DID YOU have a nice Easter week-end? Couldn't have asked for nicer weather. Many families went on fishing excursions, others gathered for family dinners here and away. Heard one little fisherman kept getting "ripples" but the fish just got away! And of course at family dinners, one always eats too much, always going to diet! But such delicious food.

THE ANNUAL Episcopal Easter Monday card party drew a crowd of 12 tables in play of pinocle and bridge. Gordon Hutchins won high in bridge and Lucille Wilson was second. Janina Johnson won high in pinocle with Adelle Wright second. Hazel Hamlin won the door prize. Co-chairmen for the event were Laurel Van Marter and Maxine Gray. Assisting them were Shirley Blake, Bonnie Barratt, Karen Thompson and Janabelle Turner. They served luscious angel food cake with almond rocha topping. The hall was decorated in the Easter theme with Easter eggs and flowers.

GALS PLAN for a lively week-end coming up. Looking at the calendar I see the Rummage Sale, Wranglers cutting horse show, Elks family potluck, Little League tryouts—anything else you can think of? Just a little something to keep away the blues.

THURSDAY NIGHT Bebe Munkers entertained with two tables of pinocle with Lenna Smith winning high. Lillian Sveek won low, Sarah Sharrard and Maxine Gray won the traveling pinocle. Maxine had the pinocle three times during the evening and finally won it on the third time! Also playing were Ruby Munkers, Ruth Van Winkle, Marj Gardner, and Bebe.

WELL, GUESS it is spring gardening time. Bedding plants and vegetables are available. I'll have to pass up the opportunity again this year as we have more sheep than fences around here and I'm afraid the two do not mix too well.

WHAT'S TRUMP bridge club were entertained Wednesday afternoon with a luncheon and two tables in play at the home of Lota Tibbles. Madge Thompson was co-hostess for the afternoon. Gladys Connor won high, Gena Leonard, second, and Happy Graham, low. Others playing were Margaret Blake, Virginia Wilkinson, Beth Bryant, and Virginia Rosewall.

LAURA SUMNER was guest of honor with a dinner on her 17th birthday Friday night at the Jim Lovgren home. Her parents, Cal and Jerry Sumner, were hosts for the evening. Also attending were the Jim Lovgrens, Ernie Garrisons, Ann Jones, and Sheryl Crist.

GLADYS BECKETT won high at the Friday afternoon pinocle club when Mary Harris entertained the group. Gladys teamed up with Carrie Beckett to win the pinocle and Margaret DuBuque won low. Also playing were Hazel Hamlin, Beulah Mankin, Doris Watkins, and Pearl Devine.

OH, THIS name again, but I still think it is very clever! Anyhow, the Fidias and Fyudas were guests of Alma Green Wednesday. Winning high was Beth Bryant and second went to Phyllis Hutchins. Others in on the play were Florence Green, Winnifred Cox, Rachel Dick, Elsie Cole, Lorena Jones, and Gladys Connor.

DID YOU know Americans use a lot of sugar? Each American

Brenda Kay Townsend Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Townsend, Ione, announce the engagement and coming marriage of their daughter, Brenda Kay Townsend, to George Portschy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Portschy of Pendleton.

Brenda Kay is a graduate of Ione high school with the class of 1960. She will complete her study this spring at Phagen's College of Beauty, Pendleton, and graduate with her class in June.

Mr. Portschy graduated from Pendleton High school in 1958, and is now employed in Pendleton.

The date of June 16 has been chosen for the wedding.

on the average used 100 pounds of sugar in 1960. Chief sources of sugar are the sugar cane and sugar beet which are identical in chemical composition. It may be purchased as granulated, powdered, and brown sugar as needed by the homemaker.

WATCH FOR fresh fruits and vegetables appearing in the markets this week. Strawberries are available and rhubarb will reach its peak in the next two weeks. Local green onions are in the markets and romaine and leaf lettuce have dropped in price. Check your markets for the seasonal fruits and vegetables and plan your meals accordingly.

HAZEL HAMLIN: (Mrs. Frank), sends in a recipe for a rice casserole for an easy fix dish. Having heard a few exclamations over Hazel's delicious delights, I'm sure she hasn't let us down!

RICE CASSEROLE
 2 7 oz. cans chicken
 2 cans chicken rice soup
 1 can chicken gumbo soup
 1 cup uncooked rice
 1/4 cup butter (melted)

Mix together in casserole dish and bake 1 1/2 hours in 325 degree oven. Optional: add 1/4 package slivered almonds, sprinkle remaining on top before last 20 minutes of baking time.

Baby Shower Here Fetes New Arrival

Mrs. Bud Peck and baby daughter, Frances Arletta, were honored guests Thursday night at a baby shower. The guests presented them with a stroller.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Matt Hughes and Mrs. R. G. Watkins at the Watkins home. They served refreshments to Mrs. Gordon Hutchins, Mrs. Joe Wright, Mrs. Frank Connor, Mrs. Clarence Baker, Mrs. Bud Marshall, Mrs. Delbert Piper, Mrs. Earl Hunt, Mrs. Darrell McLachlin, Mrs. Ken Robinson, Mrs. Bob Flatt, Mrs. Orval Matheny, and Miss Marguerite Glavey.

Easter week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Ball were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wright, Pilot Rock.

Rice Families to Host Wedding Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rice of Heppner and Edward Rice of Seattle announce the approaching marriage of Edward Rice's daughter, Eleanor Lee, to Richard Allan Obenaus, both of San Francisco, Friday, April 27, in Christ Church, Sausalito, Calif. The Heppner couple are grandparents of the bride-elect.

A reception for the newlyweds will be at the Episcopal Parish hall, Friday, May 4, 8:00 p. m. in Heppner. Hosts for the reception are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rice and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rice.

No invitations are being sent and all friends and relatives are cordially invited.

Wrong Parents Given

Cathy Schiller, fifth grader in the Heppner elementary school who with her partner, Sue Greenup, won a silver medal last week at the Science Fair in Pendleton, was credited to the wrong parents in last week's Gazette-Times. Cathy is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schiller of Echo.
