

Funeral Rites Held Here Monday For R. Wasmer

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—Funeral services were held here Monday at 10 a. m. for Rudolph (Ralph) Wasmer, 83, who died June 14 at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton, where he had been a patient for the past seven months. Services were held at St. Mary's Catholic church, with the Rev. Leopold O'Riordan, Hermiston, officiating. Soloist was Mrs. Joe Gillesse, and Mrs. Joe Pitzer was organist.

Pall bearers were Charles Anderson, Zearl Gillespie, Ralph Skoubo, Jack McEntire, Harold Baker and Mike Cassidy. Honorary bearers were Charles Dillon, Adolf Skoubo, Seth Russell, Ray Brown, Elmer Messenger, Neils Kristensen and Tom Gardner. Burial was in Riverview cemetery.

A resident of Boardman for the past 45 years, Mr. Wasmer was born in Switzerland December 27, 1878, and came to the United States as a young man. He lived in California and Florida for a time, then came to Boardman to take up a homestead when the Boardman project opened in 1917, being among the first settlers here. He has farmed here since.

Survivors are two nieces, Mrs. Robert Lerch of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Max Hurter of Milwaukee, Wis.; and two nephews, Albert Wasmer in Switzerland, and Gottfried Wasmer in Belgium.

Attending the services from out of town were Mrs. Golda Cox of Seattle, Wn., Mr. and Mrs. Chub Warren and Hugh Brown of Pendleton, and Mrs. Russell DeMauro of Umatilla. Burns Mortuary of Hermiston was in charge.

Attend La Grande Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boothman and family attended the funeral of Boothman's father, Albert Edward Boothman, 73, in La Grande Wednesday of last week, who died June 10 at St. Joseph's hospital there. He had been a resident of the La Grande area since 1916.

He was born in England June 19, 1888, and was married there October 12, 1912, at which time he came to Alberta, Canada where he lived for four years before moving to La Grande.

Survivors include his wife Margaret in La Grande; five sons, Bill and Richard of La Grande, Joseph of Portland, David of Pendleton, and Ed of Boardman; two daughters, Mrs. Virgil (Jane) Profit of Okanogan, Wn., and Mrs. Sylvan (Margaret) Thomas of Twisp, Wn.; twenty grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mrs. Carpenter Heads Club

Mrs. Glen Carpenter was installed as president of the Boardman Garden Club last week at the meeting at the home of Mrs. Nate Macomber. Mrs. Elmer Messenger was co-hostess. Installed as vice-president was Mrs. Florence Root; secretary, Mrs. Zearl Gillespie; treasurer, Mrs. Louise Earwood; Mrs. Claud Coats was installing officer.

Visitors were Mrs. Ray Cook of Bellingham, Wn., Mrs. Bernard Donovan, Mrs. Ray Conyers and Mrs. Effie Miller.

The club will have its annual family dinner at the Saddle Room of the Hinchin Post Cafe the evening of June 28. It will be a no-host affair.

Mrs. Claud Coats was hostess for the Home Economics club of Greenfield Grange at her home Wednesday of last week, starting with luncheon at 12:30 p. m. Mrs. Frank Marlow was co-hostess. Visitors were Mrs. Rollin Bishop and Beverly Donovan.

Date of the picnic in July at the home of Mrs. Nathan Thorpe was changed to July 13.

A committee was appointed to plan and be in charge of the dinner for Pomona Grange here July 28 as follows: Mrs. Guy Mars, Clyde Tannehill, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. Bernard Donovan, Myron Watts, Mrs. Claud Worden and Mrs. Frank Marlow.

Greenfield Grange met Thursday night of last week at the hall, starting with potluck supper at 6:30. Hosts were Mrs. Frank Marlow and Mrs. Arthur Allen.

The grange voted to have no business meeting in July, and will have a combined picnic with the Home Economics Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe July 15.

Tillicum Club Installs
Mrs. Ronald Black was installed as president of the Boardman Tillicum club at the meeting Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Dewey West. Mrs. George Wiese is vice president; Mrs. LaVern Partlow, recording secretary; Mrs. Vernon Russell, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Ray Gronquist, treasurer.

Mrs. West was installing officer. Visitors were Mrs. Glen Hestcock and Mrs. Fran Walker.

