AH, 'TIS spring, and a young man's fancy turns to baseball! Who can play ball in this kind of weather, but we need it to help pay the bills, sooooo! For a change, I hope you will come out during the summer to watch the Little Leaguers at play and give them a yell of encouragement.

BRIDGE PLAYING still seems to be the favorite pastime of most everyone and several did some traveling during the past week to get in on the play. Also several bridge clubs were in play and only one pinochle club, Say, all you outnumbered pinochle players, including me, will have to keep hopping and get your club news into me. Just give me a call at home on Tuesdays. Maybe you know of a birthday party or shower, too.

FRIDAY NIGHT the Dr. W. H. Wolff home was the scene of four tables of duplicate bridge play. Getting in on the play were Dick and Inez Meador, Gordon and LaFyrne Pratt, Bob and Sue Jones, Lowell and Dee Gribble, LaVerne and Laurel Van Marter, Conley Lanham, Clint McQuarrie, Harlan McCurdy, Jr., and Ed Dick. Dick and LaFyrne won high north-south and LaVerne and Rita were second. Dr. Wolff and Harlan were high east-west with a tie for second between Lowell and Sue, and Dee and Ed.

CYDE ALLSTOTT, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Allstott, celebrated her birthday with a party Friday afternoon. She entertained David, Dianne, Jim, and Delbert McLachlan; Ronnie, Greg, Tanna, and Cecil Berry; Trina, Kim, and Denise Hill; Janet McCurdy, Brenda Templeton, Jimmy Van Schoack, Louise Hartle, Kay and Dale Munkers, Tracie and Tina Connor, Barbara and David Allstott. The youngsters played games and had refreshments. Cyde was down town Saturday spending some of her birthday gifts and just wouldn't part with those sun glasses!

TRAVELING TO Hermiston Sunday for the Elks unit duplicate play were the Jim Driscolls, LaVerne Van Marters, Daisy Collins, and Eileen Padberg. LaVerne and Daisy teamed up to win fourth which entitled them to a fractional master point.

A REMINDER of the family pot-luck and magician show at the Elks Saturday night. The meat and rolls are furnished, just bring your favorite tasty dish and the family for a delicious dinner.

HAVE YOU bought your ticket for the homemakers festival? Get them at the county agents office for the meet May 15.

FAYE PIERCE won high Wednesday night when the King's Little Queens got together for an evening of bridge with Helen O'Donnell as hostess. Dee Gribble won second, Nadine O'Brien, low, and Gwen Healy won the traveling prize. Also playing were Nona Sowell, Shirley Blake, Hazel Mahoney, and Mary Ann Barclay. Prizes were very useful gifts of flower bulbs and plants. Did you get them planted gals?

I TALKED with Mrs. R. B. Rice this morning about the trip to San Francisco last week for the wedding of her granddaughter, Eleanor. She said she made it just fine, spent most of the time in the camper bed while her son drove, making the trip in 22 hours. She enjoyed the visit to the Emporium where Eleanor works and meeting the people. They returned home Sunday. For a youngster of 86½, that's quite a trip!

MARGUERITE CHAPIN entertained the Friday afternoon pinochle club at her home last week and also got in on the prizes by winning low. Pearl Wright won high and, with Carrie Beckett, won the pinochle. Others playing were Gladys Beckett, Mary Harris, Doris Watkins, Beulah Mankin, and Millie Evans. Mary, don't go fishing any more. I can't find out who won what. With Beulah's help we hope this is right!

SEVERAL ELKS duplicate bridge players traveled to Pendleton Wednesday to enter the master point play. Going were the Jim Driscolls, LaVerne Van Marters, Harriet Hall, and Daisy Collins. LaVerne and Daisy won second north-south and Bobbe and Helen Lindsay, Hermiston, won second east-west. Each received fractional master points.

JUST A simple figure of speech can sure get you into a comical situation. Ask Lora Moore. One day she was in Pendleton and mentioned to a friend she "flew" over today. A few days later she was again in Pendleton and talked to another friend who asked if she hadn't flown into town? Lora said she might have been going a little fast but not flying a plane!

