

Easter Program Entertains Star

By LORRAINE BALL

IONE—Eastern Star members of the local chapter held a potluck dinner on Tuesday evening of last week for their husbands and families at the Masonic hall.

Following the dinner an Easter Parade was held with the ladies modeling hats which they had created. They were of all descriptions and a large variety of materials had gone into the making of them. Receiving the prize for the best hat was Mrs. James Lindsey, who modeled a creation made from a lamp shade. Another popular one was made by Mrs. Kenneth Smouse from an Easter basket turned upside down on her head with the handle under her chin.

Guests for the evening included Walter Yaeger, worthy patron of Condon chapter 23 and Mrs. Walter Yaeger, assistant grand conductress of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, who modeled a creation representing the space needle.

Tullis Re-elected President

Gary Tullis was re-elected last Wednesday night to fill the presidency of the Ione PTA for the coming year. Also re-elected were Mrs. Roy Lindstrom, vice president, and Mrs. Robert Del Spain, secretary-treasurer.

Following a business meeting, Linda Halvorsen gave her speech "My Hope for my Country." This speech was the one Linda gave in a recent Knights of Pythias contest in Pendleton and for which she received a trophy. Linda's speech held the audience attention for the entire ten minutes. Many of the parents, after hearing Linda's speech, held more esteem for the newly created speech department in Ione High School, headed by Gil Lujan.

Mardine Baker spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Markham Baker, during her spring vacation from Washington.

FHA Mortgage Loans On Climb

First National Bank of Oregon which issued the most FHA insured mortgage loans in Oregon last year, increased its lead during the first quarter of 1962, it was announced by E. A. McNabb, vice president.

For the first three months of 1962, First National made 332 FHA loans valued at $3,850,000. This was three times greater than the second largest FHA lender in Oregon, McNabb said. Last year the statewide 88-banking office system provided 727 FHA loans totaling $8,566,350.

FHA loans require smaller down payments and can be repaid over longer periods of time than most non-insured loans. The federal legislation was designed to permit moderate income families to purchase homes.

During March alone, First National issued 128 loans valued at $1,438,450. Next largest FHA lender issued 37 loans valued at $426,850.

Jim Morris in Play Slated Soon at EOC

The cast for the Eastern Oregon College production of R. C. Sherriff's drama, "Journey's End," was announced this week by Mervin A. Rummells, director. Jim Morris, a sophomore majoring in secondary education at EOC who is a 1958 graduate of Heppner High school, will have a part in the drama. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Morris, Heppner.

The play, scheduled for May 10, 11, and 12, is described as the "greatest of all modern war plays" and deals with the effect of war on a small group of young English officers.
