

Topic Club Library Benefit Brings Good Response

By LORRAINE BALL
 IONE—The Ione Topic club sponsored a card party Wednesday afternoon, April 25, at the Ione Legion Hall for the benefit of the Ione Public Library. Approximately $112.00 was received. This money was donated for the maintenance of the library and purchasing of new books.

Dates to Remember:
 May 3—Rebekah.
 May 3—Extension.
 May 8—Eastern Star
 May 8—Garden Club
 May 9—Maranathas
 May 9—PTA
 May 11—Topic Club

Contract bridge and pinochle were in play during the afternoon with prizes going to Mrs. Ola Tibbles, first; Mrs. Lota Rosewall, second; Mrs. Clarence Connor, third; Mrs. Gladys Carlsson, fourth; Mrs. Lotis Carlsson, fifth; Mrs. Vera Rietmann, sixth; Mrs. Helen Pettijohn, seventh; Mrs. Adelle Wright, eighth; Mrs. Virgil Morgan and Karen Nelson, ninth; Mrs. Fredrick Martin, tenth; Mrs. Paul Tews, eleventh; Mrs. Barbara Palmer, twelfth; Mrs. Mark Rietmann, thirteenth; Mrs. Bill Jepsen, fourteenth; Mrs. Shirley Baker, fifteenth; Mrs. Jerry Pettijohn and Kathy Holtz, sixteenth; Mrs. Kristin Nelson, seventeenth; Mrs. Sandra Carlsson, eighteenth; Mrs. Terry O'Connor, nineteenth; Mrs. Pamela Proudfoot, twentieth.

Virgil Morgan and Karen Nelson. Sports, school, and dressy clothing were modeled by Cheryl Lundell, Judy Sherer, Tass Morrison, Diane Pettijohn and Linda Halvorsen for the high school group. Soft music was played during the show by Arleta McCabe, Cheryl Lundell and Linda Halvorsen.

Club Meets Tuesday
 Garden Club will be held at the home of Betty Spohn on May 8 at 2:00 p. m. Mrs. Fredrick Martin will be the co-hostess.

Several of our community are confined to the hospitals. Mrs. Lana Padberg is still a patient in Pioneer Memorial hospital, however her condition is improving. Also in the Heppner hospital confined to illness is Mrs. James Barnett, who was admitted this past week.

Confined at The Dalles General hospital is Gus Janneson, who was stricken last Tuesday with a heart attack while working near Wasco. His condition is described as serious and he is still under oxygen at this writing.

Mrs. Joel Engleman is a patient in Pioneer Memorial hospital where she underwent surgery Friday night. Her condition is also reported improving and she is expected home about the end of the week.

Mrs. Lewis Ball, Mrs. Cecil Hick and Mrs. Edythe White hosted the Bingo Club on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ball. Eleven members were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers, Mr. and Mrs. Art Dazell and Mrs. Eulenna Corley were among the Willows Grange members from Ione who attended Pamona Grange at Rhea Creek on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo McMillan visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson over the week-end. Mrs. McMillan remained for a longer visit with her mother, Mary Swanson.

John Swanson was home for the week-end to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tews of Seattle, have been visiting the past week at the home of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tews.

Mary Swanson was hostess for a coffee hour at her home on Wednesday of last week for Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tews and children and Anne Smouse of Heppner and Mrs. Tuda Swanson.

Attend Portland Trapshoot
 Mr. and Mrs. Hershall Townsend attended the Telegraphic Trapshoot on Sunday in Portland. Accompanying the Townsends were Mr. and Mrs. George Snider.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvy Smith visited his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Howie in Portland over the week-end, returning to Ione on Monday. Mr. Smith also took in the trapshoot while in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirk visited in Gresham and Portland during the week-end. They visited the Portland zoo and saw Belle and Packy, the new baby elephant. They reported the new arrival at the zoo is quite an attraction.

Gordon Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nichols has received an honorable discharge from the Navy, arriving home this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peterson were hosts to a family night potluck dinner at the Valley church on Sunday evening. A large crowd attended with a delicious dinner enjoyed by all.

