

Couple Is Greeted At Reception June 11 At B. Clark Home

A reception was held at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark Monday evening, June 11, in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Clark. Mrs. Clark is the former Kathleen Spencer, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. C. Bruce Spencer.

The couple was united in marriage May 19 in Beaverton and recently returned home from Oregon State University, where both attended the past year.

The serving table was attractively decorated in pink and white, centered by a three-tier wedding cake on a handmade lace tablecloth. Pouring were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. M. C. Moynihan of Toledo, and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Raymond Wright, Heppner. The cake was baked and served by Mrs. Harold Wright. Mrs. Elmer Palmer served the ice cream. Helping about the rooms were Miss Nonda Clark, Mrs. Alfred Lovgren and Mrs. Walter Wright.

About 40 relatives and friends called during the evening. Out-of-town guests included Frank Crow, Jr., Seattle, Wn.; Rev. and Mrs. M. C. Moynihan, Toledo; Mrs. Don Anderson, Arlington, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl McKinney and Alan of Echo.

Recital To Present Piano Students Of Virginia C. Turner

Piano pupils of Mrs. Virginia Crawford Turner and a guest artist, Karen Lundell of Ione, will be heard in public recital Sunday, June 24, at 4 p. m. at the First Christian church.

Students taking part will be Gail Battly, Susan Chally, Susan Drake, Charlene Knox, Susan Lindstrom, Cheryl Lundell, Sara Miller, Lee O'Connor, Terry O'Connor, Paula Siewert, Jean Siewert, Judy Smith, Jean Stockard and Ginny Lou Turner. They will be heard in a variety of piano solos and duets. One student, Jean Stockard, will be heard in an organ solo, "The Lord's Prayer."

Climaxing the recital will be two advanced piano numbers, "Sonata Eroica in G Minor, Op. 50" by MacDowell, and "Humoresque Op. 10, No. 5" by Rachmaninoff, by Karen Lundell, guest soloist. Miss Lundell is a music major at the University of Oregon, and has been heard in recitals there this spring. The public is encouraged to attend the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McClure were in Eugene see the NCAA track meet over the week-end.

San Souci Adjourns Until Fall Meeting

Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 met June 1 with 31 members present to hear reports of delegates to assembly sessions held in Medford in May. Mrs. Betty Rood and Mrs. Altha Kirk gave complete coverage of the business and highlights of the grand lodge convention.

Mrs. Kirk, district deputy president, was heard in her duties by giving the unwritten work. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Iris Van Houte and Mrs. Rood.

On June 15 the meeting was devoted to business necessary before taking recess for the next two months. The lodge will reconvene in September.

Alice Luttrell was the first member to qualify for a seal of the current assembly president, Selma Watkins of Wasco. Mrs. Mattie Green was appointed by Noble Grand Jane Payne to serve as lodge community service chairman for the coming year.

Several members were welcomed back that had not been present for some time. Lena Kelly, who had served as secretary for several years, was present.

Mrs. Kirk and Mrs. Elsie Ayers served strawberry shortcake in honor of those having birthdays in April, May and June.

Little Friends Gather For Third Birthday

Patti Lott, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randy Lott, shared her "happy birthday" celebration Tuesday afternoon with some of her little friends and their mothers.

Present for the excitement of games, gifts and refreshments were Laurie McCabe, Mary Ann and Stevie Wolfington, Patti Kay Saling, and her brother, Mike. They were accompanied by their mothers. Birthday cake and ice cream followed games on the lawn.

Local Couple Sets July Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Case announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Shirley May, to Arthur Burkenbine on Sunday, July 1. Vows will be exchanged at All Saints' Episcopal church at 5:30 p. m.

Friends, relatives and families of the couple are extended an invitation to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones attended the NCAA track meet in Eugene over the week-end and visited her mother, Mrs. Delmer Fellers.

NEWLYWEDS MR. AND MRS. JOE PRIVETT now make their home in Blackfoot, Idaho, following their marriage June 1.

Heppner Man Married To Lucille Chavez In Idaho Ceremony

Joe Privett, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Privett, and Lucille Lucero Chavez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lucero, Trinidad, Colo., were united in marriage Friday, June 1 in Blackfoot, Ida. Judge Doris C. Herbert read the double ring ceremony.

For her wedding the bride chose a white embossed cotton sheath dress with lavender accessories. Her corsage was of silver tipped white and lavender carnations. For something borrowed, she wore a triangle mantilla of white lace, and something old was a pair of blue-white diamond teardrop earrings, a family heirloom.

Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Burrage, Blackfoot, Idaho.

