Legion Fireworks Display Set At Ione Grounds Saturday Eve

By LORRAINE BALL

IONE—The Ione Post, American Legion, is sponsoring the annual fireworks display Saturday night at the high school Memorial field. The date was advanced to June 30 because many families have outings planned for the day and evening of July 4. The display will start at 9 p.m., with a dance following at the Legion hall.

The Bingo club met at the home of Mrs. Ida Coleman last Wednesday with Mrs. Vida Heliker and Mrs. Ida Esteb as co-hostesses. Mrs. Omar Rietmann was a guest.

The three month birthday party for April, May and June birthdays was held at the Rebekah hall on Thursday evening following the regular business meeting. Birthday guests included Mrs. Mary Swanson, Mrs. Ida Coleman, Mrs. Anna Lindstrom, Mrs. Elaine Rietmann, Mrs. Kathryn Thorne and Mrs. Gladys Drake. Committee for the evening included Mrs. David Rietmann, Mrs. Walter Roberts, Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Mrs. Milton Morgan and Mrs. Wallace Matthews. A birthday gift was to be sent to Mrs. Adon Hamlett who is still confined to the hospital in California.

Mrs. Lena Lundell and Mrs. Gladys Drake were co-hostesses for the Three Links club on Friday at the home of Mrs. Lundell. Twelve members were present. Games were played and Mrs. David Rietmann received the door prize. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ida Coleman in July.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann, son Harold, and Davie Glock visited with relatives in Walla Walla, Wn., on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Drake and family of Tillamook visited with his parents during the week-end. They were in Heppner to attend the wedding of her brother.

Mrs. Ray Turner and sons of Salem are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Drake this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer and family and Mrs. Cleo Drake, Bob Drake and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Palmer were among the Ionians attending the Nash-Connor wedding in Heppner June 17.

Martins Visit In Valley

Jean Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Martin, underwent major surgery on her tongue last Monday at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. She was released on Saturday and is staying with her aunt, Mrs. Marie Martin and grandfather, A. T. Martin at West Linn, returning to Ione later this week. Mr. and Mrs. Martin were with her on Monday. Mrs. Martin attended a State Federation of Garden clubs meeting at the Marion Motor Hotel in Salem during the week and one in relation to Camp Adams. She visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Horton and also with her son Melvin who is employed in Irrigation research for the Agriculture Department this summer.

Fredrick Martin and son Ralph joined Mrs. Martin, Melvin and other members of the family on Sunday at West Linn for a reunion of the Marshall family. Over 100 relatives were in attendance.

Ellis Ball of the U. S. Air Force is spending a medical leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ball. He is convalescing from recent knee surgery at the Fairchild Air Force Base hospital in Spokane.

Fire Damages Crum Property

The Ione fire department was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Peterson near the Ralph Crum ranch to help put out a grass fire which burned small out buildings and fence near the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peterson. The fire was thought extinguished following the burning of rubbish and grass but later ignited again, causing considerable alarm due to dry conditions.

Jack Crum recently had his tonsils removed at the Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner. He is home, but reported improving slowly.

Ione on Friday, after visiting in Idaho and Washington towns with relatives for the past four weeks.

Mrs. Marton Palmer hosted a coffee hour in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Cecil Thorne last Thursday at her country home. Guests present included Mrs. Gary Tullis, Mrs. Fred Herman, Mrs. Ciell Rea, Mrs. Harold Sherer, Mrs. Dick Sherer, Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn Jr., Mrs. Dale Ray, Mrs. Milton Morgan and Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn and daughters.
