Dinner Projects Occupy Plans Of Womens' Group

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON—The Women's Fellowship group of the Lexington Christian church met recently at the home of Mrs. Earl Warner for their regular meeting. Bills were allowed and it was decided to help raise enough money to lay linoleum in the remaining classrooms and in the kitchen of the church. A dinner was planned for this with June Davidson and Delpha Jones working out the program. A Mother's Day bazaar and luncheon was planned with Dollie Smith and Betty Marquardt in charge of the refreshments, and LaVerne Henderson and Delpha Jones in charge of the bazaar. Following the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess.

Word has been received in Lexington of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Grabill. The Grabills make their home in Canada and Mrs. Grabill is the former Darlene Baiser.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones who have made their home in Lexington for the past 15 years have moved to the W. E. McMillan ranch and Mrs. McMillan has moved to the Jones home in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones and son Kenneth were Portland visitors on Monday at the home of a daughter, Miss Charlene Jones.

Mrs. Otilia Rauch who is making her home with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Al Fetsch, is visiting another daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Hartmann at Toledo.

Highway Drivers Receive Awards

Five men employed by the Oregon State Highway department at Heppner will receive awards for their safe driving records, a release from the department states.

Edwin C. Wilson and John Nielson are among 140 men across the state who will be recognized for 12 years of safe driving. Dallas M. McDaniel has compiled a record of seven years and Harold L. Carnutt of six years of safe driving. All are members of a maintenance crew who operate the department's trucks, heavy equipment and other vehicles.

Others in this area to get awards are:

Boardman—Irwin W. Lewis, 6 years; Elvin L. Ely, 11 years; Charles L. Potts and Nathan Thorpe, each 12 years.

Condon—Mark R. Phillips, 2 years; John C. Sprouls, 10 years; and Oscar C. Rippee and Ralph Struthers, each 12 years.

Fossil—Gary Couture, 5 years; Lavon D. Marler, 9 years; Herman Munjar, Sr., and Truman E. Wilson, each 12 years.

Arlington—James M. Gettle and Clyde R. McWhirter, each 1 year; Raymond A. Youmans, 7 years; and Arthur L. Bailey, 12 years.

The total for the department since the start of the program 12 years ago is 7,000 man years of safe driving. In all, 1,053 employees across the state will receive awards.

Film On Program For Farmer's Union

A spring meeting of the Morrow County Farmer's Union has been called for Tuesday, March 13, at 8:00 p. m. in the old library building rooms.

Clarence Rosewall will show a film sponsored by Massey Ferguson on the subject of "How to Build Up Feedlot Profits." The regular business meeting will follow. All members and their friends are urged to attend.

DR. JAMES METCALFE, who holds the Oregon Heart-sponsored Chair of Cardiovascular Research at the University of Oregon Medical School, holds one of the rare pygmy goats being used in studies. Goats, which weigh about 20 pounds at maturity, are being studied for data on their growth and development under ideal nutritional circumstances, health in temperate climates, and behavior.

KEEP OREGON GREEN

Let's not forget the Grange meeting this Saturday. The program is to be on hunting and gun safety with a display of old or odd firearms. If you have any of these please bring them and attend the program at the Lexington Grange. Potluck dinner at 6:30 with program following.

Mrs. Kenneth Palmer underwent major surgery at Pioneer Memorial hospital, on Tuesday.
