ANOTHER WEEK gone by and the weather has warmed up considerably. Kids are going swimming, maybe fishing, and of course, playing in the evening baseball games. Time to hoe a weed or two out of the garden, visit the neighbors over the fence, and maybe, for mothers, spend an afternoon of cards with friends.

FLO CONNOR entertained two tables of pinocle at her home Wednesday night. Jackie Allstott won high and Gail Burkenbine was low. Helen Olson won the door prize and Jeanne Berry, the pinocle prize. Jackie and Jeanne teamed up in the last progression to meld 1,000 aces and went on to make a 3100 score in that progression. Some score! Others playing were Ruby Munkers, Mary Ann Power, and Marg Eckman.

MEG MURRAY took high prize Friday night at the Nine Tricks bridge club get-together at the home of Rita Wolff. Karen Thompson won second high and Marian Jonasson was low. Also in on the play were Arolene Laird, Sue Jones, Marion Abrams, Betty Gimbel, and Rita. Rita served the gals a delicious chocolate refrigerator pie. She says it's made out of candy bars and is easy to prepare. Sounds like a good recipe for the paper, huh?

THE RANDALL Martin home was the scene of the Past Noble Grands picnic Sunday. Members and their families enjoyed the sunny weather and potluck dinner at noon. The next meeting is set for June 24 at the John Bergstrom home.

TWO TABLES of bridge were in play Tuesday night with Betty Gimbel as hostess for the evening. Jean Williamson was high, Laurel VanMarter, second; and Ramona Marshall, low. Also playing were Janet Agee, Patty Prock, Helen Sherman, Rita Wolff, and Harriet Hall.

REMEMBER THE charity duplicate bridge play Sunday afternoon at the grade school multipurpose room, starting at 2:00 p. m. This is also Master point play and is open to the public.

PEARL WRIGHT entertained the Friday afternoon pinocle club at her home with two tables in play. Mary Harris won high, Pearl took low, and Carrie Beckett and Beulah Mankin paired to win the pinocle. Others playing were Millie Evans, Gladys Beckett, Doris Watkins, and Mrs. Nell Swick. Millie will host the group on Friday.

LAST WEEK was Meg Murray's week to play bridge as she walked off with two firsts, having won Wednesday night at Renegades and Friday night at Nine Tricks! Wednesday night LaFryne Pratt was hostess for the group of 12 players. Janine Johnson won second and Laurel Van Marter had low. Other guests included Inez Meador, Louise Farley, Shirley Blake, Harriet Hall, Jean Williamson, Vi Lanham, and Karen Thompson. Has Janina quit us pinocle players for bridge?

THE LAST ELKS Ladies Night until fall was played Thursday with the officers and wives hosting a potluck supper prior to the play. About 75 persons attended the supper and 13 tables were in progress during the evening. Beverly Sherman won high in pinocle and Alta Cutsforth won second. Elsie Cole won high in bridge with Elaine George winning second. Mary Ann Power took home the door prize.

FLAG DAY services will be conducted Thursday (tonight) at the Odd Fellows hall before the Elks meeting. The wives are invited to attend and will play cards following the ceremony.

LORENA JONES hosted the Fidas and Fyoudas bridge club Wednesday night. She had good luck with her to win the top prize for the evening, and Elsie Cole won second. Others making up the two tables of play were Florence Green, Alma Green, Winifred Cox, Beth Bryant, Gladys Connor, and Rachel Dick.

LAVERNE VAN MARTER accompanied Jim and Bobbe Driscoll to Hermiston Monday night for the Elks Master point play. LaVerne teamed up with Pete Hanigan, Hermiston, to win first place in the play.

THE ED DICKS entertained the duplicate bridge club last Saturday night with Ed and Bert Huff winning high; Gordon Pratt and LaVerne Van Marter, second; and Paul and Gladys Jones, third. They used the Howell movement which uses only first, second, and third placings rather than winners for each direction. Guests included the Lowell Gribbles, Dick Meadors, Conley Lanham, Gordon Pratts, Bert Huffs, LaVerne Van Marters, Dicks, and Jones.

CHERYL McGHEE was surprised with a going away party at the Dee Jones home Monday night with Ann Jones as hostess. Cheryl was presented gifts from the guests. They enjoyed games, a scavenger hunt, and refreshments during the evening. Guests were Carol Burkenbine, Rodney and Sharon Ayers, Steve Peck, Bob Hager, Mike Smith, and John Cleveland.

BOBBETTE JONES, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones, celebrated her seventh birthday last Wednesday afternoon with a group of friends in for a party. They played games and had a swan-shaped birthday cake for refreshments. Her little friends were Shelly and Kelly Wolf, Shannon Farley, Tricia Prock, Kathy McClure, Paul Nymann, Judy Pratt, Patty O'Hara, Marie Van Marter, and her brother, Steve.

STEVE JONES, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones, also had a birthday party on May 29, marking his fourth birthday. He had as guests John Prock, Paul Van Marter, and Molly Pierce. They played during the afternoon and enjoyed a giraffe-shaped cake.

BARBARA SHERMAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Sherman, was seven years old Friday and celebrated with a party during the afternoon. Her guests were Judith Bennett, Tami Meador, Beverly Phegley, Shannon Farley, Judy Pratt, Kay Munkers, Mary Abrams, Robin Nymann, Beck, Fulleton, Cindy Power, Linda Eckman, Tami Brannon, and Janice Spaulding.
