Couple Exchanges Vows In Ceremony June 17

Miss Shirley Nash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Nash, became the bride of Melvin Dean Connor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Connor, in an afternoon ceremony Sunday, June 17, at the First Methodist church. The Rev. Melvin Dixon performed the double ring ceremony before a setting of lavender stock, white chrysanthemums and baby breath in tall standards, flanked by tapers in candelabra. Altar vases held floral arrangements in lavender and white.

Escorted on the arm of her father, the bride was lovely in a white lace over satin ballerina length gown, fashioned with scoop neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and scalloped hemline. Her shoulder length veil fell from a lace and pearl headband and she carried a white orchid with green ivy on a pearl and lace covered white Bible. The Bible was a gift of Mrs. John Bergstrom. In the bride's shoe was a penny of the year of her birth, and she wore a lavender garter made by Mrs. Bill Farra. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. The groom's accessories included a pair of pearl cuff links, a gift of the bride.

Maid of honor was Miss Rose Nash, sister of the bride, and bridesmaid was Mrs. Lee Palmer, also sister of the bride. The honor attendants wore lavender brocade satin sheaths with chiffon net overskirts and matching beaded hats. They carried white lace fans with small lavender orchids.

Nelson Connor was the groom's best man and Morgan Connor was the attendant. Both are brothers of the groom.

Ushers were Keith Connor, brother of the groom, and Lyle Jensen, brother of the bride, who also lighted the tapers before the ceremony.

Soloist was Gordon Pratt and the organist was Mrs. Fred Gimbel. Mr. Pratt sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Nash wore a white and beige-trimmed sheath dress with beige accessories. Mrs. Connor, mother of the groom, chose a beige suit with white accessories.

The reception was held in the church social rooms with floral arrangements on the bride's table and the gift table carrying out the lavender and white theme.

The four-tier wedding cake was white with lavender bells between the tiers, topped by three white satin bells and flanked by tapers in crystal candelabra holding small white and lavender chrysanthemums. After the bride and groom cut the first piece, the cake was served by Mrs. Walter Josewski, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Johnny Williams, sister of the groom. Mrs. Elmer Springer, aunt of the bride, poured and Mrs. Robert Campbell, aunt of the groom, served the punch.

Assisting with the reception were Mrs. William Johnson, Mrs. Earle Bryant, Mrs. Howard Bryant, Mrs. Bill Farra and Theta Stratton.

At the gift table was Mrs. Lyle Jensen, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Ernest Drake, sister of the groom.

Mrs. Wesley Marlatt took charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride chose an aqua embroidered sheath dress with white accessories and she wore her orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple took a week's wedding trip to southern California where they visited Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm and other places of interest.

The couple is now at home in Heppner. The new Mrs. Connor is employed at Peterson's Jewelers and the groom is employed with Kinzua Corp.

D.; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nogowski and family, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Springer, Effie Nash, Mr. and Mrs. C. H.
