WHEW, DID YOU KNOW the fair, with all of its hustle and bustle, is just around the corner? I think it has sneaked up on a lot of people. When talking to Helen Cox Monday, she said, "Oh my gosh, is the fair Tuesday and time again to work with the flower display?" Guess we had all better hurry, it is later than we think!

MERIDY WEBB and Joyce Nolan were honored with a going away party given by eighth grade classmate girls Thursday evening. Hostesses were Brenda Young and Diane Schaffitz at the Schaffitz home. The girls were each given a blouse and pin initial. Joyce is moving with her family to Poulsbo, Wn., near Bremerton, and Meridy will move to Walla Walla, Wn. with her family. The girls enjoyed a potluck supper and barbecued hamburgers. They later listened to records and danced.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE players are reminded of the unit party here Sunday, August 19 at the multipurpose room. The play will get underway at 2:00 p.m. and all players are invited to participate.

TERRY WHITESMITH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Whitesmith, celebrated her sixth birthday with a party Monday afternoon. The guests enjoyed many games and refreshments and it was the exciting moment of opening the gifts. Terry's guests were Teresa Hughes, Cyde Allstott, Cathy Sherman, Cathy Ayers, Judy and Sandy Bennett, and Ann Burkenbine.

FIFTY YEAR wedding anniversaries are quite an occasion and an honor. Ramona Marshall and Elma Harshman are busily getting everything ready for the 50th wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kinard McDaniel, at the Hardman IOOF hall on Sunday. In talking with Ramona and Elma they are quite excited and hope the weather cooperates!

GRACE BUSCHKE won high and teamed up with Beulah Mankin to win the pinochle at the Friday afternoon pinochle club play. Millie Evans was hostess and took low. Others playing were Gladys Beckett, Carrie Beckett, Eva Miller, Marguerite Chapin, and Hanna Anderson.

THE JACK Healy home was the scene of a family dinner Sunday in honor of relatives visiting here from Minnesota. Mrs. Ida Coleman and many of her children and family were present. Guests were Mrs. Elwood Brown, Fergus Falls, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Olson, and Wendy, St. Paul, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Palmer are sisters of Mrs. Coleman.

KAY ROBINSON took high Friday night when June Bellenbrock entertained with two tables of bridge. Also in on the win side were Lillian Sweek, second; and Lois Hunt, low. Others playing were Elsie Cole, Gladys Van Winkle, Mabel Heath, Bebe Burkenbine, and June.

THIS IS coming into local watermelon time as they begin to arrive on the market. They are plentiful this year so enjoy them this month. Peaches are available both in the markets and you may go to the orchards near Umatilla and Milton-Freewater to pick them. The Elbertas and Hales will be coming on and the Red Havens are nearly gone. Because of hot weather, lemons are more plentiful than usual at this season. Expect to find three summertime favorites, cantaloupes, lemons, and limes, featured in food markets this weekend. Large supplies of cabbage are available, as are lettuce, radishes, green onions, beets, and celery are now in the market. Watch for good buys on potatoes this week. Also specialties this week should be beef cuts and poultry.

Bert Corbins Feted On 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Corbin were honored with a family picnic and open house on their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, August 12. The immediate members of their family gathered at Cutsforth Park for a potluck picnic to honor them on the occasion. Sunday evening they were guests at an open house with daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Harrison, as hostess. Friends dropped in to visit and congratulate them and they were presented many lovely gifts. Coffee and cake were served during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Corbin, the former Genevieve Hanna, were married in Pendleton August 12, 1937 and have lived in the community most of the time during their marriage. He is employed with Morrow County Grain Growers. They have three children. Kay recently discharged from the U.S. Air Force and is now in Seattle employed by Boeing; a daughter, Cara Lee Harrison, who lives with her husband and three children at Priest Rivers, Idaho; and another son, Terry, who is an eighth grader in the Heppner schools this fall.

Guests in during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schwarz, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harley Young, Mr. and Mrs. John Hanna and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bennett and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bergstrom and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Harrison and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Borman, Mrs. Ilene Wyman, Mrs. Herb Case, Forrest Burkenbine and Elwayne Bergstrom.

September Date Told For Baker-Larson Rite

The marriage of Miss Mardine Baker of Ione to Donald A. Larsen of Methow, Wn., will be an event of Sunday afternoon, September 2, at 3 p.m. in the Ione Community church, it is announced. An invitation is extended their many friends in the area to attend the ceremony and reception following.

The engagement of Miss Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Markham Baker, to Mr. Larsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Larsen of Methow, Wn., was announced in the spring while both were attending college. Miss Baker graduated from Washington State University this year and Mr. Larsen will complete his studies in civil engineering at the University of Idaho in Moscow this coming year.

Whites Announce Daughter's Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Allen White of Ione announce the engagement and coming marriage of their daughter, Lona Louise to John Edward Wehling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ernest Wehling of Oregon City.

The bride-elect is a 1961 graduate of Ione High school and both of the young people attended Portland State college where Mr. Wehling is affiliated with Sigma Delta Omega fraternity. St. Mathews Lutheran church, 10350 S. W. Canyon Road near Beaverton, has been chosen as the place for the wedding of the couple. The date is set for November 3, at 7 p.m., with friends extended a cordial invitation to attend.

Mrs. Don Munkers and children arrived home Sunday after several weeks in the valley. Mrs. Munkers and son Steve visited in Monmouth; another son, Dale attended a speech school in Portland and stayed with the Jim Angellis; and daughter, Kay, visited Mrs. Munkers' father, Ernest Teague in Eugene.

Rodeo Court Guests At Soroptimist Club Luncheon; See Films

Members of the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo court and their mothers were guests of the Heppner Soroptimist club at a luncheon meeting last Thursday noon in the Wagon Wheel dining rooms. The place of each girl was marked with a silver horseshoe place card, centered with her own childhood picture, taken when riding a favorite horse.

Mrs. Roice Fullerton, chaperone for the court, introduced Queen Marlene Fetsch, who in turn introduced each of the princesses: Irene Potts, Boardman; Diana Fullerton, Wrangler club; Jacquie Brindle, Lena community, and Dianna Pettyjohn, Ione. Mothers present were Mrs. Leo Potts, Mrs. Robert Brindle, Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Mrs. Al Fetsch and Mrs. Fullerton. The girls made an attractive appearance in their blue and white rodeo outfits, and had on display an enlarged colored picture of the group, a gift to their chaperone.

Mrs. Jim Hager, presided over a short business meeting when brief reports were heard on the progress of this year's float.

A review of past parades and rodeos was seen on a home movie reel shown by Mr. Hager and taken by the Hager family. Of interest was the appearance of other courts in the parades,

Rev. Alsip New Assembly Pastor

The Rev. B. Alsip will take over the pulpit of the Assembly of God church Sunday morning, August 19, replacing the Rev. Homer Wolfington, who with his family are leaving soon to make their home in Kirkland, Wn. Rev. Wolfington plans to re-enter college this fall, enrolling at Northwest College in Seattle, completing requirements for a degree in theology. They have their home here for sale.

Rev. Alsip, with his wife and five children, have moved to Heppner from Oakridge, where he was a former minister.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Griffin and son, Portland were week-end visitors with relatives. They were accompanied by Carol Burkenbine who had visited them for a week. The family gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cox on Sunday for a family dinner get-together.

William H. Padberg, Lexington, is now staying with his daughter, Mrs. Eva Griffith. He will celebrate his 90th birthday August 21.

The excitement and color of past rodeos and review of past Soroptimist floats.
