WELL, THE summer season is here, I guess, time for vacations and picnics. Many of the lodges, clubs, and other organizations will hold their picnics during the summer. Most popular place is Cutsforth Park which is scheduled far in advance, now if the weather will just cooperate!

I WONDER if the annual birthday party of the All Saints' Episcopal church hit an all-time record of 23 tables of bridge and pinocle in play last Saturday afternoon? The chairmen really did a job in filling the tables. This event is the anniversary of the laying of the cornerstone after the 1903 flood. The birthday theme was carried out with a cake door prize, and towels and washcloths wrapped as cakes for the high and low prizes. The dessert was a delicious pineapple fluff. Bebe Munkers won high in bridge and Gene Case was low. Ruth Van Winkle won high in pinocle and Margaret DuBuque received the low prize. The door prize went to Mrs. Hillard Brown. Hostesses were Ruth Cleveland, Happy Graham, Marie McQuarrie, Helen Schaffitz, Virginia Rosewall, Hazel Mahoney, Mary Ellen Myers, Bonnie Barrett, and Sue Valentine.

THE FRED Gimbels entertained with a dinner Friday for Vic and Doreen Kreimeyer, Portland, and Raymond and Jean Williamson. The Kreimeyers were vacationing here from their home in Portland.

THREE COUPLES journeyed to Hermiston Sunday for an afternoon of duplicate bridge play. Going were LaVerne and Laurel Van Marter, Jim and Bobbe Driscoll, Bill and Daisy Collins. Bobbe and Daisy won high north-south and LaVerne and Gus Hartzheim, Hermiston, won third north-south at the monthly unit party.

HEPPNER WILL host the Unit Charity card party at the grade school multipurpose room Sunday, June 17. All units belonging to the American Contract Bridge league sponsor once a year a party to raise money which is sent to the league. In turn it donates it to worthy charities. Anyone may join this afternoon of duplicate bridge play starting at 2:00 p. m. Winners will be entitled to master points.

ASK BILL and Shirley Blake and other senior parents on chaperoning some 42 high school graduates. More fun! Shirley said they lasted until 5:00 a. m. when the party broke up. Their home was the scene of a party after graduation Tuesday night for an all night gathering. The students enjoyed dancing and always eating! Some of the group left in the morning for fun at Lehman Springs. Others chaperoning were the Ed Dicks, Ralph Richards, Wilbur Van Bloklands, and Mrs. William Sampson. Other parents helped with furnishing the food for the party.

REMEMBER THE Elks Flag Day ceremonies at the Odd Fellows hall June 14. The ladies are invited for the ceremonies and will play cards while the men attend the meeting.

A REAL cowboy breakfast with Bob and Pat Brindle as hosts closed out the Mothers' club activities for the year. The breakfast was held Saturday morning, 8:00 a. m. at the Brindle ranch with members and their husbands enjoying a hearty breakfast of ham, hash brown potatoes, egg, sourdough biscuits, fresh rhubarb sauce, and coffee. Special guests were the Vic Kreimeyers. Meetings will resume in the fall.

MR. AND MRS. Walter Beckett celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary at their home Sunday with a family dinner. Guests were her sisters, Julie Glaesmer and Flora DesGeorge, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Beckett, Molly and Ronnie; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Buschke, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Buschke and Brett; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Buschke and Brian, and Esther Bergstrom.

SUNDAY EVENING the Gordon Hutches entertained with three tables of duplicate bridge. Terry Thompson and Gordon won high north-south. Gwen Huff and Phyllis Hutches were high east-west.

I WROTE about this recipe recently used at a shower for Marian Abrams, called Pink Ice Cream Pie. It comes to me from Mrs. N. C. (Esther) Anderson who tells me she got it out of a magazine. She says it is not hard to make, but to me it seems rather fascinating to bake ice cream.

Pink Ice Cream Pie
Color pie dough with food coloring for a pink shade, bake in 9 inch pie tin and let cool. Fill cooled shell with layer of sliced strawberries, layer of vanilla or strawberry ice cream, and layer of sliced strawberries. Place in freezer overnight. Before serving make egg white meringue spread on top and bake pie in a 400 degree oven until meringue is brown or about 10 minutes. Happy eating!

Cochell Engagement Is Announced Here
