Homemakers' Spring Festival Due in May

By ESTHER KIRMIS

The social calendar of the extension units is very full during April and May. Some of the things that the women are discussing and planning include the Homemaker Festival, May 15, at the Catholic Parish hall, Heppner, Pine City and Lena Units will be hostesses.

The theme of our festival is "A Look At Me." Our speaker will be Mrs. Roberta Fraiser, OSU family life specialist, who will talk on the theme and develop the points on "How well do I understand other members of my family?"

This will be a luncheon-type festival. St. Patrick's Altar Society will serve the $1.25 luncheon at noon. They would like a count of the women who plan to attend so purchase your tickets from your county committee woman at the April meeting or the county agent's office not later than May 10. Holders of these green tickets will be seated first. Anyone purchasing a luncheon ticket that day will receive a yellow ticket which means they will have to wait till the others are served. It will be to your advantage to purchase your ticket in advance.

Each unit is asked to put up a display exhibit illustrating one of the projects studied this past year. We will use the anterooms off the main hall for these displays.

Hobby Display—
A special room will be set aside for display of hobbies. If any women have hobbies (along the homemaker line) we invite them to display them. Each unit will be responsible for their own display.

Registration and Tickets—
Registration will be at one or two tables this year. Luncheon tickets will be sold at another. Pine City and Lena will take care of this.

Child Care—
Pine City Unit is making arrangements with the Heppner High school for child care in the Catholic Church basement (right behind the parish hall). They will keep any age child, but discourage tiny babies. The charge will be 50c for the first child and 25c for each additional child in the family. The units will absorb the difference. Each child brings his own sack lunch. Milk will be furnished.

Installation of Officers—
We plan to have the installation of unit officers and new county committee women at 11:30 A. M. on Festival day. This will be right before the luncheon.

Fair Booth Workshop—
Dwight Fairbanks, OSU visual aids specialist, will be at the Heppner fair annex at 10:30 a. m. April 24, to conduct another workshop on fair booths, homemakers displays, 4-H windows, etc.

We especially urge each unit to send the women who will be planning your homemaker festival display. Murle Scales, OSU State Extension agent, says you can surely see the difference in displays after women have listened to Mr. Fairbanks.

It's a sack lunch affair. Should be through by 2:00 or 2:30 p. m. State Homemakers Council—
State Homemakers Council in Corvallis, May 1-3, will be the theme of the "Home—The Foundation of Citizenship."

Convention begins with a tour at 3:00 p. m. of the Forest Products Laboratory of Oregon State University and an International Dinner (IFYE speakers) in the evening. The second day will include a business meeting, workshops for ACWW, 4-H, unit chairmen, traffic safety, health, county committee chairman, and publicity. The evening closes with a banquet at the Memorial Union. (Morrow county is to furnish five hostesses for this event). The third day sees the final business meeting. Convention closes at noon on May 3. Costs: $6.25 for registration fee, two evening banquets and one luncheon. Two breakfasts and lodging will be additional.

We urge each unit to send one delegate, if possible. Anyone wishing to attend State Council should send a check for $6.25 before April 20 to the agent's office.

District Meeting—
Mrs. Doris Vinson, Kimberly, district director, has indicated that there will be a District VII meeting of units in Umatilla, Grant, Gilliam and Morrow counties sometime in May at John Day.

It will be geared for new unit officers and county committee women. Plans are in the making. We will let you know as further things develop.
Alumni Meeting—

Each year the present county committee honors alumni county committee members with a party at one of the members home.

This year it will be at the Randall Martin home, Lena, on May 28. Mrs. Arnas Jakku, former state council president from Hood River, has been invited to speak on her ACWW triennial experiences in Ceylon in 1957.

Umatilla County Festival—
Frances Harvey, Umatilla county extension agent, has issued our unit women an invitation to their Homemaker Festival which will be held April 18 at the Pilot Rock Community building.

It will be a no-host luncheon ($1.25) served at 11:30 a. m. Reservations should be made by April 14. Mrs. Roberta Fraiser will be their featured speaker, also.
