NOT MUCH brewing in the way of social activities now other than picnics and other such out-of-doors activities. The Lutheran churches held their annual picnic at Cutsforth Park last Sunday. Also on Sunday was the Elks picnic at Bull Prairie. But there were a few card parties throughout the week, just to keep everyone interested in the games during the summer!

JO THOMSON, Portland, who had visited here the past two weeks, was honored with a luncheon and get-together with friends Thursday afternoon. Kay Anderson and Cork Norene were co-hostesses at the Norene home. Guests were Jo's mother, Gene Case, Janetelle Turner, Ruth Cleveland and Laurel Van Marter.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE was in play again Tuesday night at the Episcopal parish hall. Next play will be Tuesday, July 10, and all bridge players are invited to join the fun. High north-south went to Elsie Cole and Daisy

Collins; second, Gordon Hutchens and Isabelle Davis of Condon; and third, Gordon Pratt and Jerald Jonasson. High east-west were Rita Wolff and LaFyrne Pratt; second, Shirley Blake and LaVerne Van Marter; and third, Dr. Wallace Wolff and Bill Collins.

OH YES, before I forget, it seems I got LaFyrne and LaVerne mixed up, those names really do sound alike over the phone! Anyhow in last week's story Gordon Pratt and LaVerne Van Marter were the lucky winners in Hermiston. LaFyrne said, "I had a lucky week myself last week but I didn't go to Hermiston."

CARRIE BECKETT entertained the Friday afternoon pinocle club at her house last week. Millie Evans took the high and Gladys Beckett won low. Carrie teamed up with Pearl Wright to win the pinocle. Others playing were Janina Johnson, Mary Harris, Beulah Mankin, and Hazel Hamlin.

SPEAKING OF LaFyrne Pratt, she won high Wednesday night when Janina Johnson had three tables of bridge in play. Laurel Van Marter was second, and Karen Thompson won low. Also making up the play were Marian Jonasson, Mary McClure, Rita Wolff, Patty Prock, Marian Abrams, Jan Agee, June Spencer, and Arolene Laird.

MONDAY, HAZEL Hamlin had a luncheon pinocle party at their mountain cabin at Parker's Mill for eight ladies. They enjoyed a delicious luncheon. I hear Hazel is a wonderful cook, and then they played pinocle during the afternoon. Beulah Mankin won high, Carrie Beckett won low and with Hazel won the pinocle prize. Also on the outing were Gladys Beckett, Pearl Wright, Mary Harris, Doris Watkins, and Millie Evans.

TOO HOT to fix hot meals? Try cold cuts and salads for lunch. A neat trick to make the tossed salad a little crispier: just before adding the dressing and serving, place in the freezer for 10 or 15 minutes. Another cold treat on hot days, make your own floats, using any soft drink and add ice cream. The whole family will go for this treat. How about some easy quick-fix summer meals. Dig in your recipe file and send me your favorite.

Several Attend OES Pendleton Meeting

Mrs. Sam Miller was guest soloist at the Pendleton Order of Eastern Star installation of officers Saturday night. Accompanying her at the piano was Mrs. C. C. Carmichael. Others going from here were Mrs. Dean Hunt, Mrs. L. D. Tibbles, Mrs. J. R. Huffman, Mrs. Howard Bryant, Mrs. Roy Quackenbush, Mrs. Tom Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Becket, Mr. and Mrs. Don Turner, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Engelman, San Diego, Calif., Mrs. Miller's parents, and her daughter, Sara.

National FHA Convention Calls Two From Heppner

Ann Jones, state president of the Oregon Future Homemakers of America, and her adviser, Mrs. E. H. Schmidt, will be among the Oregon delegation attending the national convention at Salt Lake City, Utah, between July 9 and 12. Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Jones, Jr., and a senior at Heppner High school next year.

It is expected that about 800 purposeful teenagers will be present for the four-day session at the Hotel Utah Motor lodge, working together toward new national objectives which they are adopting for the next three-year period.

Delegates will come from all states, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands to represent the 521,000 members of this high school organization for students studying home economics. They will be accompanied by 200 adult advisers who are state staff members or local home economics teachers.

The theme chosen for the convention is "Guideposts for Progress."

During the week such outstanding speakers as Asst. Secretary of Labor Esther Peterson; Dr. Blaine M. Porter, chairman of the Dept. of Human Development and Family Relations at Brigham Young University; Mrs. Buena Mockmore Stelmets, president-elect of the Oregon Home Economics Assoc. from Portland; Dr. Calvin H. Reed, professor of education at the University of Nevada; Dr. Charlyne R. King of the University of Oklahoma, and national FHA and state advisers will give addresses, preside over discussions and direct plans for the convention.

Twenty delegates from Oregon, with four advisers and Miss Bertha Kohlhaas, Salem, director of Home Economics in the state department of education, will travel to Salt Lake City. In addition to the state delegates, the National Treasurer Miss Mary Speckhart, and her adviser, Mrs. Helen Becker of La Grande, will participate.

