebekah members attending.

Paying their official visits here were the state assembly president, Mrs. Cleonna Applegate, Medford, and vice president, Mrs. Thelma Watkins, Wasco. Mrs. Applegate spoke on the eye clinic sponsored by the Odd Fellows and explained her project for the year which is to obtain an elevator for the Odd Fellows' home in Portland.

Preceding the meeting many of the members enjoyed a no-host dinner at the Wagon Wheel, following the meeting refreshments were served to the 35 persons present.

At the next meeting on January 5 the members are to bring sack lunches and dress in appropriate "Old School Days" attire. Sans Souci officers will be hostesses for the evening.

On January 13 the Odd Fellows and Sans Souci Rebekahs will hold a joint installation of officers in the lodge hall.

Rainbow Girls Plan For Christmas Ball

Committees were selected and plans completed for the annual semi-formal Christmas dance at the regular meeting of the Rainbow for Girls on Monday.

Dancing will begin at 9:00 p. m. and last until 12 in the Odd Fellows hall Thursday, December 28. Ginger Springer, is chairman of the decorating committee; Beverly Blake, chairman of refreshments; and Sherrile Olson, chairman of cleanup.

All junior high, high school, and college students are invited to join the dance with Gene Rietmann's orchestra furnishing the music. Highlight of the evening is the crowning of the queen. The girls are selected by secret ballot and the queen and her court of two girls is revealed during the dance.

Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt of The Dalles, Elmo McMillan of Salem, and Lou Broadley of Kelso, Emma Evans of Spokane and a host of friends and relatives other than the hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Warner of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Hays and children of Corvallis.

BEAUTIFUL
Blouses,
Robes,
LEATHER
Jackets

AND Sweaters
FOR CHRISTMAS
GIFTS

Elma's Apparel

233 N. MAIN

PH. 6-9426

Long Distance Nation-Wide
Moving Service
Mayflower Agents
Padded Vans
PENLAND BROS.
TRANSFER CO.
Pendleton, Oregon
Phone CR 6-3111

Coming Events

FRIDAY, Dec. 22
Last day of school until January 2.
SATURDAY, Dec. 23
Last Lucky Buck Day!
MONDAY, Dec. 25
Merry Christmas to all!
TUESDAY, Dec. 26
Degree of Honor, Christian church, 8:00 p. m.
Bookworms, 8:00 p. m.
WEDNESDAY, Dec. 27
Odd Fellows, lodge hall, 8:00 p. m.
THURSDAY, Dec. 28
Soroptimist, Wagon Wheel, noon.
Rainbow for Girls Christmas

dance, Odd Fellows hall, 9:00 p. m.

Evelyn Tucker returned home December 12 from Oregon College of Education for a two weeks holiday vacation. She was met in Arlington by her parents,

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Padberg. Mrs. H. A. Sherman, Sr. of Forest Grove, arrived Sunday to visit during the Christmas holidays at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman.

WAGON WHEEL CAFE
Fred and Cecile Ott

Last-Minute Suggestions to ADD EXCITEMENT TO... his Christmas

Jackets

MANY STYLES, MANY FABRICS
$6.95 to $55

TIES $1.50

Dress Sox
COTTONS, ORLONS,
NYLONS AND WOOLS
79¢ to $2.95

Hankies

White Cotton, 3 For $1
White Initialed 50c
Colored Cotton 55c
White Linen $1

Wallets

NEW STOCK JUST IN
$2.95 to $7.95

Slacks

Blends or Wools
Many in the new trim styles
$7.95 to $21.95

BAN-LON TIE and STRETCH SOX
MATCHED SETS
$3.50

Gift Certificates FROM WILSON'S IN ANY AMOUNT

WILSON'S MEN'S WEAR

"THE STORE OF PERSONAL SERVICE"

Dress Shirts

BOTH WHITE AND COLORED
$4.50 to $6.95
KNIT SPORT SHIRTS
BAN-LONS $8.95
COTTONS $5.00

A FINE SELECTION MEN'S BULKY KNIT Sweaters

One-third OFF

MANY COLORS, FABRICS, STYLES