

Wolff Home Scene Of Sunday Patio Party For Mother's Club

Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Wolff were hosts Sunday evening at their country home to members and guests of the Heppner Mother's club. An outdoor "steak-out" was enjoyed by ten couples, seated at tables placed about the carport adjoining the patio.

Barbecued steaks cooked to individual liking were enjoyed as the main course of the buffet-style supper. A large patio candle centered each table. Card games were in play after the group adjourned indoors.

Sharing in the activities were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brindle, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hutchens, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Struckmeier, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Laird and Dr. and Mrs. Wolff.

Classmates Gather For Farewell Party

Mark Brown was host at the country home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown, Tuesday evening when he invited several of his freshmen friends to a surprise farewell party for Jimmy Barclay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Barclay.

Jimmy is enrolling in the DeSales Catholic school in Walla Walla, Wash., in September, and will be leaving soon to enter the fall term.

Gifts were presented the honored guest, and refreshments served by Mrs. Brown.

Present to extend best wishes were Mike Bunch, Mark Murray, Dan McQuarrie, Ray Jones, Paul Hisler, Chris Brown, Mark Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hisler, Mr. and Mrs. Barclay and Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

Rainbow Girls Say Farewell To Advisor

Mrs. Paul Webb Jr., mother advisor of Ruth chapter, Rainbow for Girls, for the past year, was honored Friday night at the lodge hall with a farewell party given by the girls. Mr. and Mrs. Webb and family will move to Walla Walla, Wn. this week-end.

Ginger Springer, worthy advisor, was in charge of the affair. They enjoyed games, and refreshments were served later. Mrs. Webb was presented a gift of a Rainbow cup and saucer from the girls.

A successor has not yet been named to take Mrs. Webb's place. The first rainbow meeting is set for Monday night, September 3, 7:00 p. m. at the lodge hall.

Wedding Rehearsal Party Held Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Houte were hosts Friday night for a buffet dinner party following the wedding rehearsal of their daughter Lydia, and Neal Penland.

Featured at the buffet table were ham, turkey, salads, home made bread and cakes.

Members of the wedding party present were Neal and Lydia, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gray, Yvonne Otis of Stanfield, Mary Evelyn Tucker, Larry Tibbles, Tom Glass, Charlotte Thomas of Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pratt, and Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Spencer. Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Penland of Livermore, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Neal of Coos Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kirsch of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. John Tiffany of Eugene, and Marta Frey of Stayton.

Farewell Parties Given Jay Sumner

Mrs. Jim Lovgren was hostess Wednesday night for a combined farewell dinner party for her brother Jay Sumner and birthday party for her husband, Jim. Guests enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Cal Sumner and Laura, Mr. and Mrs. Al Lovgren, Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Lovgren and son, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Erwin, Shirley and Sherry, Mrs. Archie Alderman and Dovie, Ernie Garrison and Frankie Lovgren.

The following night Jay was the honored guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Sumner, for a barbecue dinner. Present for the occasion were Jay's sister, Laura, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sumner, Tom Sumner of Arlington, Ernie Garrison, Mary Cox, H. F. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lovgren and Frankie.

Jay left Friday for California and a two-weeks visit with friends on the California coast. He will usher at a fraternity brother's wedding in Sacramento September 2. Then he will enroll at UCLA for graduate work in business statistics and information processing, which involves working with IBM machines and related subjects. He was awarded a teacher assistantship and will teach part-time at the college and attend classes part-time. He graduated in June in business administration from Oregon State University.

Paula Barak Feted At Bridal Showers Preceding Wedding

IONE—The coming marriage of Miss Paula Barak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barak, Lexington, to Bill Peek, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Peek, Newberg, on September 1 in Portland has been the occasion for two parties in her honor the past week.

Marilyn Morgan and Karen Lundell were hostesses for a bridal luncheon and kitchen shower at the Morgan home on Monday. Guests included schoolmates of Paula that went to Ione while she attended here. Buffet luncheon was served at tables graced by green cloths and bud vases holding pink blossoms. At each place was a miniature bride's bouquet of lily of the valley, white netting, a wedding bank and white streamers. Games were played with Linda Halvorsen and Evelyn Jepsen receiving the prizes.

Assisting with the opening of gifts was Carol Sue Hynd. Gifts were placed on a lace covered table centered with a pink shower parasol with streamers. Pink and white were used as a color theme.

Guests included Mrs. Barak, mother of the bride-elect; Merrie Jo and Cheryl Morrison, Geraldine Morgan, Dianna Pettyjohn, Arleta McCabe, Jean Martin, Evelyn Jepsen, Sharon Crabtree, Janet Crabtree, Cheryl Lundell, Linda Halvorsen and Carol Sue Hynd.

On Thursday, August 23, Miss Barak was feted at a shower in her honor at the home of Mrs. Rod McKenzie. Hostesses were the teachers of the Ione Community Church school.

Since Miss Barak is in her final year at nursing school at Portland, the hostesses used a medical theme. They wore nurses' uniforms during the afternoon. After a short game the gifts were presented in an unusual way. A "patient", with a mannequin head, and gifts covered by sheet to make up the body, were brought in on a stretcher. Accompanying the "patient" was a bottle of plasma (colored water) on a mobile unit, to add to the effect. Mrs. McKenzie assisted Miss Barak with the opening of the gifts.

Attending were Mrs. Barak and Paula, Mrs. Markham Baker and Mardine, Mrs. Verner Troedson, Mrs. Lloyd Rice, Mrs. Oscar Lundell, Mrs. Wate Crawford, Mrs. Dixon Smith, Mrs. Phil Emert, Mrs. Bob Rietmann, Mrs. Bill Rietmann, Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mrs. Fred Martin, Mrs. Bob Jepsen, Mrs. Keith Rea, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. Arnie Hedman, Mrs. Bob DeSpain, Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Mrs. Rod McKenzie.

June Bray To Wed A. Lindstrom Sept. 9

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bray announce the coming marriage of their daughter, June Frances, to Arthur A. Lindstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. Lindstrom, of Ione.

The wedding will be solemnized Sunday, September 9, at 3:00 p. m. at the First Methodist church in Hermiston. They will be greeted at a reception following at the Civic Recreation center, with an invitation extended to all friends and relatives to attend both the wedding and reception.

"Anger is only one letter short of danger."