LADIES NIGHT at the Elks Thursday drew 16 tables of bridge and pinochle in play. Lucille Wilson won high in bridge and Rachel Dick won second high. Carolyn Bergstrom won high in pinochle with Jackie Allstott second. Rosemarie Strober won the door prize. Hostesses were Eileen Padberg, Colleen Padberg, Gladys Van Winkle, Maureen Devin, Donna Orwick, and Dora Sue Viall. They served homemade cookies and coffee during the play.

Betrothed Couple To Wed in September

Jack Davis, Portland, announces the engagement of his daughter, Beulah Faye Davis, to Asa Way, Lexington. Mr. Way recently returned from a two year tour of duty with the U. S. Army and is now employed in California. He graduated from Lexington high school in 1954. Miss Davis is a 1958 graduate of Heppner high school and is employed with the Security Bank of Oregon in Portland. An early September wedding is planned.

SUSAN MELBY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Melby, celebrated her 10th birthday with a party Sunday afternoon. Assisting with the party was Kathy Melby and Pam McCabe. Susan's guests were Molly Beckett, Brett and Patty Howell, Patricia Keithley, Lisa McCabe, Linda Eckman, Donna and Denise Mills, and Teresa Wright. The girls enjoyed outdoor games and tried Susan's new badminton set. Ice cream and cake were served afterwards. Speaking of cake, the Melby oven decided to act up and so they ended up rushing to the neighbors to bake the birthday cake! Just in time.

TRY FROZEN cherries for a hearty treat for the family. Frozen sour red cherries are plentiful this year and here is a recipe tried at Cornell university for correct amount of thickening so the pie doesn't run.

Cherry Pie
1 qt. frozen cherries
2½ T tapioca mixed with 1 1/3 T cornstarch
Sugar to taste. Thaw cherries until most of free ice has disappeared, drain off juice and add it to thickener and sugar and mix together. Heat rapidly until thickening is complete. Add cherries, pour into unbaked pie shell and add latticed cover. Bake at 400 degrees for 35 minutes or until top crust is light brown. To get brown underneath, place pie on the lowest shelf in oven.

Home Services Unite Loraine Reid And Floyd Wilson

Miss Loraine Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid, Kinzua, became the bride of Floyd Wilson, son of Mrs. Lydia Wilson, Heppner, in an evening ceremony Friday, May 4, at the Art Warren ranch home near Hardman. The Rev. Charles Knox of Heppner performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pale blue nylon dress with bolero jacket. Her net cap was white, trimmed with small white flowers. She wore a bridal corsage of white carnations and rosebuds.

Miss Lolah Wilson, sister of the groom, was the only attendant. She chose a light blue suit with white accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations with red rosebuds.

Best man was Raymond Reid, Kinzua, brother of the bride.

After the bride and groom cut the cake, which was baked and beautifully decorated by the bride's mother, they were greeted at a reception with Miss Wilson, the groom's sister, in charge.

Mrs. Cecil Mabe, Kinzua, and Mrs. Clayton Ayers, Heppner, both aunts of the groom, served the cake. Mrs. Ray Dickenson, Mrs. Vernon, aunt of the bride, poured coffee, and Mrs. Max Breeding, Portland, sister of the groom and Miss Melba Reid, sister of the bride, poured punch. The rooms were decorated with spring bouquets of flowers.

Miss Roberta Reid, the bride's sister, had charge of the guest book.

Following a short honeymoon, the couple will live on the Warren ranch where the groom is employed.

Special guests at the ceremony were the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Hastings, Kinzua, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reid, Hermiston.

Auxiliary Entertains Leaders, Sell Poppies

IONE—American Legion Auxiliary department president Mrs. Mabel Gearhart of Portland, Mrs. Violet Larsen, Springfield, department vice president, and Mrs. Pearl Funk of Athena, district six president, paid their official visit to the Ione Auxiliary Chapter last Tuesday afternoon at the Legion hall.

A reminder was made to the public that poppies will soon be on sale. This year the auxiliary is making poppy wreaths and will make them on request. It is stressed that they may be used on all graves. Anyone interested may contact poppy chairman, Mrs. Earl McCabe or any auxiliary member.

