Easterners Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Maberry and family of Detroit, Mich., were in Heppner Tuesday visiting Mrs. Maberry's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Whitesmith, and family. The Michiganers had been to Seattle to the World's Fair and were en route home, expecting to travel by Yellowstone Park. The visit marked the first time that the two families had seen each other for six years.

Education isn't play—and it can't be made to look like play. It is hard, hard work. But it can be made interesting work. —Thomas A. Edison

Legler Found Dead in Garage; Services Held

By MARTHA MATTESON
MONUMENT—Services were held Tuesday in Long Creek for Fred Legler who was found Saturday morning hanging from a rope in his garage at the Tom Ross home in Hamilton. He was found by George Johnson. Survivors include a daughter, Joy, two sons, Jack and Merrill, his widow, and a brother, George. Burial was in Hamilton.

A number of people drove to Long Creek Saturday to attend the services for the late Bill Weissenflu, who died July 31 at the St. Anthony hospital, Pendleton, after a long illness. He had served as a member of the board of directors of the Columbia Power Coop since June, 1953. He leaves his widow, Bertha, and a son, C. V., of Long Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Howell and two sons of Spray visited Saturday at the Frank Howell home.

Fire fighters were called out Thursday evening when the city dump caught on fire. No serious damage was done.

Bud Boyd and son of Eugene stopped in Monument July 31. Bud lived in the Kimberly area several years ago with his brother Joel before moving to the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Erhardt and family of Portland are visiting their son Mr. and Mrs. Tom Erhardt and family.

Jack Cavender and daughter Susan spent Monday in Pendleton on business.

L. L. Flowers drove to Portland Monday evening for parts for his harvesting machines, returning home Tuesday.

Harold Dean Woods has moved from the VanDelta home back to Long Creek.

Joan Mullins, Linda Roberts and two daughters moved to Salem where they expect to work in the cannery.

Mrs. Evelyn Farrens of Heppner is visiting her son Darrell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cox and two children of North Powder spent the week-end here visiting their son Bob.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Johnson, Frances Noland and children spent Saturday at Prineville on business and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ansil Martin and children.

Word was received here of the death the past week in Portland of Mrs. Ida M. Boyd, former resident of Kimberly. She is survived by two sons, Bud and Joel.

Kansas Picnic Set

The annual Jewell county, Kansas, picnic will be held at Kenilworth Park, 3030 S. E. Holgate, in Portland at noon on August 19. It is announced. Coffee and cold drinks will be furnished.
