Mrs. Robert Abrams Honored At Shower

Mrs. Robert Abrams was guest of honor at a shower at the home of Mrs. Rod Murray Thursday night. Co-host with Mrs. Murray was Mrs. Nels Anderson. The gift table was decorated with a stork and the lovely array of gifts. Assisting Mrs. Abrams with the gifts was Mrs. Claude Graham. Guests enjoyed games and later were served pink ice cream pie and coffee. Present for the occasion were Mrs. Andy Van Schoelack, Mrs. W. H. Wolff, Mrs. Bobby Jones, Mrs. Terry Thompson, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. Roice Fullin, Mrs. Bruce Spencer, Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Mrs. Bill Siewert, Mrs. Ray Williamson, and Mrs. Abrams' mother, Mrs. Sara Morrow.

Club Makes Trip To Be Dinner Guests In F. Parker Home

Several members of the Rhea Creek Grange Home Economics club accompanied by some of the husbands, were guests in the home of a former charter grange member, Mrs. Frank Parker, in Walla Walla, Wn., last Thursday, May 17.

Assisted by two sisters who live nearby, Mrs. Parker was hostess to a pot-luck dinner at noon. Helping her were Mrs. Mary Davis and Mrs. Inez Loney. Guests from here were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Wright, Mr. and Mrs. John Bergstrom, Mrs. Ray Wright, Miss Marilyn Bergstrom, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Babb, Mrs. Elmer Palmer, Mrs. Evelyn Farrans, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson, Mrs. Bill Bergstrom and Mrs. Harold Wright.

Miss Carol K. Anderson was met at the Pendleton airport by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Anderson, when she came home by plane for Mother's Day weekend from her studies at Oregon State University. The Andersons took her back on Sunday, stopping in Portland for visits with two daughters and families, Mr. and Mrs. Al Parent and Mrs. Dee Martin.

Bill Irby, with the Air Force, and Roy Hughes, with the Navy, left Tuesday for their stations in California after a week's stay with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Irby and Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Hughes.

HI, EVERYONE! Just about three more days till school is out for the summer. Aren't you thrilled, now you can stay in bed longer each morning? The youngsters are anxiously counting the days and all the free, free time to loaf, dream, or play baseball, and just maybe go fishing. Summer is a good fun-time for the whole family, so slow down and enjoy it with the kids.

JUST A few clubs and parties this week as more clubs adjourn for the summer. Three enthusiastic bridge-type players journeyed to Hermiston again Monday night and came home with more laurels. Fellows, you keep that up and they may not invite you all back again! Going were Jim Driscoll, LaVerne Van Marter, and Bill Blake. Bill and Jim teamed up to win HIGH north-south, and LaVerne played with Bill Ward, Echo, to take second place, east-west. Bill says I must put the "high" in big type, guess it's his first time! He further states he will show LaVerne the finer points of the game now.

REMEMBER THE public spring flower show sponsored by Sew Alongs, 4-H club and the Kool Kooks, 4-H club will serve tea in the afternoon at the Heppner Ford showroom. Anyone may enter their flowers and they will be judged and awarded ribbons for first three placing. Look in your yard and decide on your prettiest varieties for the show!

CARRIE BECKETT won high Friday afternoon when the club met at the home of Doris Watkins. Also in the win column was Ann Fehmerling, Portland, low. Gladys Beckett and Pearl Wright won the pinochle. Others in on the play were Millie Evans, Eva Miller, Lexington; and Beulah Mankin. Mrs. Fehmerling is a sister of Mrs. Evans.

TWO BOYS missed just the "most" important event of their lives last Saturday because of a "bug." Home on the sick list were Mark Brown and Mike Pierce and the big event was the eighth grade banquet and dance. Sorry you had to miss it, fellows.

PHYLLIS HUTCHENS entertained the Fidas and Fyudas bridge club at her home Wednesday evening. She said the scores were terrific with high going to Lorena Jones, having a score of 8,550 for six progressions! Everyone held good cards and second high went to Alma Green. Also in on the play were Florence Green, Rachel Dick, Gladys Connor, Winifred Cox, Elsie Cole, and Beth Bryant.

