Mrs. Erwin Called By Mother's Death

Mrs. Harold (Inez) Erwin was called to Walla Walla, Wn., this week after word of the death of her mother, Mrs. Rose A. Cameron on Monday, July 16, reached her.

Mrs. Cameron died in a Walla Walla nursing home after an illness of about a month. DeWitt Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Cameron was born November 1, 1885 in Big Timber, Montana. She lived as a young bride near Fergus, Montana. Her husband, George, died in October, 1947. In the family were one son and seven daughters, 17 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Grandson Is Born

A first grandson was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stout on July 11 at St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. The baby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stout and has been named James Paul. His weight was 7 lbs., 5 oz. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schadd of Pendleton. The Stouts have four other grandchildren, all granddaughters.

Student Takes Work In Hawaii University

Miss Helen Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graham and senior next year at Oregon State University, is enrolled in summer school classes at the University of Hawaii in Honolulu.

She is one of several students taking advantage of the Howard's Tour sponsored during the summer by OSU. She will return to her parent's home upon the completion of her summer course in secretarial science on August 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Oslund and three daughters, New Castle, Wyo., are here visiting her mother, Mrs. Frank Wilkinson, and other relatives. They and Mrs. Wilkinson spent a few days last week at the World's Fair. The Oslunds leave today (Thursday) for their home and their daughters will stay a month with Mrs. Oslund's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Rugg.

Spending the week-end at the home of Mrs. Lester Doolittle were her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doolittle and sons Dennis and Ronald of Portland.

Over The Tee Cup

By DEE GRIBBLE

Play was a riotous affair Sunday with five couples getting to the tee-off at the same time. So, we decided to play a 10-ball fivesome. (Rules were made to be broken, I've heard said). What to know how long it took? Just three hours, and three more players. VanMatter, Sr., joined up at the third hole, and at number seven here came the Creswicks. Playing were the McQuarries, Pratts, Gribbles, Bev Gunderson, Judge Carmichael, Jack Loyd and Harlan McCurdy.

What would you golfers say to an organized "twilight tourney" on a week day in place of Sunday afternoon? Just asking. Credit Marie Mc. with three "chip-ins" (with Clint as her partner) and taking low score Sunday.

Corkie, Hester, Velma Glass, Hazel, Marie, LaFyrne, Helen Bebe, Kay R., Donna and I played Tuesday, with Hester and Velma in charge. Balls were given for most strokes on number 6 hole, using wood shots only. It was "be kind to LaFyrne" day as she won that ball (with 11) and then tied Corkie with least shots on number 4 with four. (Corkie won the flip.)

You'll never see two more determined golfers than Helen Schaffitz and Cork Norene—took them six strokes each to get across the swamp on number 9 and only lost one ball between them, but the golf shoes will never be the same again, and the water is cooold.

Plans are under way for couples to just go and play at McNary on Sunday. (Not officially invited, but know we'll be welcome.) So if you are interested in the plans, call Marie McQuarrie or me.

Hear that Hillard and Lucille Brown actually get out at 4 o'clock in the morning and play. Hillard says the day is just beautiful at that time. Wish Lucille would sleep in and play with us gals.

NONSENSE—
"Golf, golf," snarled the little woman. "I really believe I'd drop dead if you spent one Sunday at home." Hubby sighed, "Now, now, it's no use talking like that. You know you can't bribe me."

Jack Loyd says Gribble is "a sulking, uncommunicative opponent on a golf course. He talks to me on every green, but he always says the same thing: 'You're away.'"