Annual Banquet, Prom Entertains

Ione High School seniors have been royally entertained at two recent school functions, the annual junior-senior prom and junior-senior banquet.

The gym was cleverly converted into a "South Pacific" atmosphere for the prom. Linda Halvorsen and Kenneth Nelson reigned as queen and king of the evening.

Focal highlight of the decoration was a five-tiered waterfall surrounded by a colorful rock garden, palm trees and flowers. Small tables were placed about the room where refreshments of punch and cookies were served. Music was provided by a four-piece combo from La Grande.

The banquet was held April 27 in the cafeteria with Jim Martin, junior class president, as master of ceremonies and Kenneth Nelson, senior class president, responding.

Musical selections were given by the Heppner trio, Ginny Lou Turner, Pam Cocheil and Ginny Moore. Guest speaker was Dallas Shockley, former Ione school superintendent, who talked on the theme, "Reminiscing."

Tom Pointer, senior, read a brief history of the senior class. Rev. Rod MacKenzie gave the invocation and Father Raymond Beard pronounced the benediction.

Mothers of the junior class prepared the banquet and the sophomores served.

Election Of Officers Held At Rainbow Meet

Ruth Assembly, Rainbow for Girls, chose Ginger Springer to head the group as worthy advisor at election meeting Monday night, and Sherrie Olson was chosen associate worthy advisor. These girls and others named to offices will be installed Sunday afternoon, May 13, 2:00 p. m., in the Masonic hall. The public is cordially invited to attend the ceremonies.

Reports were given on the Easter favors the girls made for the serving trays of the patients at Pioneer Memorial hospital and on the car wash sponsored last week. The latter projects netted them $43.

Several Rainbow girls and their mother advisor, Mrs. Paul Webb, will attend the grand assembly in Salem starting June 17. Ginny Lou Turner is grand choir member this year. Also Rainbow girls and Eastern Star members will be initiated into the grand cross of color at the grand assembly meeting. Included from here are Beverly Blake, Berniece Thomson, Sherrie Olson, Linda Halvorsen, Ione, Mrs. Louis Halvorsen, Ione, and Mrs. Don Turner.

Shannon Mahoney and Linda will attend the supreme assembly in Chicago, Ill., in late June as delegates from the Ruth and Ione assemblies.

Delegates To Attend State Rebekah Meet

Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 met Friday with Mrs. Frank Payne, noble grand, presiding. Quite a number of regular members were absent due to illness. Mrs. R. G. McMurtry was reported still in the hospital but improving. Mrs. Lena Kelly is at the home of her daughter, convalescing after major surgery.

Mrs. Esther Bergstrom qualified for a seal by giving the unwritten work.

Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. Freida Majeske and Mrs. Cattie Padberg of Holly Rebekah Lodge No. 139, Lexington, were visitors at this meeting and warmly welcomed.

Plans were discussed for delegates to attend the Rebekah Assembly in Medford May 22-24. Sans Souci has the honor of having one of its members, Mrs. Roy Quackenbush, junior past noble grand, give the response to the address of welcome. Another member, Mrs. Altha Kirk, is one of the Rebekah Assembly committee chairman.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Rachel Harnett, vice grand, assisted by Mrs. Ellen Moore and Mrs. Pearl Devine.

gave us Mom for Mother's Day!

We gave her a KitchenAid portable dishwasher... and we got Mom back where we want her, with us! She doesn't have to spend the after-dinner hour in the kitchen anymore. We just load everything into our new KitchenAid portable, press the button, and we've done the dishes. We spend the extra time together—enjoying each other.

And you should see how sparkling clean and dry our tableware comes out. Even tough, dried-on foods can't resist the revolving power washing-action. We even put our best stemware and crystal in—it's perfectly safe. And what capacity! It holds a complete dinner service, including pots and pans. Best of all, if we move we can take our KitchenAid portable with us.

Why don't you come down and see a demonstration... learn how economically you can own the very best dishwasher. Then you'll know why KitchenAid is the finest Mother's Day gift there is—for the whole family.
