Pendleton Services Held for Pioneer

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—Funeral services were held in Pendleton Friday for William W. Hartle, Umatilla County pioneer, who died at St. Anthony's hospital May 29 after an illness of three months. He had celebrated his 89th birthday just two weeks before at the hospital.

He was born May 12, 1873 near Millerville in Cape Girardeau County, Mo., the son of Peter and Leana Hartle. He was the last survivor of 11 children. He came to Oregon in 1898, and had lived here since.

Married to Edith Chapman in Pendleton May 6, 1906, he farmed in Juniper Canyon north of Pendleton for more than 30 years, leaving there in 1933. For the past two years he had made his home with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marlow, in Boardman. Other survivors include a son, Harold of Pendleton; two daughters, Mrs. Lafa (Verlie) Smith of Weiser, Idaho; Mrs. Clarence (Zelda) Thomas of Riggins, Idaho; six grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Folsom's were in charge of the funeral, with Rev. Herman Burg, pastor of the Boardman Community church, conducting the services. Pall bearers were Luther Bittner, Woodrow Hartle, Chester Bittner, Darrell Marlow, all of Pendleton; Dean Knudson of Weston, and Harold Marlow of Talent. Burial was in Olney Cemetery.

Attending the funeral from Boardman were Mrs. Claud Coats, Mrs. Nathan Thorpe, Mrs. Cecil Hamilton, Mrs. Glen Carpenter, Mrs. Zearl Gillespie and Mrs. Lowell Shattuck.

Jody Tatone, ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tatone, was seriously injured Saturday in an accident on his father's farm east of town, and is in the Good Shepherd hospital in Hermiston suffering with a crushed hip. Further injuries have not yet been determined.

Farewell Given For Skoubo

About sixty persons attended the farewell picnic given in the city park last week for Mr. and Mrs. Edward Skoubo and children David and Janell, who have moved to Corvallis to live. They were presented with a gift by Mrs. Gunnar Skoubo. Present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Chub Warren of Pendleton, Mrs. Russell DeMauro and daughters of Umatilla and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith of Union, Mrs. Robert Wilson of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Clark of Pendleton.

Mrs. Ed Boothman entertained with a card party at her home Saturday night, with four tables of pinocle in play. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Jorgenson of Irrigon, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Crews, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bedord and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Donovan. High scores were won by Donovan and Mrs. Jorgenson, and low went to Mr. and Mrs. Bedord. The pinocle prizes were won by Mrs. Crews and Seehafer. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ferguson spent the week-end in Spokane, Wash. visiting their granddaughter, Karen Higuera, who is hospitalized there.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Downey went to Seattle, Wash. over the week-end to visit Downey's father, Earl Downey, who is in a sanitarium there.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thornhill and daughters Arla and Tina attended the graduation exercises at Wy-East school last week, where Thornhill's niece, Phyllis Jean Thornhill, was among the graduates. The Thornhill's left Saturday on a ten-day vacation trip to Prineville and Delake.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marlow and daughter Anita of Talent visited three days at the home of Marlow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marlow, being called here by the death of Mrs. Marlow's father, W. W. Hartle.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith of Union visited two days at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe.

Garden Club Sets Show

The Boardman Garden club will hold a flower show Saturday, June 9, at the home of Mrs. Glen Carpenter from one to five p. m.

Mrs. Happy Graham, Mrs. L. D. Tibbles, and Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson attended the Daughters of the Nile ceremonies in Pendleton May 26.

Mrs. Hortense Martin, Portland, is visiting this week with family and friends. She plans to return to her home this week-end.
