Ione Students Chosen For Boys', Girls' State

Four outstanding students at Ione High school have been chosen by the Ione Legion Post and Auxiliary to attend Girls State and Boys State conventions in Salem next month. Expenses of one of the girls will be paid by the Ione Lions club.

The two girls chosen are Sandra Eubanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks, and Cheryl Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Morrison. Boys which will represent the school are Gary Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan, and Bill Akers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Akers. All four students are completing their junior year at Ione.

Sandra has been active in all school affairs, with membership in the band, a cheerleader, chosen as one of two best players on an all-star school volleyball team, in student body play cast for two years, and will be president of the Girls League organization next year. She has made outstanding accomplishments in riding, was a princess in the Morrow county rodeo court last year and a princess this year at the Arlington rodeo. She has appeared all over the northwest in rodeos, winning many trophies and awards in riding competition. She spends much time in 4-H work and in her favorite pastime, riding.

Cheryl is equally active in school affairs, having had such honors as Homecoming princess in her freshman year, secretary-treasurer of the sophomore class, assistant secretary-treasurer of student body, business manager of yearbook and delegate to the press conference in Eugene. In her junior year Cheryl was vice-president of her class, secretary-treasurer of the student body, student director of the pep band and publicity director of the band, secretary of Girls League, March of Dimes princess and was crowned Valentine queen at the Sweetheart's Ball. This next year, she will serve as student body president, the first girl in the school's history to hold this office. She is worthy associate advisor of the Ione Assembly of Rainbow for Girls, and one of its charter members. Last June she attended the summer music camp at Washington State University where she held first chair in percussion in an honor band selection.

Gary Morgan has gained much popularity through his participation in athletics, work on the school annual and paper staffs, and interest in all of the student

A reception followed with Mrs. Donald Peterson in charge. Mrs. Harvey Ring poured. The students presented Mrs. O'Connor with an orchid corsage and a gift, with Susan Jane Jepsen making the presentation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Akers and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin went to Pasco last Tuesday. They visited with their sons and attended the ball game between Columbia Basin and Wenatchee Junior Colleges. It was a double-header with C.B.C. taking both games.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Stefani, Jr., are the parents of a baby son, born at Pioneer Memorial hospital on May 19. The young man weighed 8 pounds 3 ounces and was named Dennis Dean. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bergstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Art Stefani Sr., of Ione. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Hogue of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bergstrom visited in Portland and in Brookings this past week with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bergstrom.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ring and children of Pendleton visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ring during the week-end. They also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ball on Saturday.

Gus Jansen returned home on Thursday from The Dalles hospital where he has been confined due to a heart attack. His condition is improved.

Terry O'Connor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor, and Gene Rietmann were confirmed into the All Saints' Episcopal church in Heppner on Sunday, May 20.

Mrs. Bill Nichols and Mrs. Oscar Lundell held the Bingo club monthly party on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Nichols. Eleven members and one guest were present.

Following the regular business meeting of the Rebekah lodge on Thursday evening, the ladies held a work hour in preparation for their Friday election day dinner. The dinner was well attended.

Members of the community took part in a clean-up day Saturday sponsored by the IOOF at the cemetery in preparation for Memorial Day.

Entertain Michigan Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Grant of Flint, Mich., visited with Mrs. Vida Heliker last week and with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Heliker. Mr. Grant visited with the Helikers following his attendance at the National Science Fair (International) in Seattle earlier this month. Mr. Grant is the vice-president and executive director of the James A. Welch Foundation of Flint, Mich., which gives scholarships to young people all over the country.

Pete Cannon and Don Ball took their 4-H gun club to Bull Prairie for a field trip on Saturday. Also going was Bob DeSpain with his gun club. The clubs reported a good time, but the weather was cold and it snowed most of the morning. Those that remained till later in the evening, had some luck in fishing.

Club Sponsors Display
The Ione Garden club is sponsoring a spring flower display in the lobby of the Bank of Eastern Oregon in Ione during the rest of this month. Anyone with flowers to display, not necessarily club members, is asked to bring them and place them on display, complete with container, identification of owner and name of flower variety.

Plan Overnight Ride
At the last meeting of the Saddle-ites 4-H riding club, it was decided to have an overnight ride on June 23 and 24 with the Wranglers. We worked on our serapes and discussed placing the members in the different riding classes.

We met at the fair annex with Dick Struckmeier, president, in charge. Meridy Webb led the flag salute.

The next meeting will be June 10 at the home of Marlene Fetsch.

THOUGHTS OF THE FUTURE

Every man must think of his future in this age of competition and world crisis; he must plan and prepare. Your graduation is the first step, so it may be well to remember the words of Plato: "The direction in which education starts a man will determine his future life." We wish you well and urge you to further study.
