OH MY goodness, Tuesday all ready again! Also the middle of the month, bet the kids are just counting the days until school starts?

CAROLYN COLE entertained with two tables of pinochle Wednesday night with Marg Eckman walking off with the high prize. And no wonder with the fabulous cards she held! Her lowest score for one progression was 1,000. They played seven progressions and her total was over 9,000. Bet everyone was clamoring to be her partner. Mary Ann Power was second and Mickey Mollahan was low. Also in on the play were Gail Burkenbine, Flo Connor, Helen Olson, Gail Johnson, and Carolyn.

BOBBE DRISCOLL won high Thursday night when Marlan Abrams had the Nine Tricks club in for an evening of bridge. Margaret Stewart won second and Jean Williamson was low. Others playing were Meg Murray, Arlene Laird, Karen Thompson, Sue Jones, Jean Marie Damon, Gwen Huff, Rita Wolff, Helen Sherman, and Janina Johnson. It seems Marian had planned to serve baked Alaska, but instead they got ice cream. Know why? The electricity was off for two hours that night!

SPEAKING OF electricity and Thursday night, I called Marj Gardner to inquire about lodging in The Dalles. Well, to make conversation I said something about eating supper. She said they were just sitting down, and I said, "How can you with the electricity off?" Whew, that was the wrong thing to say. You know--gas type stoves!

DORIS WATKINS and Mary Harris teamed up during the Friday afternoon pinochle play to meld 1500 trump and Doris went right on to win high for the afternoon. Besides she was the hostess. Busy afternoon! Millie Evans and Beulah Mankin won the pinochle. Others making up the two tables were Pearl Wright, Eva Miller, Carrie Beckett, and Gladys Beckett.

ELKS DUPLICATE play last Tuesday night had five and one-half tables in play. They used the Howell movement in the scoring with Laurel Van Marter and Jim Driscoll winning high. Rachel Dick and Bill Blake won second, and Gordon and LaFyrne Pratt won third.

MARK LOVGREN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Lovgren, celebrated his 10th birthday Thursday with a party at the court-house lawn. The boys, all members of the Dodger baseball team, enjoyed a Wiener roast and many games on the lawn. His guesses were Tim Loyd, Jon O'Donnell, Kip Scribner, Bill Baker, and Ricky Gimbel.

Parrish Home Scene Of Birthday Supper

Birthday anniversaries of Miss Leta Humphreys and Mrs. Lucille Wilson was the occasion for friends to gather at the Fred Parrish home Saturday, July 7, for an informal buffet supper lawn party. Assisting Mrs. Parrish as co-hostess was Mrs. Walter Beckett.

A special guest was William Thomas, visiting here from Burbank, Calif.

Others attending were Mrs. Virginia Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Beckett, Mr. and Mrs. Parrish and the honored guests, Miss Humphreys and Mrs. Wilson.

Wedding Date Told For Judy Cochell

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wilkinson announce the coming marriage of their daughter, Judith Ann Cochell, to Richard E. Paine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Paine, Aloha. The ceremony will take place Friday, July 20, at 7:00 p. m. in the First Methodist church in Heppner.

All friends and relatives are invited to the wedding and reception which will follow in the church social rooms.

James McCabe of Heppner is confined to The Dalles General hospital. He suffered a mild heart attack last Wednesday while visiting there.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rock of Corvallis were overnight guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Struckmeier last Thursday and Friday, while Mr. Rock was on vacation from his position as art instructor at OSU. Mrs. Struckmeier and Mrs. Rock were college friends when both attended Linfield College in McMinnville.

A PRETTY SUMMER WEDDING was that of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Burkenbine, (the former Sherley May Case), performed in the Heppner Methodist church on Sunday, July 1. (Lyons Photo Studio)

Local Couple Takes Marriage Vows July 1 In Church Ceremony

The marriage of Sherley May Case and Arthur LeRoy Burkenbine was solemnized Sunday, July 1 at a double ring ceremony at the Heppner Methodist church with the Rev. Melvin W. Dixon reading the marriage vows. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Case and the groom is the son of Reese Burkenbine and Mrs. Herb Case.

Floral arrangements of pink and white gladiolus banked by tall tapers in candelabra formed the background. Marking each side of the center aisle were large sprays of pink and white glads. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Fred Gimbel, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor length gown of nylon net over taffeta, with elbow length lace veil. Her jewelry was a single strand of crystals that had been worn by her mother at her wedding. The bridal bouquet was made of six phalaenopsis orchids, with sprays of ivy, placed on a small white Bible. The orchids were fashioned into a corsage and worn later with her going away attire.

Miss Leola Lane was maid of honor, and chose a white eyelet sheath dress and carried a white parasol, decorated with pink rosebuds.

Forrest Burkenbine, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Stanley Cox, uncle of the groom, and Michael Gray.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Case wore a green print dress with white accessories accented by a corsage of adiantum orchids and lavender stock.

The groom's mother was attired in a blue print dress with white accessories and wore an orchid corsage.

The couple greeted their friends at a reception in the church social rooms. Mrs. Theta Stratton and Mrs. Lincoln Nash took care of arrangements for the reception.

A large three tiered wedding cake, decorated with pink roses and white bells centered the serving table. Arrangements of pink and white flowers and pink candles in crystal candelabra enhanced the bride's table. After the newlyweds cut the first piece of cake, it was served by Mrs. Forrest Burkenbine.

Assisting about the rooms were Misses Fran Heath and Patty Mahon.

Both young people attended schools in Heppner, the groom continuing in college in La Grande for one year. He is presently employed at Central Market. They are now at home in the Pettyjohn Apartments.

Picnic Due Sunday

Past Noble Grands of Sans Souci Rebekah lodge and their families are invited to a picnic at the John Bergstrom ranch home Sunday, July 22. The potluck dinner is set for 1:00 p.m. Silverware and coffee will be furnished.
