

HERE IS the Gazette-Times new phone number, just a little longer than before. Pacific Northwest Bell Manager Dale Slusher asks that Heppner, Ione and Lexington residents wait until Sunday, April 29, to use the new seven-digit numbers, otherwise wrong numbers and incomplete calls will result. The numerals are held by Pacific Northwest Bell Operators Carole Thompson, Lynne Artburn, Linda Norton, Alma Shepherd, Marie Diggs, Janis Handley, Sherrie Reiber and Vicki Brandl.

Monday night house guests of the Jim L. Sengens were Neil Ebbrellien and Jim Hubbard. They accompanied Jay Sumner home from OSU and returned Tuesday.

Dan Heppners Visit Here from Canada; Check on Name Tie

Among the week's visitors to Heppner were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Heppner and family of Vancouver, B. C., who are homeward bound after a 4000 mile vacation trip. They stopped here Wednesday—their first time in Heppner—in an effort to determine if they are related to the Heppners for whom the city is named, and came some distance out of their way to do so.

Although they know no one here, they were quite taken with the town and the type of country. They were anxious to visit the museum to learn of the history of the area, and Frank Turner, one of the city's best unofficial hosts, visited with them and helped get them acquainted with local background.

Heppner doesn't have any particular reason to believe that he is related to the Morrow county pioneers, but he was interested to find out. He was born in Canada, and his family originally came from Kansas. He manages apartment buildings in Vancouver.

LEXINGTON

Larry and Laddie Henderson had the misfortune to have an accident and hit a horse one day last week, on their way home to lunch. Laddie was taken to Heppner to a physician where he received medical attention.

This Newspaper

wants pictures of all the children in this area to publish in a future series entitled "Citizens of Tomorrow". To make it representative of the entire trading area we want pictures of as many youngsters as possible. There is no age limit, neither is it necessary to be a subscriber to this newspaper. Therefore, we ask the cooperation of all the parents (and grandparents, too!) to help make this a success. The Studio hours and location are shown below. Just take your children there and several poses will be taken free of charge by a nationally known children's photographer who specializes in feature photography for newspapers. All proofs will be shown and you select your favorite pose for publication. There is no charge or obligation. You may, if you wish, order photographs for gifts or keepsakes from the studio, but this is entirely up to you.