Rifleman Meet Saturday
 There will be a 4-H Rifleman's club meeting this Saturday, May 5, at 2:00 p. m. at the cafeteria. Stub Hams returned home this past week following surgery at the Walla Walla hospital recently.

Beulah Lundell visited here during this past week with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell and family and with other Ione and Heppner friends and relatives. Mrs. Della Corson accompanied

HEPPNER GAZETTE-TIMES

79th Year, Number 9

Heppner, Oregon, Thursday, May 3, 1962

Sec. II - 4 pages

Women's Group Sets Luncheon and Bazaar

By DELPHA JONES
 LEXINGTON—The Lexington Christian church and its Women's Fellowship group have a very busy week-end scheduled starting at 1 p. m., Saturday with a Mother-Daughter luncheon. All are invited to attend, and immediately following the luncheon is sponsoring a bazaar and food sale. All proceeds will be used for projects in the church. On Sunday Lexington is fortunate to have Evelyn Jepsen as a guest speaker on Northwest Christian College Day. Evelyn is a graduate of the Ione High school in the class of 1961 and well known in the community. There will be special music and following the services a coffee hour is planned. An announcement has been made that the offering of the 30 pieces of silver for the building fund was a huge success and increased the building fund by $144.90.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harrison are the proud parents of a son born on Thursday, April 26, at Pioneer Memorial hospital. The young fellow has been named Todd Wayne.

Mrs. Dean Hunt and mother, Mrs. Opal Key of Heppner are expected home this week from a week's trip to Springfield, Mo., where they visited relatives.

Myrtle McCarl of Heppner is helping at the Morris McCarl home a couple of days this week. Mrs. McCarl of Harrisburg returned to her home there last week after a short visit in Lexington at the Morris McCarl home.

Here For Cornelison Services
 Connie Lee Cornelison of the U. S. Navy and stationed in San Francisco, Calif., returned to his base on Sunday after a week in Lexington called by the serious illness and death of his grandfather, Joe Cornelison. He was taken to Portland by Raymond Schoonover who is going there to work.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Cornelison and daughter were Lexington visitors on Wednesday to attend the funeral services of Joe Cornelison, a brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Way and children of Vancouver, Wn., visited Tuesday night and Wednesday at the Marvin Way and Merle Cornelison homes and attended the services.

A "come as you are" party and coffee hour was held at the Sue Messenger home last week. Those present for the fun hour were Betty Marquardt, Rena Marquardt, Hilda Yocom, Judy Groshens, Dora Sue Viall, Maurcen Devins, Dollie Smith, Barbara Leyva and Bonnie Cochenour.

Mrs. Cora Allyn was a surprised guest of honor Saturday afternoon when friends called to extend birthday greetings. At the close of the social hour refreshments of birthday cake, made by Mrs. Anna Mae Steagall, and jello were served to Mrs. Pearl Green and sister, Mrs. Merle Brannon, Mrs. Lola Breeding, Mrs. Dorothy Edwards, Mrs. Bonnie Cochenour and Mrs. Steagall.

Miss Donna Barnett is a patient in Pioneer Memorial hospital. Rev. Walter Smith is in training session this week for summer camp directors at Lode Star Ranch near Sacramento, Calif.

Mrs. Delmer Wodell of Yakima, Wn., is visiting this week with her daughter and family, Mrs. Walter Smith.

Win The Bowling Tournament
 About 15 couples of the Lexington community and friends enjoyed an evening of fun and bowling at Echo Saturday night. Winning in the bowling tournament were Bob Kilkenny, all events; Kenneth Turner, men's singles; Lorene Ledbetter, women's singles; Earleen Miller, women's all events; Janice Cutsforth and Wes Marlatt won the doubles.

Mrs. Roy Ayers went to Portland Saturday and returned Sunday, bringing home her granddaughter, Kelly McClintock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gale McClintock. The young Miss will spend two weeks here.

S. J. Boule, Walla Walla, Wn., left for his home Tuesday after spending a week with his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Max Barclay.

Opal Briggs of Heppner to Portland on Thursday for a week-end visit with her niece, Florence Swanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Morgan hosted a pinochle party at their home on Saturday evening. Eulenna Corley received high; Jim Morgan, low; Gene Grabill, mens door prize; June Crowell, ladies door prize and Donald Bristow, 300 pinochle.

