Lone Lions Club to Install Officers At Social Affair Saturday Night

By LORRAINE BALL

IONE—The Lone Lions club will hold its annual installation of new officers and ladies night on Saturday, June 23, starting at 6:30 p. m. at the Heppner fair pavilion.

Location of this affair had previously been set at the Heppner Legion hall, but due to previous commitment, the place has been changed.

Out-of-town guests are expected from clubs in The Dalles, Pendleton, La Grande, Milton-Freewater and Umatilla.

Gene Rietmann's Combo will furnish music for the dance following dinner and installation.

Tommy Melina of Hermiston held the winning raffle ticket for the TV set given away at the Legion Dance at Ione on Saturday night. Door prize consisting of a movie camera was won by Hank Pointer of Lexington. The Lions announces that the drawing was a huge success with all tickets being sold, netting them a profit of $730.

Mrs. Marion Palmer and Mrs. Lee Palmer hosted the Home Economics club at the Palmer mountain cabin on Thursday of last week.

Pierce Family In Accident

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pierce and daughter were involved in a car accident on Sunday on their return trip to Redmond from Ione. Wayne received a broken hand, slight cuts and abrasions and Kay was thought to have some broken ribs with slight cuts also. The baby was in shock for a few minutes, but was apparently all right. X-rays were to be taken on Monday of this week. They were following the car of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Connor, newlyweds of Heppner, when a car towing a new car sideswiped the Pierce car near Shaniko. The Connor car was not involved in the accident, but took the Pierces on to Redmond. The Pierce car is believed to be a total wreck.

Lee Hams of the U. S. Navy is spending a 10-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vester Hams. He has completed his basic training and expects to be shipped overseas in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan and family and Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks attended the Morgan reunion held at The Dalles during the week-end.

Sandra Eubanks, Tass Morrison, Bill Akers and Gary Morgan returned home this week-end following a week of activities at Girls' State and Boys' State in Salem and Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson and children and Sharon Crabtree took a trip to Seattle recently for a tour of the World's Fair. Mr. Nelson returned Thursday, while the rest of the family went to Portland and Salem to visit friends and relatives.

Swimming Lessons Begun

Joe Hausler, life guard and swimming instructor announces lessons will be held for beginners and advanced students. Classes will continue through next week and any one who wishes may have these lessons. If you have a season ticket no charge will be made for the lessons. Without a ticket, a charge of 15c per lesson will be charged. Further information may be had by calling Mr. Hausler, 422-7400 or by coming to the pool at 10:00 a.m. each morning except Monday. Assignment to classes will be made then.

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hershaw Townsend included Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pertsch of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reid and Jerry of Bend and Mr. and Mrs. Russell McKnight of Vancouver, Wn. They were here for the Townsend-Pertsch wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cropp and son Marvin visited in Ione during the week-end with relatives. They are soon to move from their home in Smelterville, Idaho, due to health reasons.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Jansen of Vancouver, Wn., have moved into one of his father's houses on second street. Gus will move into the house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gaarsland while they in turn are moving to the Hartfield place near the Ray Heimbigner home.

Couple Wed In Pasco

Janet Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer of Lexington and Ronald Crabtree, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree, Ione, were united in marriage on June 10 at Pasco, Wn. Attendants for the couple were her sister Carol Ann Palmer and Jerry Davidson. Others attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McCabe, Ashley and Kevin, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer and son Mike.

The families held a picnic dinner at Sacajawea Park following the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Christopherson and daughters of Olex visited Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ball.

Mrs. Virginia George and family and Mrs. Clifford Aldrich and girls were among the visitors at Hat Rock on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crawford, Mrs. Milton Morgan and Marilyn, Mrs. Wate Crawford and Rollo Crawford attended graduation exercises in La Grande recently for Janice Crawford, daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. Vernice Crawford of Helix. College students that have been arriving home recently include Bob Rice, Marilyn Morgan, Melvin and Jean Martin, Karen Lundell, Linda Heimbigner, Jack Crum, John Swanson, Tom Martin, Evelyn Jepsen, Skip Emert, Ken Smouse, Harold Rietmann and Bob Akers. ### Program Completes Bible School Week

IONE—The week of vacation Bible school classes was climaxed with a program presented by the children and teachers on Friday evening at the Ione Community church.

Teresa Tucker of the upper junior class gave the Call to Worship.

Mrs. Bill Rietmann showed a drawing of a slide projector, with different colors representing each class' donations during the week. The money goes into a fund to help purchase a slide projector for the church and church school use. She also made the announcement concerning the attendance for the week and presented each teacher and their class. Teachers giving of their time for the week included: Mrs. Joe Hausler assisted by Ruth Benson, Kathy and Betty Hausler, helpers; Mrs. Nancy Ekstrom assisted by Mrs. Evelyn Krebs; Mrs. Dorothy Smith assisted by Linda Halvorsen and Jean Martin and Mrs. Fredrick Martin assisted by Rev. Rod MacKenzie.

Mrs. Martin and Rev. MacKenzie presented a filmstrip, "Palestine in Jesus' Day," showing the living conditions and ways of life then. It carried out the theme of the studies of the church school during the week. The program was concluded with group singing. Rev. Mac-
