Blood Bank Date Set For April 23

Pioneer Memorial hospital is one of many hospitals now enrolled under the American Red Cross Blood Bank program, which relies upon donations through the mobile units throughout the state for its ever-needed supply.

People of Morrow county can help in the program by registering as donors for the annual drawing, set for Monday, April 23, at the Catholic Parish hall between 1 and 5 p. m.

Contacts are now being made by Mrs. Orville Cutsforth, county chairman, and members of the Pioneer Memorial hospital auxiliary. Registrations are encouraged by all physically capable residents. A quota of 90 pints has been set, and registration is aimed for at least 120 to 150 possible donors. Careful requirements must be met, so it is usually not possible for every registrant to be a donor.

Some of the general requirements include the weight of a donor to be at least 110 pounds, must be between 18 and 59 years of age, has not given a donation during the past eight weeks, is not a diabetic, a patient of heart disease, or has not had surgery during the preceding six weeks. Other medical problems may also be considered reasons for rejection. Donor requirements are necessary to protect the donor's health and to provide a safe bottle of blood for transfusion.

Womens Fellowship group of the Lexington Christian church will do canteen work and serve refreshments to donors after the drawing.

Mrs. Max Buschke and Mrs. Carey Hastings were in Portland on business Saturday and Sunday. They visited Tom Sargeant who is a patient at the Veterans' hospital.

REMEMBER THE "Salute to Spring" opening and the excitement planned for the afternoon. Our youngsters are dreaming gay costumes for the parade, such enthusiasm! Then to conclude the prefect day, the whole family can have a night at the Band Carnival. Mother has a night off, no supper to prepare!

SOCIALLY WISE, the week was rather light, not much doing, but rather nice for a spell, huh? With the end of the school year nearing and summer plans progressing, things will run rather hectic for the next two months.

LOTA TIBBLES and Beth Bryant were co-hostesses Saturday afternoon for the OES Social club at the dining room. They served a dessert luncheon followed by an afternoon of cards. Juanita Carmichael won high in bridge and Edna Turner won high in pinochle.

HAZEL MAHONEY won high Wednesday afternoon when Madge Thomson and Lota Tibbles entertained the What's Trump Bridge club at the Thomson home. They served a luncheon of ham and rice casserole, fruit salad, rolls, sherbet and cookies. Two tables were in play with Margaret Blake, Virginia Rosewall, Happy Graham, Helen Schaffitz, Fay Ferguson, Lota Tibbles, and Gena Leonard. Lota was second and Gena won low.

THE FRIDAY afternoon pinochle club were guests of Pearl Wright with Millie Evans winning high, and Mary Harris, low. Millie teamed up with Beulah Mankin to win the pinochle and Beulah had a 1,000 aces during the afternoon play. Also playing were Doris Watkins, Gladys Beckett, Carrie Beckett, Marguerite Chapin, and Pearl.

JO SIMMONS was honored last Thursday with a going-away party with Sharon Cutsforth and Judy Buschke as co-hostesses. She was presented a money tree and the guests played pinochle and visited during the evening. Guests were Donna Peterson, Phyllis Quackenbush, Barbara Devine, Marg Jones, Shirley Marlatt, Linda Dunlap, Eunice Pettyjohn, Dolores McLachlan, Jean Marie Damon. Jo and her family have moved to California. One guest was unable to attend—she had a prior date with the stork! Mary Lovgren spent all afternoon learning to play pinochle to go to the party, only to go to the hospital instead!

DUPLICATE BRIDGE was in play Sunday evening at the Bert Huff home. Making up the play were the Jerry Jonassons, Gordon Pratts, Gordon Hutchins, Terry Thompsons, Bob Jones and the Huffs. Terry and Jerry won high north-south and Gordon Hutchins and Bert won high east-west. Say, gals, what happened to your scores, this was men's night!

KIM CUTSFORTH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cutsforth, celebrated her third birthday Tuesday afternoon with a party. Her guests were John and Kelly Kilkenny, Lori Turner, Tom, Jim, Diana, and Curtis Cutsforth, Michelle, Jeffery, and Suzanne, Cutsforth, Mark and Jerry Cutsforth, Mike and Kyle Buschke, Teresa Hughes, Kathy and Kraig Cutsforth. The youngsters enjoyed the Easter egg hunt during the afternoon and refreshments.

SEVERAL HEPPNER and Ione bridge enthusiasts motored to Hermiston Monday night to enter bridge play at the Elks. Jim and Bobbe Driscoll won high north-south and Bill and Daisy Collins won third, north-south. Others going were LaVerne and Laurel Van Marter, Harriet Hall, Doreen Jacobs, Suzanne Jepsen, and Eileen Padberg. Speaking of enthusiasm, LaVerne and Laurel just pulled in from a 3-day trip to Portland in time to take off for Hermiston!

ELKS LADIES Night entertained 15 tables of cards following a roast turkey dinner. The ladies also were invited in to view the installation of Elks officers.

Speaking for myself, this was a very impressive event, not soon to be forgotten. Joanne Hughes won high in pinochle and Laura Richards was second high. Ella Smith won high in bridge and Laurel Van Marter won second. Sharon Cutsforth won the door prize. Hostesses were Ruth Van Winkle, Shirley, Donna McCurdy, Helen Keithley, and Louise Farley. They served homemade cookies and coffee during the evening.

BECKY FULLETON, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roice Fullerton, entertained friends at her home Saturday afternoon on the occasion of her birthday. Her guests were Susan Proudfoot, Dee Pettyjohn, Julia Ayres, Debbie Majeski, Robin Nyman, Mary Katherine Campbell, Denise Bloodsworth, Janet McCurdy, Terry Pettyjohn, Therese Moore, Betty Lou Greenup. The youngsters played games, opened the gifts and enjoyed refreshments. Assisting Mrs. Fullerton were daughter, Ruby and Kim Valentine.

TIPS FOR using whipping cream: whip only a small amount, not more than a pint at a time. Use a container large enough to double or triple the volume and deep enough for splashing. Be sure cream, bowl, and beaters are cold before whipping. 1 sometimes place cream in freezer for a few minutes to speed up the whipping.