Two Attend District Meet
 Mrs. Fredrick Martin and Mrs. Fannie Griffith attended a district meeting of Garden clubs in Stanfield last Thursday for the Blue Mountain District. Mrs. Griffith and Mrs. Martin saw the conservation posters which were entered from this area. Marvin Padberg's poster will be entered in the state competition. These Salem in June when the State posters will be on display in Federation of Garden Clubs hold their meeting.

RETIREMENT

BILL MORGAN
 Equitable Representative
 39 S. W. Dorion
 Pendleton, Oregon
 Phone: CRestview 6-2421
 This man from Equitable Savings holds the key to your carefree retirement. See how planned savings can give you the things you want—security, travel, retirement at $400 a month. To save more, earn more—investigate Equitable's Carefree Retirement Plan.

4% OPEN AND SYSTEMATIC SAVINGS current rate
 4 1/2% APO SAVINGS current rate at maturity (age limit 59 years)

Everett Harshman drove to Seattle Monday to meet his two grandsons, Noel Gay and Everett Harshman, who will spend a month here with the Everett Harshmans. The youngsters, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Gay Harshman, flew into Seattle from their home in Juneau, Alaska.

Neal Penland visited at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ed Schafitz Saturday and Sunday from his studies in Eugene.

Jack Van Winkle left Monday from Prosser, Wn., with his father-in-law, Don Hammaman, on a trip to Fairbanks, Alaska. They plan to drive through in a new pickup purchased by Mr. Hammaman.

Ex-Heppner Ranger Up for Retirement

The retirement of two long time employees of the Umatilla National Forest is announced by Supervisor Wright T. Mallery. Retiring are John W. Clark, forest mechanic with 29 years of service, and Marion R. Saling, district assistant on the Pendleton Ranger district, who has 26 years of federal service.

Clark began his Forest Service career at Medford in 1933. He transferred to Pendleton in 1946 as head mechanic the position he retained until his retirement. Saling first worked for the Forest Service in 1929 on the Heppner Ranger district. He transferred to the Pendleton Ranger district as District assistant in 1947.

Supervisor Mallery announced that the position vacated by Clark is being filled by the promotion of Clinton C. Case. The position vacated by Case is being filled by Bill D. Hensley. Saling's successor is Neil D. Zander of Pendleton.

Back Again

For Your Enjoyment

SATURDAY NIGHT

MAY 5

Western Music By

Howard and Harold

SUNDAY DINNERS FOR THE FAMILY

WIDE CHOICE OF ENTREES—ECONOMICAL PRICES

Stefani's Fine Food

IONE

CLEAN UP --- TUNE UP FREE Car Wash

WITH EVERY

Car Tuneup

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY ONLY

Heppner Auto Sales Inc.

HEPPNER PH. 676-9152

ANNOUNCING MY CANDIDACY FOR

County Commissioner

ON THE

Republican Ticket

With A New Approach To Better County Government,

ADVOCATING--

- Better Planning
- Better Public Relations
- Better Planning of Expenditure of Budgeted Funds.

BERL E. AKERS

BORN AND RAISED IN IONE

I Will Appreciate Support Of All Republicans Who Wish To Back My Constructive Program.

(Pd. Adv. By Berl Akers, P. O. Box 413, Ione, Ore.)

BIG FOOD VALUES EVERYDAY

CUCUMBERS Ea. . . .	10¢
RADISHES AND GREEN ONIONS	3 BUNCHES 17¢
46 Oz. HI-C	3 for 98¢
S & W TUNA	Chunk Style 3 FOR 89¢
Hills Bros. COFFEE	LB. 59¢ 2 LB. $1.17 4 LB. $2.33
Hills Bros. INSTANT COFFEE, 6 oz. jar 89¢
HAMBURGER	3 Lb. $1.39
CORNED BEEF	Lb. 79¢
Large FRANKS	3 Lb. $1

We Feature MAYFLOWER DAIRY PRODUCTS

ECONOMY

IS NOT A WORD - BUT A FACT!

PHONES: 6-9922 & 6-9943

TOM & MILLIE'S HOME-OWNED MARKET

FREE DELIVERY