Ann was elected state president at the state convention in Corvallis in March, and after returning from the national convention will meet with other state officers before the beginning of school.

Bride-Elect Honored At Shower Thursday

Judy Coehell, bride-elect of Richard Paine, was honored at a miscellaneous bridal shower given Thursday evening at the Methodist church basement.

Her pink and white color theme was carried out with the decorations about the room. A white lace tablecloth over a pink cloth was used on the serving table with a centerpiece of baby breath, pink rosebuds, and pink and white daisies.

Assisting Judy with her gifts were Sandra Jones, Bernice Thomson, and Connie Anderson. Sandra gave a humorous reading and Pam Coehell and Ginny Lou Turner sang a duet. Ginny Lou also played a piano solo. Mrs. Dick Wilkinson, Judy's mother and Mrs. Frank Wilkinson poured. The hostesses served strawberry Bavarian with coffee and punch.

Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. L. D. Tibbles, Mrs. Howard Bryant, Mrs. Floyd Worden, Mrs. Roy Quackenbush, and Mrs. Jim Thomson.

Couple Is Honored At Wedding Shower

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Clark, recently married at Beaverton, were honored with a wedding shower Saturday evening at the Rhea Creek Grange hall.

Susan Drake and Gail Batty played a piano duet and several piano selections, after which Mr. and Mrs. Clark opened their many lovely gifts.

Delicious refreshments were served to over 50 grange members and friends attending.

OES Officers Added To Installed Staff

Among the list of new officers installed by Ruth Chapter No. 32, Order of Eastern Star at ceremonies June 25, were Mrs. Charles Stone, conductress; Mrs. Howard Bryant, associate conductress, and Mrs. Don Turner, Ruth. These are in addition to those announced in an installation story last week, Mrs. Dean Hunt, worthy matron, reports.

Serving with others on the refreshment committee was Mrs. Wava Wilkinson.

Housewarming To Honor Elmer Palmers

There will be a housewarming party for Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Palmer in their new country home Saturday evening, July 7 at 7:30 p. m.

All members of the Rhea Creek Grange and their friends are extended an invitation.

Bud Marshall drove to Boring Saturday after his daughter, Mona, who had spent a week with the Archie Padberg family.

Visiting last week at the L. E. Ruhl home were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bundy, daughter Marie, Redondo Beach, Calif., James Pointer, Yakima, Wn., and Mrs. Gene Gray and daughter Florence, Hermiston.

Two Attend State Legion Conclave

Mrs. Frank Hamlin, Heppner, American Legion auxiliary president, and Mrs. Riley Munkers, auxiliary historian, returned last week from the 4-day meet of the state American Legion and auxiliary convention in Seaside June 20 through June 23.

They were most enthusiastic about the talk given by Charles Bacon, national commander of the American Legion. He said the Legion must devote more thought to the struggle against communism. He recently returned from a trip to Europe. He gave some of his opinions on national and international affairs as he spoke before joint sessions of the Legion and Auxiliary.

The delegates heard Mrs. Aloys A. Hof, Jerome, Idaho, national vice president of the Western division, which is composed of the 10 western states including Alaska and Hawaii.

Mrs. Jack Larson, Springfield, was installed president of the Oregon American Legion auxiliary.

The convention chose 50 delegates to represent Oregon at the national American convention in Las Vegas October 3-11. Mrs. Pearl Funk, past district 6 president, will go as one of the dele-

Wildman Visits

W. O. Wildman, former publisher of the Gazette-Times, and son Larry visited for a short time in Heppner June 24. They came to pick up some of the belongings they had left when they moved in June, 1961. The family now has a fibert ranch near Newberg and he has been helping the publishers of the Carlton-Yamhill Review as a linotype operator.

Rector and Family Leave on Vacation

Church services of All Saints' Episcopal church will be limited to the 10 a.m. Sunday service during the first three weeks of July while the rector, Father Bruce Spencer, is absent for vacation. All daily and mid-week Eucharists are cancelled until the return of Father Spencer in the last week of July.

A full schedule of services, including the daily services, will be in effect starting Sunday, July 29, with 7:30 a.m. Holy Communion and the later service at 10 a.m. as usual. Daily Eucharist will be at 7:30 a.m. (including Holy Days). Services of Holy Communion will continue Wednesdays at 10 a.m., the usual time for this service, Father Spencer said.

The Spencers planned to take a trip south to Arizona.

Daughter Born

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daly, Butter Creek ranchers, are the parents of a daughter, born June 25. The young Miss weighed 6 pounds 1 ounce and she was born at St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Daly, Pendleton, and Elizabeth Jarrard, La Grande.

Fish on John Day

Mr. and Mrs. Al Fetsch, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Munkers and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fetsch enjoyed two days of fishing on the North Fork of the John Day river last Thursday and Friday. Fishing was only fair but the area was beautiful and the water was clear. They enjoyed camping overnight and a deer walked into their camp. Larry Fetsch caught the largest trout, one about 15 inches long.
