"Please Don't Hurt My Kids!"

Dear Driver:

THIS WEEK, MY DAUGHTER, who is six years old, started to school for the first time. Her brother was with her, but he's only nine himself, and he still looks pretty little to me.

LAST NIGHT we talked about school—my daughter and I. She wondered what the teacher would be like . . . and hoped she could sit beside Mary, the little girl next door. She said her "letters" for me—just to be sure she knew them. Then she tried on her plaid pinafore to show me—and then to bed.

SHE LOOKED SO HELPLESS—sound asleep. When her doll is broken or her finger is cut, or her hand gets banged, I can fix it—but when she and Brother start to school, when they walk across the street, then they're in your hands.

THEY'RE NICE KIDS, both of them. They like to ride horses and swim and hike with me on Sunday afternoon. But I can't be with them all the time. I have to work to pay for their clothes and education. So please help me look out for them. Please drive slowly past the school and intersections and crosswalks—and please remember that children do run from behind parked cars.

PLEASE DON'T HURT MY KIDS!

—A Proud Daddy
