HEPPNER 79th Year, Number 6 GAZETTE-TIMES

Spring Salute Sec. Heppner, Oregon, Thursday, April 12, 1962

Everyone Invited; Grand Parade Due, Style Show, Acts Set

Parade Participants Get Free Ice Cream

All children who participate in the "Salute to Spring" parade Saturday at 2 p. m. will receive free ice cream bars, Randall Peterson, chairman, announces. Morrow County Creamery and Hager's Dairy will each furnish 100 without cost, and the Heppner-Morrow County Chamber of Commerce will pay for the balance needed.

All children who can come in costume are asked to dress to compete for prizes for the funniest attire. First prize is $5, second $3, and third $2. The parade will form just off Main on West Baltimore street, near Farra's Shoe Shop.

In Oregon alone, about 450 new cases of lung cancer will be diagnosed in 1962, according to American Cancer Society estimates. Lung cancer is now the leading cause of cancer death among men with the death rate six times higher than it was 20 years ago.

Everyone, young or old, within driving distance of Heppner is invited to come Saturday to join in the festivities of "Salute to Spring," sponsored by the merchants' committee of the Heppner-Morrow County Chamber of Commerce. Randall Peterson, jeweler, is chairman of the event which was planned by the merchants committee of which Mrs. Elma Harshman is chairman.

Among entertainment features will be a Spring Parade to be led by "Miss Salute to Spring," Ronnie Belsma, Heppner High school senior, and the two princesses of her court, Rose Nash and Julie Pfeiffer.

Talented Quartet To Appear Here

When the Halvorsen and Heim-bigner quartet of Ione presents its "Salute to Spring" show here Saturday many people in this area will have opportunity to enjoy the top talent that thousands of others throughout the northwest have been privileged to see. The trampoline and unicycle artists have appeared at many events—the state fair, state and district basketball tournaments, and recently the crowd at the Heppner PTA talent show got a glimpse of the Halvorsens on unicycles.

Style Show To Feature 25 Models

Twenty-five models will take part in the Salute to Spring fashion show to be presented Saturday afternoon in downtown Heppner as an outdoor attraction, Esther Kirmis, who is in charge of the event, announces.

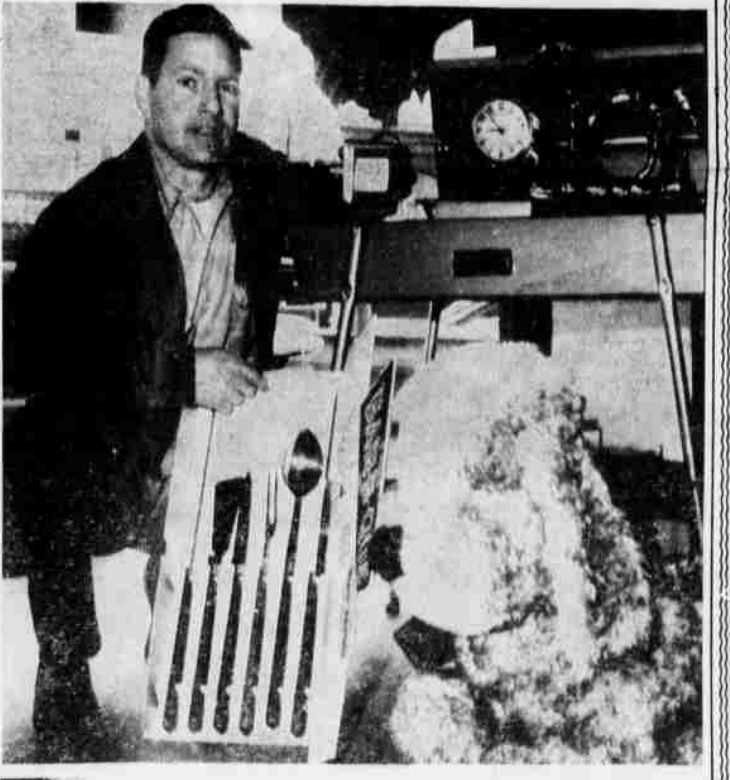

Most of the models will be high school girls, but a few children and adults will also appear, as well as some high school boys to model clothing for young men.

"Many smart, colorful and fashionable lines of clothing are offered in Heppner," Miss Kirmis said, "giving a fine selection of well-known brands to residents of this area."

Stores furnishing apparel will be Wilson's Men's Wear, Mil-Ladies, Elma's Apparel, J. C. Penney Co., and Gonty's. Helen Cox, Flowers, will furnish corsages.

MISS SALUTE TO SPRING, Ronnie Belsma, is shown with her princesses, Rose Nash and Julie Pfeiffer. Ronnie is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon O'Brien. Rose is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash, and Julie is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pfeiffer. All of the girls are Heppner High school seniors. (G-T Photo)

BUD PECK, president of the Band Parents' club is shown with prizes to be offered at the Band Carnival Saturday night. Included are a movie camera, a barbecue grill (almost hidden by other prizes), ornamental clock, big stuffed animal, barbecue cooking set, and set of glasses. (G-T Photo)

Carnival to Offer Food, Fun, Frolic

Plans are progressing and the Fair Pavilion is being readied for the annual Band Parents' Carnival set for this Saturday. The gala evening will get underway with a cafeteria style supper at 5:00 p. m. and band music will entertain the crowd during the serving time. From then on, the carnival committee promises an enjoyable and exciting evening for oldsters and youngsters alike.

Band students have sold tickets on the Kodak Medallion camera and the barbecue set. The drawing for these will be at midnight and winners need not be present to win. Door prizes will be drawn during the evening and persons must be present to win. A king and queen will be named at midnight with winners having the most money in his or her jar. Candidates from junior high and high school bands in the Heppner schools are represented.

Games and contests of all varieties will be offered for all to participate. Band parents and band students are in charge of the games and events. These include the dunk tank, shuffle board game, bowling game, dart games, bingo, fish ponds, ring-the-bell, cork gun shoot, gold fish game, ring toss, hoop toss, ham and bacon wheel, and the old fashioned Country Store. Prizes include felt hats, parasols,

Merchants Offer Many Spring Bargains

As a feature of their "Salute to Spring" Heppner merchants are showing many new spring lines in all classes of merchandise—apparel, hardware, appliances, furniture and others—and have provided special outstanding bargains and values for this week-end.

Many of the new lines and values are included in advertisements throughout this special Spring section, and others are listed in ads throughout the rest of this paper.

The public is invited to come Friday and Saturday to take advantage of the good buys and to see the wide variety of merchandise that they have to offer in the way of spring needs.

No Parking Charges For 'Salute' Guests

When the public comes to Heppner Saturday to shop and to enjoy the "Salute to Spring" event, they will find that they do not have to worry about parking charges.

Hoods will be placed over parking meters all day, and motorists coming to town may keep their pennies, nickels and dimes, usually spent on parking meters, in their pockets.
