

Students Hear Talk on History of U. S. Firearms

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN — A national school assembly, "The History of Firearms," was presented in the school gymnasium last Friday by Ray E. Sullivan.

Among the guns that "speak" the most appealing were the antique pieces that pointed up his main story how guns help build America. A rare old flintlock typical of those with which early settlers hunted wild animals and fought the French, Indian and English wars, followed by a procession of firearms of later years and designs. Tremendous questions of land power and human rights were decided by bullets of guns of the very kind shown—Kentucky rifles, Colt and Remington six shooters, Smith and Wesson's and the rest.

Today, America is peaceful and organized, yet guns are properly important, according to Mr. Sullivan, especially for sportsmen, and for those appointed to protect society.

All guns displayed by Mr. Sullivan have been put into A-1 condition. All practical and .38 special and .45 caliber pistols. A specially constructed 200 lb. backpack was used.

Heart Campaign Closes With Good Total

Records for the 1962 Heart Fund campaign were closed at the end of March, and reports have been sent to the state association, according to Mrs. Cecil Thorne, county campaign chairman.

The society will hold a cooked food sale April 21 at Hayes Grocery.

The chairman and workers were well pleased with the response and final total, in view of other drives by medical associations carried on immediately before and after this one. They feel the public is becoming increasingly aware of the good their heart fund dollars are doing to combat heart diseases, and the aid it makes possible for heart patients in our own county.

Localities and their totals are as follows: Heppner and rural areas, $364.70; Ione $196.91; Beta Omega Sorority, rural Ione, $126.50; Cecil, $36.00; Lexington area, $139.50; Irrigon, $20.25, and Boardman, $26.14.

Mrs. Thorne extends special appreciation to her co-chairman, Mrs. Charles C. Jones of Lexington and her volunteers; Heppner co-chairmen, Mrs. Earl Soward and Mrs. Frank Hamlin and their volunteers through the American Legion auxiliary; Mrs. Joanne Warren and volunteers of Beta Omega Sorority who solicited rural Ione; Mrs. Robert DeSpain and the Legion Auxiliary No. 95 of Ione; Mrs. E. B. Schaffer of the Cecil Community, and to Marion Green, county campaign treasurer, who was in charge of all mail contributions for the county.

All memorials sent to Mrs. Roberts were sent directly to the Heart Association, so were not included in the above. Contributions for memorials will be accepted at all times by Mrs. Roberts or by Marion Green.