The groom graduated from Heppner High school with the class of 1956 and joined the U. S. Navy in December, 1958. He is presently stationed at the national reactor testing station, U. S. Atomic Energy Commission reservation, near Idaho Falls, Idaho, as an instructor.

The bride attended Trinidad High school and took nurses' training in Trinidad, Colo. She was employed at the hospital in Idaho Falls.

Following a short wedding trip to Eastern Oregon and a visit with the groom's parents, they are now at home at 38 Cone St., Blackfoot.

Visiting over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Privett were Mr. and Mrs. Alan Brown from Ukiah. They brought their children, Mark and LeAnn, over to stay a week with Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. Leon Taber, and attend Vacation Bible school at the Christian church. They returned home Sunday afternoon, taking little Keith Taber with them to stay for a week. The family enjoyed a picnic on Willow Creek Sunday afternoon. Miss Sharon Ayers was also a guest.

Mrs. Neal Knighten of Kennewick, Wn., was in Heppner Friday and Saturday visiting her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Neill. Mrs. Knighten who lived in the Hardman area much of her life, went to Walla Walla in 1943 and then to Kennewick in 1947.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Young and family covered 4500 miles on their recent vacation trip to Missouri, returning late last Thursday. At Maryville, Mo., they visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Young, and her mother, Mrs. Carl Kissinger. On the return trip they visited Mrs. Young's uncle at Logan, Mont. Among the enjoyable stops, too, was that at Yellowstone park.

34 Club Members Represent County At Summer School

A total of 1720 4-H young people returned to their homes Saturday evening after four days of classes at 4-H summer school at Oregon State University. Morrow county was represented by 34 club members.

While at OSU they attended morning classes in home economics, agriculture, forestry, career study, leadership, camp counselling, communications and creative arts. Afternoons they heard from a number of inspirational speakers including Gov. Mark Hatfield, OSU president James Jensen, Mrs. W. L. Van Loan, Coos Bay, State Police Sgt. W. J. Colbert, Newport, and Winston Benson, Eugene. Penny Jones and David Proudfoot were elected Morrow county's representatives at the 4-H school.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Mike Whitesmith and family from Sunday through Wednesday was Mrs. Whitesmith's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Erdahl, and family of Bellingham, Wn. They are on a vacation trip. On Monday the group enjoyed a picnic at Cutsforth park, and the men fished. Mr. Erdahl caught a nice trout, but Mr. Whitesmith ruefully admits that he was "skunked."

Giants Take Close Win Over Indians For League Top

In an exciting and tense 8-inning Little League baseball game the Giants came through with the winning runs to take the game 4-2 and lead the league in the second half of play with two wins and no losses. The Braves and Indians are tier for second spot each with a one and one record. The Dodgers have two losses.

Last Wednesday the Indians bunched 13 runs together in the first three innings to beat the Dodgers 13-3. The Dodgers picked up a run in the third on a homerun by Frank Unrein and got two more runs in the sixth. Russell Kilkenny and Jim Swanson teamed up on the mound for the Indians and Tim Loyd and Jon O'Donnell pitched for the Dodgers.

The Giants came back in the bottom of the fifth after trailing the Braves 5-3 to go ahead on a 10 run rally. The Braves picked up two more runs in the sixth but not enough to overcome the Giant lead, losing 13-7. Kent Pratt started on the mound for the Braves with Larry and Steve Pettyjohn, and Kevan Pratt coming in for relief. Dennis O'Donnell went the distance for the Giants.

The game Monday night was the closest pitching duel of any L. L. games so far this year. The Giants led off with two runs in the top of the first inning on a homerun by Roger Leonnig. The Indians bounced back in the bottom of the third with two runs as Jeff Turner and Chris Lovgren came home on wild pitches. The score remained tied at the end of six complete innings and went into two extra innings. The Giants came through with another homerun by Leonnig, then Rick Johnston got on when hit by a pitched ball and stole home from third. The Indians could not get anything going in the bottom of the eighth and lost to the Giants 4-2. Dennis O'Donnell and Leonnig pitched for the Giants and the Indians used Russell Kilkenny and Jeff Turner.

The Braves took their first win of the second half of play by downing the Dodgers 26-14. Neither team could score in the first but the Braves put across three runs in the second. The Dodgers not to be outdone bounced back with seven runs in the bottom of the second. Four of the runs were scored on a grand slam homer by Mike Smith. The Braves got going in the next three innings to score 23 runs while the Dodgers scored 7 more. Larry and Steve Pettyjohn pitched for the winners and Kip Scrivner and John McCabe
