

May Day Court Rules at School Festive Program

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN — Carolyn Burr was crowned May Day Queen at the annual May Day program last Friday at the school. Jim Crouch was crowned King. Greg Bedord, prime minister, crowned the royal pair. Princesses and princess were Casey Kuhn and Bruce Russell, first grade; Jill Rugg and Rick Partlow, second grade; Gedola Rugg and James Watkins, third and fourth grade. Flower girls were pre-schoolers Tracee Ferguson, Joyce Crews, Arla Thornhill, Linda Ball and Rebecca Banzer. Crown bearers were pre-schoolers, Danny Crouch and Billy Bedord. Scepter bearers were pre-schoolers, Ronnie Hayes and Frankie Flock. Presentation of colors was by Penny Rayner, the flag salute was led by Princes Bruce, Rick and James. The audience joined in the singing of the Star Spangled Banner.

Dance of greetings: Little red hen, Judy Watkins; cat, Charmalee Flock; pig, Linda Hoffman; frog, Donnie Sledge; readers, Ronnie Summers and Ron Baker. Basic rhythms, first and second grades, which included trotting, leaping, galloping, waltzing, hopping and skipping.

Advanced rhythms, fifth and sixth grades, heel and toe polka, minuet and a square dance. Baton number by Pat Partlow's class, including Janell Skoubo, Diane Black, Linda Devine and Charmalee Flock. The Maypole Dance was presented by the third and fourth grades.

Following the program a track meet was held on the school grounds.

The sophomore class sponsored a dance Friday evening, featuring May Day. Linda Daniela, junior, was crowned queen, and princesses were Wanda Davis, freshman, and Sandra Thorpe, sophomore. Robin Schmeder crowned the queen. She was presented with a bouquet of flowers.

Take Seattle Trip
The senior class of Riverside High school went on their annual sneak trip over the weekend. Accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James Harper and Mr. and Mrs. Don Adams they went to Seaside for their outing. Members of the class are Chloe McQuaw, Sandra Creamer, Ann Schmeder, Hazel Stitzel, Larry Stitzel, Leonard Bentley, Howard Keith, Don Taylor, Keith Gronquist, Steve Deitz, Richard Wats, Robert Obermeier and Eddie Boothman.

Pre-schoolers Register May 23
Ron Daniels, school principal, asks that parents of any pre-school children that will start to school next fall contact the school on or before May 23, preferably before.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Peterson of Parma, Idaho, were week-end visitors at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Daniels.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Olmstead of Phoenix, Ariz., visited at the home of Mrs. Olmstead's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kress, last week, then left Friday to visit relatives in Lewiston, Idaho. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Kress, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ball and daughters Barbara and Karen of Hermon, went to Lewiston for a family reunion.

Ed Boothman has returned from a week's trip to Williams Lake, B. C., where he visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Witte. Sunday he took Mrs. Boothman to La Grande where she will spend this week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Boothman, who are both ill.

Mrs. Bernard Donovan and daughter Sharon accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pulley of Pendleton to Portland over the week-end where they attended the Ice Follies.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe were in Corvallis last week where the ladies attended the Oregon Home Economics Extension Council. They were accompanied by Mrs. Richard Ryan and Mrs. Mary Adams of Irizson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bray and son Bill of Chico, Calif. visited two days last week at the home of Mrs. Bray's aunt, Mrs. Florence Root. Mrs. Claud Worden visited in Payette, Idaho, last week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Forthman, who brought her home Sunday.

Grange Has Card Party
Four tables of pinocle were in play at the Greenfield Grange card party held at the hall Friday night. Hostesses were Mrs. W. G. Seehafer and Mrs. Andrew Skiles. High scores were won by Mrs. Clyde Tannehill and Mrs. Don Downey. Low went to Clyde Tannehill and Mrs. Cecil Hamilton. The pinocle prizes were won by Mrs. Delbert Ball and Mrs. Julie Crews.

City Council Meets
The city council voted last week to refuse the grant of two franchise, one for garbage disposal, and one for gas. This was done on the recommendation of the city planning commission two months ago, and the matter was tabled until this meeting.

The annual budget meeting was to be held May 8, and the following city residents appointed to act on the committee: Clyde Tannehill, Mrs. Florence Root, Ed Kuhn, Wally Hendrix, Mrs. Nate Macomber, Robert Harwood, and as alternates Vernon Russell, George Wiese and R. B. Rands.

George Wiese reported that a hearing had been held at Heppner on the Mosquito Control District, and it was expected to be on the primary ballot for vote of the people. Letters are to be sent out by the council advising the public just what the control district will mean. The district will extend from Willow Creek on the West to the Lexington cutoff road on the East.

If it is passed by a vote of the people, five board directors will be appointed by the county court to act as trustees. Mayor Joe Tatone is encouraging all Boardman businessmen to participate in the "Welcome to Oregon" campaign which is being advocated by Gov. Mark Hatfield. Mayor Tatone attended the meeting in Salem the first of last week which was attended by 500 from throughout the state. He returned with information as to how local communities could join in the program this year, and with samples and order blanks for lapel buttons, tent cards, place mats, decals, rubber mats and bumper strips which could be purchased for free distribution to tourists, especially those passing through Oregon on their way to the World's Fair at Seattle, Wn.

Mrs. Bob Thornhill was hostess for a party at her home Saturday afternoon in honor of her daughter Arla's sixth birthday. Guests included Mrs. Wayne Kuhn and Pam and Casey, Mrs. Gunnar Skoubo and Patsy, Kathy and Linda, Mrs. Bob Sicard and Roberta and Kenny, Deborah Burg and Tina Thornhill.

Mrs. Clyde Tannehill and Mrs. Arthur Allen were hostesses for the meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of the Community Church last week in the church basement.

Mrs. Della Falkner presented a reading "Vacation Time," and Mrs. Rol Burg was in charge of devotions. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bernard Donovan, May 16, with Mrs. Harold Rash as co-hostess.

Cemetery Cleanup Set
The annual Cleanup Day at the Ione IOOF Cemetery is planned for Saturday, May 19, with workers asked to be on hand at 9 a. m. or earlier, equipped with rakes or garden tools to complete work by noon. A truck and tractor will be available to remove and take away debris and trimmings.

Make Terry Blouses

The sixth meeting of the Super Sutures was held on May 2, at Mrs. Van Schoiack's house. Those present were Ruby Fullerton, Linda Heath, Judy Jones, Kay Daggett, Margaret Green, Linda Clark, Sheridan Wyman and Mary Pierce.

Mrs. Van Schoiack showed us how to make blouses out of terry cloth.

The meeting was then adjourned.
