

FIELD TRIPS for school pupils are among their most interesting educational experiences. At this time of year many classes are taking trips to various industries and points of interest in the area. An especially enjoyable trip was made recently by Mrs. Diana Kincaid's first grade class to Morrow Count Creamery. One of their rewards was sampling the creamery's Pride of Oregon ice cream, and they are shown here with their cones. At left are John Piper and D. R. Tash. Mrs. Kincaid and Caude Cox, creamery owner, stand at right. (G-T Photo)

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS

County Court met in regular session on April 4, 1962. The minutes of the previous term were read and approved. An agreement pertaining to the Airport at Lexington was signed. It was ordered that the Dissolution of the Livestock District be put on the ballot as originally submitted in the petition.

Bureau Chief Urges Farmers To Vote

Wiley Clowers, president of the Oregon Farm Bureau, today made a special appeal to Oregon farmers to vote in the primary election May 18. "Voting in the primary is just as important as voting in the November elections," the farm leader said. "Don't blame the party or politicians when weak candidates are slated. Blame those who failed to vote in the primary," Clowers stated. "All too often people think the primary election is not important. It is in the primary that our potential governmental leaders are selected," he explained.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wardwell and family moved last week to Hermiston where they will make their home at 613 Victory Square. Mr. Wardwell recently started work at the Ordnance Depot, after 11 years here on the ranch of Mrs. Amanda Duvall.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parrish were at Lehman Springs May 6 to attend a family reunion. Also at Lehman for the day were the Ed Dick and Bill Blake families.
