

Lone Jazz Band Makes Hit In Portland Performance

By LORRAINE BALL

IONE—The Sages, a local jazz band, appeared on Friday night's entertainment at Lloyd Center in Portland in connection with the Miss Universe contest there. They were offered an audition by KWJJ radio station and have a standing offer to perform at Tuesday luncheons at the Lloyd Center. The group performed on the back of a truck in the parade on Saturday.

The Morrow County Rodeo queen and court also rode in the parade, as did the Miss Universe contestants.

Several Return From Trips

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnett returned home last week following a short vacation that took them to Yellowstone National Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Biehl left Ione at the close of school in June, motored to Bremerton where they visited with relatives and took in the World's Fair at Seattle. They also visited in Missoula, Mont., and Lewiston, Ida., with relatives, returning to their home in Ione last week. He will coach again at the high school this coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Engleman were Sunday dinner guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel at Hardman.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson went to Salem for the wedding of her niece, Diane Bye to Elvin Martin last Sunday. Also going from Ione were Mr. and Mrs. Hershal Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnett spent several days this past week in Seattle visiting with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Aune. Their grandson, Ricky Barnett accompanied them. While there they enjoyed touring the Puget Sound in the Aune's motor boat.

In last week's paper it was erroneously reported that Mrs. Ray Turner was of Salem. It should have read of Eugene. My apology to Mrs. Turner and family.

Art Rowell, Mrs. Crowell, Kay Winkelman and Mike Rowell, motored to John Day recently for a Sunday visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rowell. Mrs. Winkelman took the two small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Rowell home, following an extended visit with the Winklemans while Mrs. Rowell was hospitalized.

Wayne Ball and Harold Rietmann left by car on Sunday to motor to Oakland, Calif., to pick up Wayne Rietmann, who is being discharged from the army soon. They plan to return to Ione the latter part of this week.

Elmer Peterson visited overnight this week with his brother Harry at Dayville.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Barnett are visiting over the Fourth with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnett.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Reisch have moved to Lexington.

Attending Vale Rodeo

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn went to Vale for the Fourth of July celebration. Their daughter Diane is a princess in the Morrow county court which will perform there.

The Ione Rainbow Assembly of Girls held a traveling food sale on Tuesday morning with a good response.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Engleman and Frankie attended a birthday dinner in honor of Cassy Ann Chapel at Hardman on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Mollie Queener is visiting at the home of her grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nichols for a few days. Mr. Queener recently passed away and she has been visiting with area relatives.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nichols were Mr. and Mrs. Woody Tucker and three children of Stanfield and Miss Elsie Tucker of Eugene. Elsie and Woody are daughter and son of Mrs. Queener.

Phil Emert and Don Heliker took two trucks of cattle to Portland over the week-end, returning to Ione on Monday evening.

Mrs. Ray Turner and sons of Eugene returned home on Sunday following an extended vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Drake in Ione.

Thornes Return From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Thorne returned recently from an extended vacation that took them into Washington where they visited with her brother. They went on to Missoula, Mont., and to Glacier National Park. They also visited in Idaho with Mrs. Thorne's mother. Their grandsons, Donald and Ronald Eagle, returned home with them for a visit. They will leave this week-end for home.

Recent visitors at the Cecil Thorne home were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Synold of Tucson, Ariz.

Lions Stag Night Set

The Lion's annual stag night will be held this Friday, July 6, at the American Legion hall in Ione, with time set for 8:00 p.m. Mrs. Donald Heliker received word on Monday of the sudden passing of her brother, George Graves in Pendleton. Mr. Graves had not been ill and suffered a sudden heart attack.

Fireworks Well Attended

Many youngsters and parents were on hand on Saturday evening from far and near to view the display of fireworks at the football turf sponsored by the American Legion. Although a bit windy and precautions had to be taken, it was enjoyed by all. The dance at the hall following the display was also well attended.

Former Resident Named For Award

A distinguished honor was given Mrs. Joseph (Mary Monohan) Causey of Douglas, Ariz., when she was recently named Lady of the Year for outstanding civic and social work in the community in which she lives, according to word received here by relatives.

Mrs. Causey is the daughter of Mrs. Marie Monohan and the late Frank Monohan, and a sister to Mrs. Paul Hisler and James Monohan, both of Heppner. She was born in Condon and at an early age moved with her family to Heppner, where she grew up. She was graduated from St. Mary's hospital of nursing in Walla Walla, Wn., in 1934; served as a lieutenant in the Naval Nurses corps at the naval hospital in San Diego, Calif., and married Dr. Causey in Astoria in 1944. Dr. Causey is also mayor of the city of Douglas and the couple has three children, Sandra, Jody and Michael.

She was awarded the honor particularly for outstanding service in the field of help for retarded children in her area. The Mary Causey Home in Douglas was named for her and she has helped other schools and organizations in sponsoring education facilities for the retarded children. She has been active in Red Cross, YWCA, nursing associations, church and PTA organizations.

Selection of the Lady of the Year award is made annually through sponsorship of Beta Sigma Phi organization.

Needlettes Busy

The Needlettes held two meetings last month on June 6 and 11. The first one was an all-day meeting at Arleta McCabe's. The members present cut out

ANNOUNCING...

Two New Members In Our Firm

Matt Hughes

Effective as of July 1, Case Furniture Company was incorporated and two veteran employees, Matt Hughes and Ray Ayers, joined Gene Case, principal owner, as stockholders. Hughes was elected president of the corporation, Ayers is secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Case is vice-president. The company plans to serve you even better under the new method of ownership.

—Gene Case

Hughes has been employed by Case Furniture Co. for 12 years and is an expert in floor coverings, carpet laying and counter tops. He has attended schools on linoleum and ceramic tile installations.

This week both Hughes and Ayers attended an air conditioning school in Portland, sponsored by Johnson Heating Co., to keep pace with latest developments and to bring them to our customers.

Ray Ayers

Ayers has been with Case Furniture Co., for nine years; specializing in furnace installation and repair, air conditioning installation and repair, appliance repairs of all kinds.

He has kept pace in the field by attending service schools and workshops and is one of the best trained servicemen in the state.

Both Hughes and Ayers are skilled in all departments of the furniture business and invite you to call upon them for your needs.

Swansons See Son Receive Lieutenant Wings In Air Force

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson returned June 25 from a week's trip to Phoenix, Arizona, where they attended graduation exercises for their son, 1st Lieut. Dennis E. Swanson, at Williams Air Force Base near Mesa, Arizona.

Lieut. Swanson was presented his wings at special ceremonies at the base chapel June 21, after completing his training course in flying jet trainers, T37's and T33's. He is now assigned to Pope Air Force Base in North Carolina after his leave is completed August 12.

Lieut. and Mrs. Swanson will spend much of their free time at the home of his parents in Ione. On their way north they will visit Mrs. Swanson's mother, Mrs. Margaret Ingram in Eugene, and friends there.

After their visit in Ione they will leave for North Carolina for his advanced training.

Busy Bees Make Skirts

All members of the Busy Bees 4-H sewing club were present for the last meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Bryce Keene. Presiding over the meeting was President Maureen McElligott.

A demonstration was given on putting in a placket. We worked on our skirts and are to have them done for the next regular meeting.
