HAPPY NEW YEAR to everyone!
I suppose you all have made resolutions and of course promise not to break them? I resolve to work harder and not watch the TV—set!

SEVERAL ENTERTAINED with New Year's parties this past week. Also dances were held at the Elks, Ione, Hardman, a dance sponsored by the Rainbow girls for students, and the Catholic youth organization sponsored a dance for the junior high students, which lent lots of enjoyment during the holiday week.

HAZEL HAMLIN entertained two tables of bridge Thursday evening with the rooms decorated for the festive holiday season. After much phoning, I finally have the winners for the play which were Inez Meador, high; Daisy Collins, second; Grace Turner, low; and Elaine George, the door prize. Elaine had the right touch, you see, she drew her own name! Hazel served a delicious molded salad to the guests.

FRIDAY NIGHT, Sandra Jones, was honored with a birthday dinner party at the home of her parents, the Paul Jones. Sandra was home from EOC where she is a freshman. Joining in the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Don Hevener, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Jones, and Jon Blake. After dinner they enjoyed an evening of cards.

MARLENE FETSCH was hostess for a New Year's party at the Al Fetsch home Friday evening. The festive occasion was a get-together of classmates of Cheri Hartman, who spent Christmas vacation here from her new home in Toledo. The young people played games, danced, and enjoyed sandwiches and snacks during the evening.

STILL IN the entertaining mood of the season Hazel Hamlin, was hostess for the Friday afternoon pinocle club on Friday. All of the regular members, Pearl Wright, Beulah Mankin, Millie Evans, Doris Watkins, Mary Harris, Gladys Beckett, and Carrie Beckett, were present and one member, Hannah Anderson, was unable to attend. Pearl won high, Mary won second, and Mary and Gladys won the pinocle. Lots of excitement during the play when Gladys and Millie got together with 1500 trump and the 300 pinocle in one hand!

SOME OF the good buys in the markets this week will be potatoes, as there is a good supply and prices will be reasonable. Tomatoes are coming from Florida and are priced reasonable for this time of the year, so I suggest a luscious tossed salad with lettuce, radishes, green onions, and tomatoes. Pick up some apples for the family, they are in good supply this year. Include all poultry in your meat menus, the supply is good and prices are reasonable.

MRS. JOHN Graves was honored for her birthday New Year's day with a dinner at the Howard Pettyjohn home. Others of the family were Mr. and Mrs. Walt Hill and girls, Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carlson and family, Ione, and John Graves. The afternoon was spent viewing the football games, herding kids, and feasting on a turkey dinner. The grandchildren took pictures of the cake cutting and the cake with the candles.

THE CLARENCE Bakers entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Watkins and family with a dinner on New Year's day. Later in the afternoon the Clayton Davis family, Pendleton, stopped in for a visit. They enjoyed using Clarence's new tape recorder, being quite amused when hearing their own voices! What a surprise! "Do I really sound like that?"

MRS. LENA Kelly had New Year's dinner for her family on Monday. Those enjoying the day were Mr. and Mrs. Creston Robinson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Saling and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hevener.

Ginger Springer Reigns as Queen Of Rainbow Ball

Ginger Springer, 17-year-old high school junior, Thursday night was crowned queen of the Christmas Ball, sponsored by Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls.

Ginger has been active in Rainbow for a number of years and is now holding the office of charity. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Springer, Heppner.

Chosen as princesses were Beverly Blake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blake, Heppner, and Ginny Lou Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Turner, Lexington.

Nearly 100 young people attended the dance, held at the Odd Fellows hall. The rooms were decorated in the Christmas theme with a decorated punch bowl as the table centerpiece. Queen Ginger and Princess Beverly served the punch and cookies.

Beverly was chairman of the dance for the Rainbow Girls and Mrs. Paul Webb for the Rainbow advisory board.

Music was provided by the Gene Rietmann orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick returned Friday night from a showing in Portland of additional Zenith 1962 lines. They visited her brother and family, Mr. and

ROCK HOUNDS CORNER

By BETTY WAGNER

Since it was inadvisable to have a November meeting, the election of officers and auction sale scheduled for that time were held at our December meeting. With our president, Randall Peterson in charge, the officers for the new year were elected as follows: Mrs. George Miller, president; Mrs. Rachel Harnett, vice-president; Mrs. Terry Blevins, secretary-treasurer. The program and field trip chairmen will be appointed later by the new president. We would like to give a special note of appreciation to Mrs. Harold Evans who has so ably performed the duties of secretary-treasurer since the club was organized in January, 1956.

Our auction sale was the result of a very generous gift from a former resident of Heppner, Mrs. Harold Sanders of Stockton, Calif., wife of the late Harold Sanders. Mrs. Sanders was the organizer and first president of our local gem society, and the rocks sold had been a part of "Sandy's" (as his friends knew him) collection. The proceeds from the sale will be retained in a Sanders Memorial Fund. Among the rocks sold during the evening were obsidian, chalcedony, moss agate, and those fascinating thunder eggs which only reveal their beauty when put to the saw and polisher.

During refreshment time, which was hosted by the Edgers, we overheard several of the men making plans to see which one can get the nicest cut from the rocks sent by Mrs. Sanders. Wonder what our January meeting will reveal?

Elks Tournaments Start January 10

January 10 will kick off the fourth annual Elks bridge tournament held in the dining room for six weeks of play. Those Elk members planning to take part this year may line up their partners to play with them during the tournament of duplicate bridge play. LaVerne Van Marter asks interested players to sign up with him before the first night of play.

The pinocle players will start their tournament on the following evening and players must have their partners before then.

Co-op Bowling Team Places at Walla Walla

LEXINGTON—At the recent Co-op Bowling tournament in Walla Walla, the Lexington Co-op Bowling team placed fourth. Joel Engleman and Dean Hunt placed seventh in the doubles. Dean Hunt placed first in the singles, first in all events, and third place in high 3-game scratch series.

Salter on Honor Roll

Robert Salter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Salter of Ione, is on the honor roll at Eastern Oregon College, La Grande, for the fall term for making a grade point average of 3.50 or better, according to information from the college. Salter is a senior majoring in secondary education, and is working towards a master's degree. He lettered four years in football at EOC and received honorable mention from Williamson's Little All-American team in 1959, 1960 and 1961.

Social Club To Elect

A special meeting of the Eastern Star Social club is planned for Saturday afternoon, January 6, at 1:45 p. m. Election of officers will be taken care of during a short business meeting.
