Capacity Crowd On Hand May 30 For Reunion Day

Plans for the 1963 Pioneer Memorial Day picnic were soon under discussion after the successful completion of this year's activities May 30 at the county fair pavilion.

The nearly 240 guests attending the dinner and day's activities renewed old acquaintances and made many new ones, parting with every good intention of being present again next year. Organizations and individuals worked together to make the day a success, under Leta Humphreys, chairman, and Mrs. Fay Ferguson, secretary. Over The Tee Cup

By DEE GRIBBLE

On Tuesday 14 "fun in the sun" lovin' gals played an interesting nine holes of golf. We had as guest players Cora Mae Ferguson and her daughter, Mary Lou Kelley, who are here on vacation from sunny California. We had water holes where there shouldn't be, a good many trouble spots and several were determined to play in the "rough."

In spite of all the troubles, Mary Lou won a golf ball for most putts, and that took some doing, as all had 15 putts or more. Helen Schaffitz and I tied for low, and that darn ol' coin had two heads 'cause I lost again.

Lessons are beginning to pay off, as all our regular players are now playing in the low 40's. Poor Kay Robinson. Hear she got a "birdie," feathers and all. Also Creston was trying to play snake charmer, but he lost his charm in short order. Always thought I'd not care if I hit one far enough to lose it, but I do.

Coffee and doughnuts were enjoyed by Mary Lou, Cora Mae, Marie McQuarrie, Jan Agee, Helen S., Bebe Munkers, Donna McCurdy, Hester Creswick, Kay R., Corkie Norene, Joyce Ward, Nadine O'Brien, LaFyrne Pratt and myself.

Sunday there were many golfers on the course, but feel sure none enjoyed the game more than Hester—she had her first 38 and it's a grand feeling.

Passing thought on the humble game of golf: "Golf is a lot of walking, broken up by disappointment and bad arithmetic."

Don't forget we travel to Kinzua Sunday, June 24. Breakfast at 7:30 and tee-off at 8:30. Let's go!

Summer Schedules Are Set by Churches

The Ione Community church has been on the early schedule this month, according to the Rev. Rod MacKenzie.

Rev. Melvin Dixon, pastor, announces the early worship hour, will start Sunday, July 1, at the Methodist church at 8:30 a.m. and church school at 9:45. He has called his first official board meeting for Monday, June 25, at 8 p.m. at the church.

Methodist School Has Good Turnout

Fifty-three children are enrolled in the Methodist Daily Vacation Bible school this week, and attendance has been near perfect each day. Mrs. Douglas Drake, Church School superintendent, announces.
