OES Initiates Two Couples on Monday

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gimbel and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Young were initiated into Ruth chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Monday night at the regular meeting.

The draping of the altar ceremonies were conducted in memory of eight departed members and three past grand patrons and matrons of the grand chapter of Oregon. Local members were Ethel LeTrace, Loyal Parker, Frank S. Parker, Ida Cason, Alice Anderson Clark, Dorothy Suter, Jess Turner, and David Hynd.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gimbel, Hermiston, were here for the meeting to see their son and daughter-in-law initiated.

The next Eastern Star meeting will be May 28 in the Masonic hall.

Couple Announces June Wedding Date

The wedding date of Sunday, June 17, has been set for the marriage of Miss Shirley May Nash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash, to Melvin Dean Connor, son of Albert Connor.

The ceremony is planned for 2:00 p. m. in the sanctuary of the First Methodist church in Heppner. A reception will follow in the basement social rooms. The couple extends a cordial invitation to all friends to attend.

District Officer Installs New Slate Of Co-op Officers

Mrs. Ada Sacrisson, district representative of the Co-op Homemaker groups of the Walla Walla district, Pilot Rock, was installing officer at ceremonies of the local Lexington Co-op Biddies May 7 at the Lexington City hall.

Seated as the new chairman of the group was Mrs. Millard Nolan, Lexington. Other officers are Mrs. Gene Ferguson, Heppner, vice-chairman; Mrs. L. A. McCabe, Ione, secretary; Mrs. Joel Englemann, Ione, treasurer; and Mrs. Edna Turner, Heppner, representative.

During the program, Mrs. Sacrisson showed several crafts that other co-op groups had done. Another guest, Mrs. Edith Stevens, also of Pilot Rock, showed some of her work in tin can craft, and the making of flowers from wood fibers.

Local members also brought articles for craft display.

An invitation was extended to the group to attend a picnic at the Sacrisson home in Pilot Rock on June 15. Regular meetings will resume September 17 when Mrs. Stevens will give instruction in wood fiber flowers.

Nine members and three guests were present for the afternoon. Hostesses were Mrs. Nolan, Mrs. Annie Keene and Mrs. McCabe.

GINGER SPRINGER, RAINBOW WORTHY ADVISOR

Ginger Springer Installed Sunday Worthy Advisor of Rainbow Assembly

Ginger Springer was installed worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls, Sunday afternoon at the Masonic hall.

Ginger chose as her theme, "Love Binds Creation Together," and her colors were turquoise and silver.

She was escorted by her brother, Dick, and placing the crown on her head were Debby and Donna Palmer. During the crowning ceremonies, Ginny Lou Turner and Pam Cochell sang, "Love is A Many Splendored Thing," accompanied by Judy Cochell at the piano. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Springer, Heppner, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Springer, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moore, all of Hood River, and aunt, Mrs. Lincoln Nash were introduced. Also introduced were the mother advisor, Mrs. Paul Webb, past mother advisor, Mrs. Claude Graham; Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, mother advisor of Ione; Brenda Young, recorder; Michelle Morrison, Ione worthy advisor; Kathy Rea, new Ione worthy advisor; Don Turner, worshipful master of Heppner, lodge, No. 69, A.F.&A.M.; Mrs. Harold Wright, Mrs. Don Turner, Mrs. Lucille Wilson, and Dr. Ed Schaffitz.

Other officers installed were: Sheri Olson, worthy associate advisor; Kathy Ray, charity; Diane Schaffitz, hope; Ginny Lou Turner, faith; Tanna Valentine, chaplain; Jean Siewert, drill leader; Fran McLeod, love; Nancy Cleveland, religion; Teresa Munkers, nature; Jeannette Ledbetter, immortality; Diane Warren, fidelity; Barbara Bloodsworth, patriotism; Peggy Snyder, service; Laura Lee Stotts, confidential observer; Kathy Matthews, outer observer; Gail Batty, musician; Linda Heath, choir director; Linda Warren, Cynthia Smith, Pam Cochell, Kitty O'Harra, Barbara Blake, and Rogena Wilson, choir members.

Installing officers were: Beverly Blake, past worthy advisor; Shannon Mahoney, marshal;

Kathy Rea, Ione, recorder; Michelle Morrison, Ione, chaplain; and Linda Halvorsen, Ione, musician.

After the installation ceremonies an addendum honoring the new worthy advisor was given by the line officers and color stations. Ginger was presented with a bouquet of artificial flowers and a gift from the Ruth assembly.

Beverly Blake was presented the past worthy advisor pin from Ginger Springer. Barbara Palmer passed the programs of installation ceremonies.

The reception followed in the dining room with Mrs. Springer, Mrs. Will O'Harra, Mrs. Bill Olson, Mrs. Don Turner, Mrs. Ed Schaffitz, and Mrs. Wilbur Van Blokland in charge. The beautiful pink and white decorated cake was baked by Mrs. Arnold Springer and decorated by Mrs. Harold Wright. Pouring were Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Elmer Springer. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Van Blokland.

Decorations in the dining room carried out the color theme with a centerpiece of turquoise carnations in a silver vase with a silver candelabra and turquoise candles.

These are RECOMMENDATIONS only. Each voter must exercise his own judgment. The AFL-CIO is satisfied to present the issues and the candidates on the record. Each of the candidates we have recommended has a record in office—if he has held public office—that in our opinion served the best interests of the state and the nation. If the recommended candidate has not held public office we have judged him upon his views concerning a wide variety of issues.
