Youth Back Home After Long Trip

Bill Sherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman, returned home Monday after completing an 11,000 mile trip around the United States and Canada with "Student Tour USA," a student group of 41, principally from Stayton, who traveled via chart-tered bus.

Cities that he most enjoyed on the trip were Salt Lake City, Utah; St. Petersburg, Fla.; Washington, D. C.; and Quebec, Canada. Highlights included visits to several national parks, visiting the United Nations in New York, the Capitol building and White House in Washington, attending a Yankee-Minnesota baseball game in New York, stage play, "My Fair Lady," in New York, appearing on American Bandstand national television program in Philadelphia, seeing the Passion Play at Spearfish, S. D., a trip through the Ford plant in Detroit and riding on a test run, and visits to many points of historical interest in the East.

M. L. Morey, Stayton superintendent of schools, was director of the trip, and the full 11,000 miles was traveled without accident or major difficulty of any kind.

Camping in Sam Houston park in Louisiana was probably the most unpleasant memory for the students. They were fair game for large and hungry mosquitos and other insects and pulled out at 3 a.m. Swimming on the Gulf coast and enjoying the luxury of Florida quickly erased this memory, however.

Bill, a junior in Heppner high school, took many colored pictures on the trip. His parents met him in Stayton Sunday at the homecoming which saw some 500 persons on hand to greet the returning students.
