Couple Makes Home In Pendleton After Pretty June Wedding

Wedding vows were exchanged between Brenda Kay Townsend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Townsend of Ione, and George Portschy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Portschy of Pendleton, in an evening ceremony June 16 at the Ione Community church. The Rev. Rod MacKenzie read the double ring ceremony.

Decorating the church were large baskets of white gladiolus and lavender chrysanthemums, with white pew bows centered with a lavender orchid.

Wedding music was played by Miss Karen Lundell who also accompanied Mrs. Gerald Jonasson soloist, when she sang "O Promise Me," "The Wedding Prayer," and "Hawaiian Wedding Song."

The bride's gown was of white silk organza with fitted bodice, pointed neckline and floor length bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a jeweled crown and she carried a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis. She carried an embroidered handkerchief, a gift of her grandmother, Mrs. William Campbell of Stanfield.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Pat Hammond, wearing an orchid sheath with matching hat and accessories.

Bridesmaids, choosing lavender cummerbund, attended as flower girl. She carried a basket of orchids. Ricky Peterson carried the rings.

Gary Richards of Pendleton was best man. Ushers were Mancell Townsend, brother of the bride, and Don Baumeister and Jim Baker of Pendleton.

A reception followed in the church parlors with Linda Heim-bigner pouring; cake was cut and served by Carol Kay Anderson and Carol Sue Hynd, cousin of the bride, and Marilyn Morgan served punch. The table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake surrounded with vandum orchids and topped by miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Milton Morgan was chairman for the reception, with Mrs. Mike Matthews, Mrs. Clell Rea, Mrs. Harold Sherer, Kathy Rea and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Jr., assisting about the rooms.

Following a wedding trip to the coast, the couple is now at home in Pendleton, where the groom is employed at the U.S. Gypsum plant at Pilot Rock and the bride is a beautician at the Bob Shop in Pendleton.

For going away, the new Mrs. Portschy wore a lavender Chinese sheath with matching coat and gold-colored accessories. She wore the orchid from the bridal bouquet. After the reception the main bouquet was thrown and caught by Linda Halvorsen.

Coming from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. George Krebs, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Russell McKnight, Mrs. Bob Henderson, Pruitt and Craig, all of Vancouver, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. Perl Bye and Diane and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Bye, all of Silverton; Mrs. Fred Jenkinson, Carson, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reid, Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pierce, Redmond; Joyce and Dixie Darr, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bleakman, Hermiston; Mrs. Jerry Haddock, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zachary, Moro; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Portschy, Pendleton; Mike Chase, Pasco; Mrs. Ella Bleakman, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Irby and Mrs. Jessie Griffin, Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Gardner visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Collins, Hood River, and vacationed at Lost Lake. They also stopped to visit their parents in The Dalles, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Payne and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gardner.

Paines Host Dinner For Wedding Party, Out-of-town Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Paine were hosts for a rehearsal dinner at Stefan's on Thursday evening, prior to the wedding Friday evening of their son, Richard Edwin, to Miss Judy Cochell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wilkinson, Heppner.

In addition to the groom and bride-elect, the wedding party included Diana Rees, Kent, Wn.; Pamela Cochell, Connie Anderson and Nancy Cleveland, Heppner; Bill Strader, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. David Paine, Morgantown, West Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Andrews, Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. W. D. Andrews, Thomas Andrews and Bill Andrews, Vancouver, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ritter, Mrs. Del DesBrisay, Mrs. Dick Chinnock, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Strader, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Wells, Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. Randall Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, John Cleveland, all of Heppner; Jon Ryder, Glde, and Miss Suzie Coffern, Bryn Athyn, Pa.

During the evening the bride-elect presented her wedding attendants with evening star pendants. Gifts from the groom to his ushers and attendant were pearl tie pins.

HOW GOOD it is to have our radio-phonograph working again! Really just too quiet around here without the music roaming about. I concentrate better or maybe it keeps me from talking to myself.

BERT HUFF and LaVerne Van Marter journeyed to Hermiston Monday to enter the Elks duplicate play. They continued the Heppner winning habit by bringing home first prize.

BARBARA ALLSTOTT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Allstott, celebrated her 8th birthday with a party Thursday afternoon. Her guests were Tracie and Tina Connor, Sally and Sandra Kirby, Edna and Louise Hartle, Doyie Alderman, Melinda Leonng, Janet McCurdy, Cyde Marie and David Allstott. They enjoyed games and refreshments of birthday cake and "keens cones." Barbara picked out the "keens cones" recipe and helped mother, Jackie, prepare the treats. They were ice cream in cones decorated with cookies and chocolate chips, making dolls, then placed into the freezer until party time.

MILLIE EVANS took high for the Friday afternoon pinochle club with Gladys Beckett as hostess, Pearl Wright and Beulah Mankin took the pinochle and Gladys won low. Also in on the two tables of play were Mary Harris, Marguerite Chapin, Doris Watkins, and Carrie Beckett.

BIRTHDAYS WERE in season at the Allstott home last week! Jackie was surprised with a party Friday afternoon by Flo Connor at the Connor home. The guests enjoyed an afternoon of Confusion, which is a card game. Beth Van Schoelack won high and Delores McLachlan was low. Others present for the "Confusion," cake and coffee were Jeanne Berry, Bobby Angell, and Mrs. Floyd Hutchins.

WHAT ABOUT going clear to Seattle to the World's Fair, taking loads of pictures with a magazine-load movie camera, only to find you had the Needle in the middle of Puget Sound?? It seems a certain someone got the finished magazine and new magazine mixed up when loading the camera, so took pictures on top of pictures!

HAVE YOU noticed the fresh fruits and vegetables are late coming into the markets this summer. I saw in the markets this week that the other berries, besides strawberries, are beginning to appear. According to the OSU marketing report they expect a larger crop of red raspberries, smaller crops of boysenberries and loganberries, and about the same as last year of black raspberries.

LOOK FOR turkeys to be featured in the markets this month due to the huge crop last year. Many of the birds were put into cold storage. So use turkeys often in your summer menus. They can be used in salads and in sandwiches. Tomatoes and cucumbers will be coming more plentiful as the local items come on the market.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pratt and family are vacationing this week in Portland and on the coast. They left The Dalles following the Little League games Saturday night and plan to return next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sumner and children, The Dalles, visited the week-end with relatives.
