

Club Plans for Grange Dinner, Co-op Meeting

By DELPHA JONES
LEXINGTON—The Home Economics club of the Lexington Grange met at the O. W. Cutsforth ranch on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Cutsforth as hostess and Mrs. C. C. Jones as co-hostess. The meeting was presided over by the chairman, Mrs. Alvin Wagenblast. The resignation of Mrs. Alfred Nelson Jr., as vice chairman was read and approved, and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth was elected to fill the vacancy. Mrs. Norman Nelson, as installing officer, installed the following ladies for the year 1962: Mrs. Alvin Wagenblast, chairman; Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth, vice-chairman; Mrs. Pearl Devine, secretary; and Mrs. Edna Turner, treasurer. Plans were made for the Lexington Oil Co-op dinner which is scheduled for February 13 at the Grange hall. Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, lecturer of the grange, announced the contest of wheat dishes for the next regular grange meeting. All the ladies are asked to bring their favorite wheat dish, using wheat or a by-product, and the men will be the judges. Prizes are planned for the lecturer's hour. Those present for this meeting were Mrs. R. B. Rice, Mrs. W. E. McMillan, Mrs. Armin Whilon, Mrs. Wilbur Steagall, Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, Mrs. Alvin Wagenblast, Mrs. Edna Turner, Mrs. Nora Turner, Mrs. Alfred Nelson Sr., Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, Mrs. Ella Burgoyne, Mrs. Bertha Hunt, Mrs. Cecil Jones and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth. The next meeting is planned for the Alfred Nelson Sr., home, near Ione.

Club Elects Officers
 The Past Noble Grand's club met at the home of Mrs. Alonzo Henderson on Friday, for a luncheon, with Mrs. Delpha Jones as co-hostess. An election of officers was held at this time with Mrs. Alice Majeske elected president; Bertha Hunt, vice-president; and Delpha Jones, secretary-treasurer. At this time the names of secret sisters were disclosed and names were drawn again.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steagall and Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Breeding were in Spray last week to help celebrate the birthday of Emery Burns.

Ed Livingston of Spray is spending a few days at the O. G. Breeding home.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cochenour spent the week-end visiting relatives in The Dalles.

Mrs. O. G. Breeding attended the Assembly of God church convention in Pendleton one day last week.

Do not forget the church services planned for all ages, each Sunday night at the Christian church.

Party Honors George Steagall
 Mrs. George Steagall entertained last week with a birthday party honoring her son, George, on his birthday. The afternoon was spent playing games after refreshments were served. The highlight of the day was the cleverly decorated circus birthday cake. This was made to represent a circus tent with animals, and gay colors. Those present were Tom Cutsforth, Steven Kemp, Bruce Marquardt, Stark Miller, Billy Thornburg, Victor Klingner, Craig Munkers, Tommie Steagall of Lexington, and Robble Booth and David Williams of Heppner, Mrs. Smithbauer, George's teacher, and Mr. and Mrs. Steagall, Vicky Steagall and Buster Vinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Marshall, Mrs. Ken Palmer and Mrs. Gene Majeske were Pendleton visitors last week.

Mrs. A. F. Majeske is able to be out again after several weeks confined to her home by illness.

Rebekahs Add to Fund
 Holly Rebekah Lodge met for their regular meeting on Thursday. Mrs. Ardith Hunt was installed as chaplain. Three members gave the unwritten work and the contest reports were made. Sick members were remembered with cards and a collection was taken for the elevator fund at the IOOF hall and will be sent in honor of Mr. Ely who was recently buried in Ione. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Let's not forget the Three Links club party at the Lexington IOOF hall on Saturday, January 27 at 7:30 p. m.

Heppner Unit Learns Cheese Cookery Tips
 Mrs. Frank Wilkinson and Mrs. Keithley Blake, project leaders, presented many ideas of cheese cookery to members of the Heppner extension unit at a meeting at Mrs. Wilkinson's home February 9.

They prepared and served different dishes using cheese as the main ingredient. Also they told of the many cheeses available and their uses. For lunch they enjoyed a cheese and corn casserole, jello salad with cheese, garlic bread, and a plate of fresh fruits with various cuts of cheese.

During the business meeting the members planned to serve cookies and coffee to the parents attending the short course on "Understanding Boys and Girls" on Wednesday.

Heppner unit will meet February 13 at the home of Mrs. Joe Wright at 10:30 a. m. Subject for this meeting is "Tips on Housecleaning" with Mrs. R. G. Watkins and Mrs. Paul Warren as project leaders. A polluck lunch will be served at noon and all are invited to attend.

McNamee Undergoes Surgery in Portland
 James T. McNamee underwent surgery at Providence hospital in Portland on Monday and is making steady recovery, according to word received here this week. He is under the care of Doctors Davis and Livingstone, neurologists.

After being treated under traction here during the past month for a recent back injury, he was transferred to Portland for the special surgery, where he will remain for at least one more week. He occupies a room on the 6th floor at Providence hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cohn left Saturday for Salt Lake City, Utah, to attend a Wool Growers meeting.

Jim McNamee, a patient at Providence hospital in Portland is recuperating following surgery of a ruptured disk in his back.

R. B. RICE (left), a member of the Masonic lodge since 1902, and Frank S. Parker, a Mason of 55 years standing, were among senior members honored by Heppner Lodge No. 69, AF&AM, Tuesday night.

Masonic Lodge Fetes Old Timers At Meeting Here

R. B. Rice of Heppner, member of the Masonic lodge since 1902, and Frank S. Parker, a Mason since 1907, were among those honored at Old Timers night at Heppner Lodge No. 69, AF&AM on Tuesday, January 16.

Archie Ball, Dr. L. D. Tibbles and L. R. Schwarz received 25-year membership pins. Two members of the local lodge who were not present have memberships that extend back to 1906. They are Lewis Bisbee and Oscar Borg, both of Heppner, who joined the Heppner lodge in that year. Each received his 50-year pin in 1956.

Rice, treasurer of the lodge for the past 13 years and now starting his 14th year in that position, transferred here in 1907 from Pittsville, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Rice live at 125 S. Chase. They have one son, Edward, in Seattle.

Parker transferred here from Cove several years after moving to Heppner. He received his 50-year membership pin in 1957.

One other former member has the longest tenure in the Masons, among those living, although he is now a member at Stanfield. He is Frank Sloan, who joined here in 1891, and moved to Stanfield about 1918.