The club has been presented with a certificate for complete participation in the uterine cancer program.

The princess dance for Irene Potts of the Morrow County Fair court was discussed. It will be held in Heppner the latter part of July.

The club is planning an excursion to Walla Walla to tour the Washington State prison some time this summer.

During the summer only one meeting a month will be held, and the next will be at the home of Mrs. Zoe Billings July 10.

Maxine Sicard spent last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sicard, from Eugene, where she is doing research work this summer under Dr. Paul Risley at the University of Oregon. She is also doing assistant teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey West went to Portland last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. West's aunt, Mrs. Cora Stewart, 83, who died there June 8.

Dewena West, Elberta Carpenter, Anna Mae McQuaw and Kerry Daniels attended the 4-H summer school in Corvallis last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Zearl Gillespie and Mrs. Claud Coats went to Portland Thursday evening of last week to attend graduation exercises at the University of Oregon Dental College. Their nephew, Gene Stott, was among the graduates.

Mrs. Alvin Deulen and sons Bob, Neil and Allen of Oakesdale, Wn., are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ervin Flock, while Deulen is employed in the Milton-Freewater area.

Mrs. Gobla Cox of Seattle, Wn., is visiting at the homes of her brothers-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Coats, and Mr. and Mrs. Zearl Gillespie.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Beeks of Arlington were Sunday visitors at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey West.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe and Mrs. Earl Bugges left Sunday for Granis Pass where they will attend the session of the Oregon State Grange this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boothman and children Eddie, Mary and Roger left Friday to spend the week-end in Rock Creek, B. C. They will also visit Mrs. Boothman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Irwin, at Colville, Wn.

Mrs. Frank Marlow spent the week-end in Walla Walla, Wn., visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ernest Zerba.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely and daughter, Eileen went to La Grande Sunday to visit at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Lilly. Eileen remained there to visit this week. Renee, Ricky and Rena Ely of Hermiston, who are visiting at the Ely home this week, accompanied them.

ENSIGN JAMES H. HAYES, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Hayes of Heppner, has his naval aviator "Wings of Gold" pinned on by Commander W. G. Stearns, Jr. (left), commanding officer of Helicopter Training Squadron Eight at Elyson Field Auxiliary Landing Field in Pensacola, Fla. His designation as a naval aviator and helicopter pilot was made when he successfully completed the Naval Air Training Command's flight training program, May 18.

Ione Garden Club Hears Project Reports

IONE—The Ione Garden club met at the home of Mrs. Anna Lindstrom on June 12 with Mrs. Edith Nicholson as co-hostess. The hospital visiting committee reported that 12 corsages had been made and presented to the patients in the nursing home on Mother's Day.

The tree planting committee reported $319.50 in the fund which will be used toward further plantings in Ione as soon as new water pipes are laid.

Jane Rawlins reported on the organization of a Junior Garden club within the Sew Along 4-H club. This new club project is sponsored by the Ione Garden club. To qualify, the members have five projects from which they may select. These include growing five kinds of flowers in rows; one kind of flower in plot 10'x10'; six house plants of three different kinds; combination of the above projects and to prepare and properly care for soil.

The next meeting will be July

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Meador and family returned last week from the Seattle World's Fair.

