50th Anniversary Of K. McDaniels Call Many Here

By ALTA STEVENS

Hardman, Rhea Creek—There were close to 150 friends and relatives who gathered at the IOOF Hall Sunday, August 19, to honor Mr. and Mrs. Kinard McDaniel on their Golden Wedding Anniversary. Many came from distant towns for the occasion.

Coming from Rufus were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bleakman, and from Hermiston were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bleakman. They also called at the Sam McDaniel home.

Mr. and Mrs. Delvin McDaniel and Karen of Pendleton helped his parents celebrate their anniversary.

Frank McDaniel of Stanfield was a week-end visitor at the Kinard McDaniel home and joined in the anniversary celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Chapin and two children of Pilot Rock visited with his father, Guy Chapin Sunday. They also came for the anniversary and dinner for the McDaniels.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Cline and daughter Mardy of Salt Lake City, Utah, came Tuesday for their children who have been visiting here and in Heppner. Mr. Cline and daughters Jillian and Mardy returned home Wednesday. Mrs. Cline and son Orrie, remained for a longer visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Robinson. She will be remembered here as Vera McDaniel.

Mrs. Bessie Craber of Walla Walla, Wn., spent Sunday evening visiting at the home of her niece, Alta Stevens.

Miss Fairy Stanton of College Place and Miss Kathy Marshall of Heppner were visitors Sunday evening at the Kinard McDaniel home. Miss Marshall stayed for a longer visit with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Schoenberger and daughter Georgia and two grandchildren of Kimberly were callers at the John Stevens home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Stuart and baby Ronda, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Musgrove of Monument stopped a few minutes to visit Mrs. Musgrove's father, John Stevens, Friday.

Everyone has started harvesting here the past week. The crops are later than in the lower country. They report that crops are about average, as the hot weather came at the wrong time. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Allen of Medford were callers at the John Stevens home Saturday on their way home from Hermiston where he had visited his father, John Allen.

Kinard McDaniel is staying this week at the Everett Harshman ranch while Mr. and Mrs. Harshman are at Seattle, Wn., attending a buyer's meeting for their store, Elma's Apparel.

Melvin McDaniel, son of Dallas McDaniel is home now. He has been working on a ranch at Dayton, Wn., this summer.

Dennis Marcilli of California visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fraters at the Blaine Chapel ranch where they are helping in harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burkenbine of Heppner were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Clark left Sunday to see the World's Fair at Seattle, Wn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright and son Kenny left Monday for a vacation at the coast. They also intend to stop at Portland to visit Mrs. Wright's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jackson.

Merl Becket, former manager of the First National Bank here, was a visitor in town last week with his brother, Harold, and other relatives and friends here. He is now manager of the bank in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Williams, former teachers in the Heppner schools, and their two sons were in Heppner and Lexington recently on business. They will teach in the Medford schools this year.

Once upon a time, and not more than that, a son asked for the garage keys and came out with the lawn mower.

Household hint: To keep cake from getting stale, put it in a paper box in the children's room.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gray of Roseburg, parents of Miss Jean Gray, beautician at Lois' Beauty salon, spent several days here last week while on vacation.

Among the out-of-town week-end guests here for the wedding of Miss Lydia Van Houte and Neal Penland on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Frey of Stayton, aunt and uncle of the bride, and their two children. The Freys own a grocery market and frozen food storage business in Stayton. They also renewed acquaintance with the Wes Sherman family at the Gazette-Times office, whom they knew through business relations in Stayton.

You can always spot a well-informed man. His views are usually the same as yours.
