Pioneer Resident, M. Whittington, Dies After Illness

Funeral services for Mrs. Marie Whittington were held in San Francisco, Calif., July 12. She died at the Mt. Zion hospital there following a two month's illness. The Rev. John Harms of the Episcopal church officiated at the services. Interment was at the Portland Crematorium.

Mrs. Whittington was born August 29, 1887, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Robison, pioneers in the Eightmile district. She was a member of the Christian church and spent her childhood in Morrow county, later attending Pacific University at Forest Grove.

On July 3, 1906 she was married to Pearl Shamhart and to this union one daughter was born. The couple operated a farm in the Eightmile district for some time, later moving to Heppner where their daughters, Rita and Babe Shamhart, attended school. Mr. Shamhart died in Klamath Falls in 1930.

In 1935 she was married to Oscar Whittington who operated the Star Theater in Bend for 25 years. After his death in Condon from a heart attack, she made her home in Condon with her sister, Jocie Chappell. She also spent some time in San Francisco with her daughter, a granddaughter and two children.

Survivors are her daughter, Rita Adams, San Francisco; step-daughter, Babe Dunn, Klamath Falls; granddaughter, Lola M. Adolph, San Rafael, Calif.;

Pastor Completes Colorado School

The Rev. Rod MacKenzie, pastor of the Ione Community church, has completed a course in the Western Pastors' School, meeting for the first time this summer under the auspices of the United Church of Christ at two sisters, Ollie Adkins, Portland, and Josie Chappell, Condon; one brother, Walter Robison, Mt. Hebron, Calif.; niece, Elinor Strohmayr, Portland; nephews, Richard and Dick Robison, Heppner; step-daughters, Eva Steele and Helen Lasher, Portland, and many nieces and nephews of Klamath Falls.

One week after her death was the funeral of her sister-in-law, Harriett G. Robison, a resident of Coos Bay for many years. Services were held in the chapel of Campbell-Watkins Funeral Home, Coos Bay. She was a close friend to Mrs. C. H. Bartholomew, Heppner.

La Foret in the Black Forest, Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Although this is the first time under the United Church of Christ, the school session is the 22nd since it was organized by the Congregational Board of Home Missions.

The school concluded with a votive candle service July 29, a banquet on July 30, and a communion service July 31. The Rev. MacKenzie attended on a scholarship from the Board of Home-land Ministries. Twenty-one states were represented by the student body of 58, and several outstanding theological seminaries were represented in the faculty.

More than 1200 ministers have attended the school over the years. It has a four-fold emphasis: Lectures, reading, worship, fellowship. Off campus activities included trips to Mt. Evans, the Flying W Ranch, Central City, Colorado College for dinner and an evening of chamber music, attendance at "La Boehme" in Central City and at presentation of "The Girl of the Golden West."