BILL BLAKE stopped me Monday to make sure I made a correction in the column this week about who won third at the Elks duplicate play! It seems he and Rachel Dick won instead of Shirley Blake and Ed Dick. You're sure? My informer just gave out the wrong statistics.

MICKEY MOLLOHAN took high score Wednesday night when Gail Burkenbine hosted two tables of pinochle. Jackie Helenie won second high, and Helen Olson won the pinochle. Others playing were Gail Johnson, Marg Eckman, Mary Ann Palmer, and Flo Connor. The gals get together for play twice each month.

LEGION AUXILIARY members are sponsoring a bake sale Tuesday, May 29, at the Heppner Red and White. Starting time is 9:30 a. m. and they are sure to have on hand many delicious goodies. Just in time for your Memorial Day guests.

LA VERNE Van Marter, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Jr., celebrated his 10th birthday with a treasure hunt party late Wednesday afternoon. The boys met at the Van Marter home then proceeded on the hunt, finding treasures for everyone along the way to the court-house lawn. Mrs. Van Marter served the boys hamburgers with Cokes, chips and cake. Guests included Tommy Cleveland, Ken Baker, Terry Hughes, David Gunderson, Jim Healy, Keith Curnutt, Steven Hutchens, Johnny Johnson, Ronnie Flug, Billy Wolff, Delbert McLachlan, Kevin Dick, John Hall, Brian Hughes, Kelly Green, Robbie Abrams, Rodney Whitesmith, Joe Wilhelm, and Bill Greenup.

WHAT'S TRUMP club members closed out their bridge play until fall with a payoff luncheon and play Wednesday afternoon. The highs hosted the lows with a creamed chicken salad and frozen dessert luncheon. The highs were Gena Leonard, Virginia Rosewall, Lota Tibbles, Hazel Mahoney, and Fay Ferguson. The lows included Madge Thomson, Helen Schaffitz, Happy Graham, Margaret Blake, and Dee Gribble. Happy won high and Madge was second for the afternoon's play.

TAMI MEADOR, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Meador, entertained little guests with a luncheon celebrating her seventh birthday Saturday. Following the luncheon the girls played games, sang songs, and received favors and balloons. Tami's friends were Tracy Norene, Judy Pratt, Ann Burkenbine, Shannon Farley, Janet Gentry, Judith Bennett, Barbara Sherman, Marie Van Marter, and her sister, Leslie Fay.

THE RECIPE comes to me this week from Mrs. Matt (Joan) Hughes. She said she had had many requests for it since serving the tasty treat at a shower recently.

Frosted Pineapple Squares

- 1/2 cup sugar
- 3 T cornstarch
- 1/4 t. salt
- 1 egg yolk, slightly beaten
- 1 can (1 lb. 14 oz.) pineapple chunks, undrained
- 2/3 cup milk
- 1 t. sugar
- 1 pkg. dry yeast
- 1/4 cup very warm water
- 4 egg yolks, lightly beaten
- 4 cups sifted flour
- 1 cup margarine

Mix 1/4 cup sugar, cornstarch, and salt in pan, stir in egg yolk and pineapple chunks, cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until thick and smooth, about 7 min., cool while preparing dough. Scald milk, add 1 t. sugar, cool to lukewarm; dissolve yeast in very warm water, add to milk mixture, stir in beaten egg yolks. Put flour in large bowl, cut in margarine until it resembles coarse meal, stir in yeast and milk mixture, blend thoroughly, dough will be soft and moist, divide into half. Roll half out to about 16 x 10 inches, spread with cooled pineapple filling, roll remaining dough large enough to cover filling, seal edges, slit top of dough to let steam escape, cover, let rise about an hour, or double in size, bake in 375 degree oven for 35 to 40 minutes. Frost with confectioners' sugar icing, serve until thick and smooth, about 7 min.