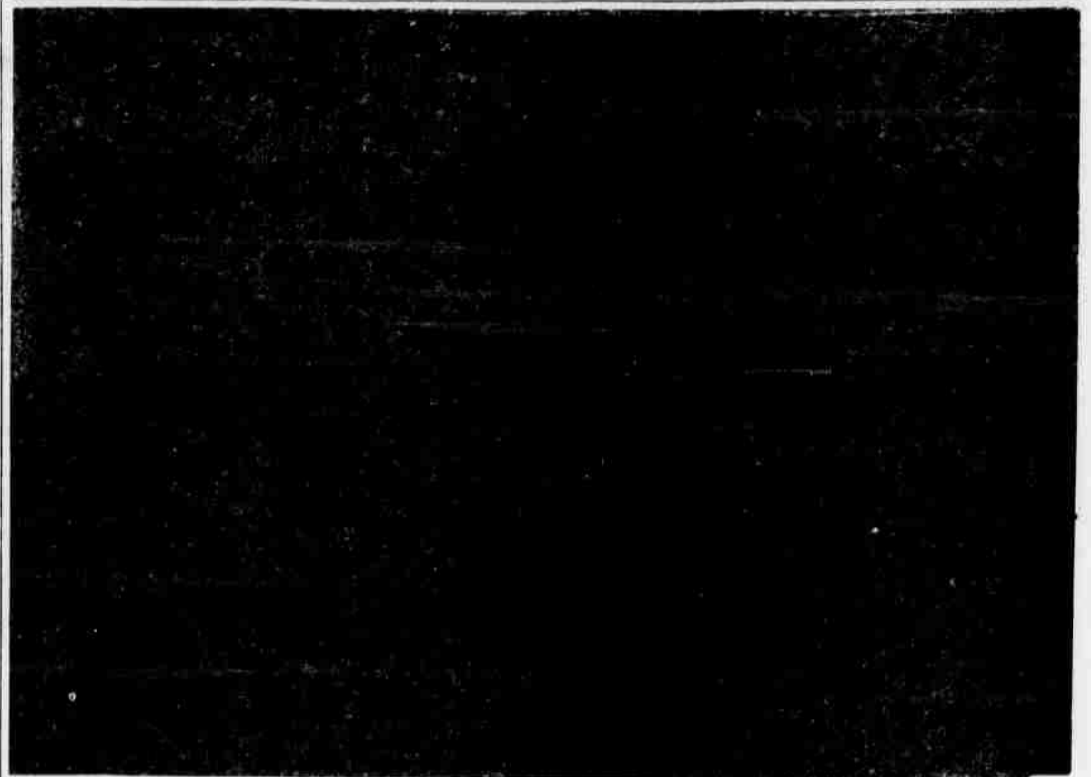

10 at the home of Mrs. Fred Hermann with Mrs. Fannie Griffith as co-hostess. Important business will include installation of new officers.

Mrs. Gay Harshman, Ketchikan, Alaska, left Portland June 16 for her home after a week's stay with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harshman. She was accompanied home by her two sons who had spent several months with the Everett Harshmans.

Mrs. Howard Bryant, Mrs. Roy Quackenbush, Mrs. C. C. Carmichael, and Mrs. J. R. Huffman were guests at the Condon Eastern Star installation of officers Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Harris returned home Saturday from Pocatello, Idaho. They were called there by the death of her father, Ira Hays. His funeral was Friday.

SHOWN HERE is photo of what is left of a growing grain crop after it is struck by fire. It's what your bank account may look like, too, if you are not covered by an inexpensive fire insurance policy. The cost is little, the protection great when you insure against fire. Get your protection now from C. A. RUGGLES INSURANCE AGENCY, Ph. 676-9625

Beat Summer Heat And Humidity With An ELECTRIC AIR CONDITIONER

so COOL!

so QUIET!

so CLEAN!

HEALTHY, too!

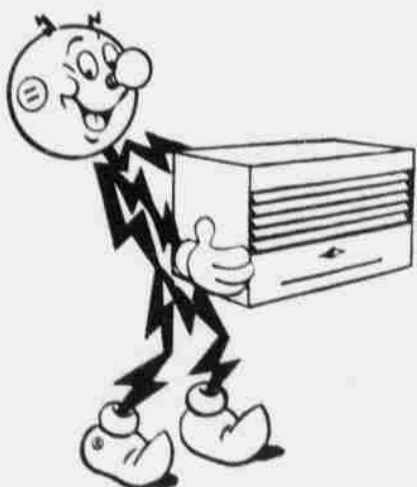

REMEMINDER!

Isn't there some one you should call? A visit back home—or just keeping in touch with folks you miss.

CALL TONIGHT!

PACIFIC NORTHWEST BELL

AIR CONDITION YOUR HOME NOW!

No need to be stifled and sticky during hot or humid weather. With a modern electric air conditioner—in your bedroom, living room or wherever you need it most—you'll feel comfortably cool on the hottest days... sleep soundly on the warmest nights!

An electric air conditioner saves housework, too, by filtering and removing excess moisture and dust from the air—quietly! And there's a size and type for every need, easily installed, economical to operate. See your appliance dealer for your electric air conditioner, today!

Pacific Power & Light • You Live Better...Electrically!

